

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1686 – 1690

Chapter 1686

Because of his young age and the reason he has been favored at home, Normen has a strong desire to express himself.

However, he used to behave in front of his parents, and he had no chance to behave in front of his grandfather. Today, he finally seized the opportunity, thinking about the Old Master's ideas, and debating with him, so as to show his extraordinary talents. And wisdom, but did not expect, just a word, annoyed the Old Master soon.

He was about to open his mouth to explain, but he didn't think about it. His father Holden stood up and opened his bow left and right. He drew several big blows on his face, and the corners of his mouth were full of blood. Then he roared with extreme anger: "You read, go inside you dog? Dare to question your grandfather's decision here?!"

"I" Normen covered his face, the whole person aggrieved and wished to die here.

He hadn't been beaten when he grew up so old, and he didn't understand why his father, who had always been doting on him, wanted to suck him into death after one sentence angered his grandfather.

Moreover, it is still in front of the entire family.

At this time, Holden hates this son who is not growing.

He was very aware of the coercion of the Old Master, even his elder brother Zynn, he did not dare to stand up to the Old Master, let alone his ineffective little son?

It's not so popular!

It is very possible that his words will be completely beaten by the Old Master in the future, and after graduation from university, he will not even have the opportunity to return to Su's home to work!

The reason why the Old Master Chengfeng is so hegemonic and authoritarian is greatly related to his growth experience.

When he was young, he had many brothers.

At that time, it was still in the Qing Dynasty. His father not only had many children from seven wives. He gave birth to more than 30 children, including 23 sons alone!

And Chengfeng was just one of these 23 sons.

Just like the ancient prince seizing the first-in-law, Chengfeng had been fighting openly and secretly with 22 brothers since he was a child. After fighting for fifty years, he finally inherited the position of Su Family Patriarch.

Therefore, fifty years of constant fighting made his temperament extremely domineering and cruel.

If someone threatens his Carden, even if it is his son or grandson, he will never tolerate it.

Normen was young and ignorant, and with the aura of genius, he dared to confront Old Su to find a sense of existence. In everyone's eyes, this action was no different from looking for death!

Holden even slapped Normen dozens of slaps, and he almost couldn't stand to faint. Grandpa Su snorted and said: "Okay, don't beat him, let someone take him out, we Continue the meeting!"

Holden's heart was bleeding a long time ago, but the Old Master didn't speak, he didn't dare to stop.

Seeing that the Old Master finally spoke, he put his hands away and suppressed the distress in his heart, and yelled at the servant standing next to him: "Hurry up and get this unfilial son out of my face!"

Several people immediately stepped forward and dragged out Normen, who was vomiting blood, dizzy and tinnitus.

The Old Master Su cleared his throat and continued: "This cooperation with the Japanese will not only win at least 20% of the operating rights of Tokyo Port, Yokohama Port and Osaka Port, but also let them provide at least no less than For all kinds of cargo ships and oil tankers with a displacement of 3 million tons, whoever has the most resources will have the opportunity to become one of us. Therefore, when going to Japan this time, we must take a good look at the true strengths of Ito and Takahashi. In addition, we must force the two of them to use the most resources!"

The eldest son Zynn blurted out: "Father, don't know who you plan to let these two Japanese families cooperate with this time?"

Elder Su was silent for a moment, and then said: "Zynn, you are the eldest son and grandson, and it is time for you to take the lead. This time, you will take the lead!"

Zhifei, the eldest grandson of Su, and the eldest son of Zynn, is 28 years old this year and is the most outstanding male heir of the Su family.

Upon hearing that he was selected, Zhifei immediately stood up and said firmly: "Please rest assured, I will go all out!"

Elder Su nodded lightly, and his eyes fell on the beautiful and glamorous girl beside Zhifei.

It was also at this moment that the Old Master's eyes were finally not so hard. Instead, he was replaced by a somewhat pampering look. He smiled and said, "Zhiyu, you will graduate from Yale soon. It's also time to go out and exercise. This time you will follow your brother, learn more, watch more, and accumulate some experience!"

The beautiful and glamorous girl stood up, bowed slightly, her expression was not lukewarm, her eyes were lukewarm, her tone was neither salty nor free of salt, and said, "Ok, Grandpa, I will."

Chapter 1687

When the Old Master announced that Zhifei and Zhiyu would go to Japan together, their father Zynn's expression became a little proud.

In his opinion, the father gave such an important matter to his sons and daughters, which is evidence that he is the eldest son and is most trusted by the father.

The other heirs are full of envy and jealousy.

The Old Master wants to train Zhifei, and everyone has no opinion on this. After all, Zhifei is the eldest son and grandson. If placed in ancient times, this is the standard crown prince. No matter how strong other princes are, they must bow their heads when they see the eldest son and grandson.

However, let Zhifei go for exercise, and also take Zhiyu along with him. This is really a bit too eccentric!

Under normal circumstances, if you encounter such a thing, you should let the eldest son and grandson take the lead, and then from the second, third, fourth and even fifth family, choose one or two younger generations who are agile and capable of training and let them follow the eldest son. The eldest grandson went out to meet the world together.

However, he never expected that in addition to the eldest grandson in the eyes of the Old Master, there is only the eldest granddaughter he spoils the most!

In other words, this is tantamount to the Old Master showing his position. Except for the eldest grandson, all the other grandsons, in his eyes, are not as good as Zhiyu's female stream!

This can make other families feel extremely uncomfortable.

Everyone in Eastcliff knows that the Su family is thriving.

The Old Master had 22 brothers and a dozen sisters back then. In his line, he still has 13 grandsons and two granddaughters.

But who could have expected that in his eyes, the eldest granddaughter Zhiyu was the most favored.

The reason is that the Old Master has always been strict in his requirements and management of the male heirs of the family, so he and his sons and grandsons have always had a black face.

But the Old Master is also a mortal, and there is softness in his heart. He can't show the soft side to his son and grandson, so he gives the soft side to his granddaughter.

In addition, Zhiyu has been smart since she was a child, and she has been loved by her grandfather. In front of others, the grandfather is a demon with decisiveness, an extraordinary spirit, and an arrogant personality, but in front of his granddaughter, he is an ordinary, kind and doting younger generation lover.

In fact, the degree of doting the Old Master has for Zhiyu can be seen from the name of Zhiyu.

The juniors of the Su family are known for their generation.

Zhifei's name is meant to know right and wrong and not to make detours;

The name of each grandchild can be said to be full of the admonition and vigilance of Grandpa Su to his grandchildren.

Only Zhiyu.

The Old Master gave her this name, which means the joy of knowing fish.

In "Zhuangzi·Autumn Water", a conversation between Huizi and Zhuangzi is recorded. Huizi said that Zi is not a fish, and he knows the joy of fish.

The Old Master named her Zhiyu, hoping that she can be happy, happy, simple and happy. Since she can know "the joy of fish", she can naturally know "the joy of man".

Chapter 1688

It can be said that Father Su's incomparable love for Zhiyu is everywhere.

It is precisely because of this that the entire young talents of Eastcliff are full of desire for Zhiyu.

Solving Zhiyu is not just a glamorous super beauty, a super schoolmaster who has stayed in the United States all year round and received the world's top high-end education, it is also equivalent to the entire Su family.

Someone joked that whoever marries Zhiyu may obtain a huge wealth of up to trillions.

After the Old Master Chengfeng announced his decision, he said to his eldest son Zynn: "Zynn, you and Zhifei and Zhiyu should hurry up to discuss a general plan, and then hurry up to prepare for the journey. The sooner the better."

Zynn immediately stood up and said respectfully: "Father rest assured, I will discuss a plan with the two of them as soon as possible, and strive to leave for Japan tonight!"

Chengfeng nodded and exhorted: "As long as this kind of choice is made, it is particularly important who we contact first. Although the Ito family and the Takahashi family have fallen a bit due to the overall recession of the Japanese economy over the years, their overall strength is still very strong in Japan. Stay at the forefront, and you must carefully decide which one to contact first."

Zynn said immediately: "Good father, we will start the discussion right away and report the results to you as soon as possible."

Chengfeng smiled with satisfaction and said: "Zynn, eighteen years ago, you won Changying and became the most dazzling one among the younger generation of Eastcliff, but in the past eighteen years, you have not been able to achieve greater glory. Of course, you are not to blame. It is our family who has never encountered any decent opponents in China over the years."

Speaking of this, Chengfeng sneered, stood up, and fervently said: "The domestic market has no room for incremental growth. If we want to continue to grow, we must go abroad, go to sea, and develop into the ocean!"

"Otherwise, the veteran families in the West, including Rothschilds, will still pop out and disgust us at odds and ends!"

“Therefore, this ocean-going strategy is a good opportunity for the Su family to create new brilliance, and it is also a good stage for you to lay a higher achievement!”

“If this battle is fought beautifully, I can be considered to be consummated, and I can retreat with peace of mind to enjoy the family happiness. By then, you will be the Patriarch of the Su Family!”

When Zynn heard this, he bowed deeply and shouted loudly, “Father rest assured, Zynn will do his best! Create new glory for the Su family!”

After the meeting, Zynn returned to his mansion with a pair of children with excitement.

As soon as he got home, he called his son and daughter to the study, and said with a high spirit: “My children, this time is a good opportunity for our family to make new achievements in the Su family. You two are going to Japan this time. , We must get the best terms of cooperation. Whether we choose the Ito family or the Takahashi family in the end, we must compress their interests to the extreme and strive for the greatest benefit for our Su family!”

Zhifei immediately said: “Dad, when we go to Japan this time, should we first contact the Ito family or the Takahashi family?”

Zynn asked, “What do you think?”

Zhifei said: “I think it’s best to contact the Ito family first, because the Ito family is strong in Tokyo and Kyoto. Tokyo has the Port of Tokyo, and there are Osaka Port and Nagoya Port near Kyoto. In theory, the Ito family in Ports and shipping have greater potential.”

“Yeah” Zynn nodded slightly, and said approvingly: “Your point of view is very reasonable, and I also tend to contact the Ito family first.”

Zhiyu frowned and said in a lukewarm tone: “Dad, brother, I think we should first contact the Takahashi family.”

“Oh?” The two looked at Zhiyu, and Zynn asked, “Zhiyu, why do you think so?”

Chapter 1689

Faced with the questions of father and brother, Zhiyu answered calmly: "First of all, although the Ito family has strong resources in Tokyo, and also has good strength in Osaka and Nagoya, Japan's real super seaport is actually next to Tokyo. The port of Yokohama."

"Although the Takahashi family is slightly inferior to the Ito family in Tokyo, they are very tough in Yokohama. It can be said that Yokohama is the base camp of the Takahashi family."

"Secondly, the Ito family is somewhat troubled now, Ito Yuhiko's daughter was seriously injured while participating in an international Sanda competition in Aurous Hill some time ago and is currently recuperating. Ito himself loves this daughter very much. The physical condition of the daughter will more or less distract him. Once this person's energy is not full Focusing on our work 100% will have an impact on our cooperation. Even if the impact is only 1%, it is a real impact."

Zynn frowned, "Ito Yuuhiko's daughter was injured? I have never heard of this."

Zhiyu said lightly: "I asked someone to investigate the situation of these two companies, including their family's children." The eldest brother Zhifei couldn't help but give a thumbs up: "Zhiyu, you still think about the problem most. All-round!"

Zhiyu said without a wave: "Brother, don't slap me here anymore. You will be the one who will be alone in the future. I will just help you think about it temporarily."

Zhifei said with a smile: "Having such a good sister, I will really worry about it in the future!"

Zhiyu gave him a blank look and said, "One more thing, I have heard that the Ito family had previously wanted to invest in a Japanese pharmaceutical company named Kobayashi. Pharmaceuticals, this matter will also distract his energy to a certain extent."

Zhifei nodded: "I know that company, Kobayashi Weisan, I have used it before, and the effect is really good, very powerful."

“That’s before. “Zhiyu said lightly: “Now, there is a JX Weisan in China, which has surpassed them in product strength.”

“Oh,” Zhifei said with a smile: “I have a hunch that JX Pharmaceutical will soon emerge. It will catch up with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals first, and eventually catch up.”

At this point, Zhifei seriously suggested: “If possible, I think it’s a good opportunity to invest in JX Pharmaceutical now. It’s possible that there will be more than ten times the return on investment in a few years.”

Zynn waved his hand and said, “No matter how big the pharmaceutical company is, it will be worth 100 billion. It’s very big, we still focus on the bigger market and opportunities. This ocean-going project is the key to the internationalization of the Su family.”

Zhiyu wanted to say something, but she swallowed it to her lips and ordered Nodded and said, “Get back to the subject, dad, which one do you think we should contact first? I still think that Ito Yuihiko has internal and external troubles, and other things involve energy, or the Takahashi family as a whole is more appropriate.”

Zynn looked towards Zhifei asked: “Zhifei, what do you think?”

Zhifei immediately said: “If you listen to people persuading you to eat a full meal, I think you should listen to Zhiyu. After all, those who investigate have the right to speak!”

Zynn Nodded with satisfaction, and said with a smile: “You two brothers and sisters are the most outstanding among your peers. If you two work together, you must be famous throughout the country, and even the world!”

Zhifei said with a smile “I don’t dare to compare with Zhiyu. This girl is a pervert. At the age of 22, she is mentally mature and like forty-four. I really don’t know what kind of person I have to find in the future to be cured.”

Zhiyu glared at him and said angrily: “I want you to worry about my business? Think about yourself first. You have been in love with that Sara for so long, when are you going to confess to her?”

Zhifei with a big embarrassment, he blurted out: “Don’t talk nonsense! Sara and I are acquaintances, not even friends.”

“Of course.” Zhiyu snorted, and said contemptuously: “You meet someone. Even if you can’t speak well, of course even friends can’t do it!”

Chapter 1690

Zynn on the side of them frowned and asked him, “Zhifei, do you have ideas about that girl from the Gu family?”

“No, Dad” Zhifei hurriedly waved his hand: “I just admire her, simple as that.”

Zynn nodded, paused for a while, and then said: “Gu’s girl is really good. If you really like her, I don’t have any objection. I’m just afraid that your grandpa won’t look down on Gu’s family, then it will be difficult.”

Zhifei Upon hearing this, was overjoyed, and blurted out, “Dad, are you really okay ?”

Zhiyu blurted out: “Brother, are you stupid? Can’t you hear that Dad is deliberately deceiving you?”

“Ah?!” Zhifei panicked, and hurriedly looked at Zynn: “Dad, what do you mean?”

Zynn sighed and said seriously: “Zhifei, you are not as smart as your sister!”

Zhifei suddenly became embarrassed.

Zynn had a face at this time, saying: “You are the son of the Su family and the third-generation heir of the future Su family, and the strength of the Gu family is really not enough in front of the our family. Your grandfather will definitely not agree to it, nor do I. You will agree, don’t forget, the girl from the Gu family has been engaged to Changying’s son since childhood, and I and Changying are at odds, and I will never let you marry the girl from the Gu family in future!”

Zhifei sighed: “Dad , When did that happen, the millet is old and rotten, besides, hasn’t Changying’s son have been missing for many years?”

Zynn looked at him and said solemnly, "Leave aside this matter. Your grandfather once discussed with me about your marriage. He even hopes that after completing the internationalization of the Su family, you can marry the eldest daughter of the top American family. This will be more beneficial to our overseas expansion. Domestically, it is no one who can deserve your."

Zhifei was a little anxious and blurted out: "Dad, I don't like American women."

Zynn said solemnly: "This kind of thing has never been related to liking the word. It's nothing more than a pair, understand?"

Zhifei was a little depressed at once.

Zhiyu on the side reminded him at this moment: "Dad, let me declare first, I don't care how you arrange my brother, but no one is allowed to influence my marriage in the future!"

Zhifei exclaimed, "Hey, Zhiyu ! You just sold your brother like that?"

"No." Zhiyu said calmly, "We are in different situations. If I find a man who can make my heart beat, I will marry him, from the Su family. Nothing has anything to do with me anymore. In the future, I will give birth to children without the surname Su, but you are different. You are going to inherit the Su family."

Zhifei was speechless. The expression is very depressed.

Zynn looked at Zhiyu helplessly, and reminded: "The premise for you to find the object is that he has to be the right one!"

Zhiyu waved his hand: "What is the right one, does not exist, who is this lady fancy? Who, whether he is the king of heaven, or the trafficker."

"Bull$hit!" Zynn said annoyedly: "In case he is really a pauper, what can you guarantee for your life's happiness?"

Zhiyu curled her lips: "I don't believe it. My dignified Su family, can't afford a pauper?"
