

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 2056 – 2060

Chapter 2056

This is like a city that was plunged into darkness due to a power outage. At the moment when the power supply was suddenly restored, the entire city was instantly re-lit!

Just as Warnia recovered rapidly, the commercial vehicle she was riding in finally fell to the bottom of the valley.

At this time, the vehicle is already full of defects.

The front of the car completely collapsed into the first row of seats, all the windows were shattered, and the metal body was also cut into countless hideous holes by the stone.

And the whole car has been deformed in the constant rolling, like a can that was stepped on!

However, Warnia's consciousness is constantly recovering. Broken ribs, leg bones, arms, as well as body wounds, damaged brains, and internal organs are all quickly regaining vitality.

Within a moment, she regained her mobility.

She wanted to unfasten the seat belt, but the plug of the seat belt had been severely deformed together with the plug.

The seat under her body has also been completely deformed by the impact.

But fortunately, the seat belt can barely go around the body, and her body will also be able to escape from the deformed seat.

The phone under her feet is still on. Although the screen of the phone is severely broken, it still lights up, which means it can still be used.

So Warnia hurriedly grabbed the phone in her palm and hurriedly fled out of the car!

The doors of the car were no longer usable, but the windows on both sides became two completely deformed frames.

She struggled and crawled out of the car.

At this time, she heard the sound of water and at the same time smelled a pungent smell of gasoline.

The fuel tanks of family cars are almost invariably under the car, and most fuel tanks are made of engineering plastics.

Although the fuel tank can withstand most collisions and accidents, it is basically difficult to protect yourself in the face of such a 360-degree rollover accident.

Therefore, the fuel tank of this commercial vehicle was also punctured by several large openings, and dozens of liters of gasoline flowed out through these openings.

The commercial vehicle that Warnia rides has a fuel tank capacity of 70 liters, and a two-liter Coke bottle can be used as a container, which can fill a full 35 bottles.

The driver had just filled up the fuel after returning to the hotel, and it took less than ten liters to drive over, and there were at least 60 liters of gasoline in the car.

You must know that gasoline has a lot of energy when burning. Not to mention 60 liters of gasoline. Even a large Coke bottle of gasoline is enough to burn a car into iron slag!

At this time, the damaged engine of this car is still humming, which means that the spark plug of the engine is still igniting and the fuel injection nozzle is constantly injecting fuel to push the piston movement of the engine.

Once there is an oil leak inside the engine compartment, flames are likely to escape from the engine compartment, and then ignite all the gasoline!

Warnia did not dare to delay, although she was surrounded by dense woods and grasses, but in order to escape, she could only dive into the woods.

Just when she was not ten meters away, a strong fire suddenly burst out behind her.

The gasoline starts to burn from the position of the engine compartment and ignites the gasoline leaking around.

Gasoline burns extremely fast, and in the blink of an eye, the commercial vehicle is quickly consumed by the fire.

Warnia turned around and looked at the burning flame, tears filled her eyes.

Her other assistant and the very nice driver she was with, in Japan were all in the car at this time.

Although she knew that they were dead as early as the first time they hit, she still felt like a knife at the thought of their bodies being burned beyond recognition by the fire.

And Swallow...

The little girl who had been talking about learning photography with herself a few minutes ago was already separated from her...

After the rest of the catastrophe, Warnia ignored the hot flames, her legs were slightly bent and slowly knelt on the ground, covering her face with her hands, crying bitterly...

Chapter 2057

When Warnia was uncertain of her next moments in Nishitama County, Tokyo, Japan, Charlie was preparing to soak in the hot springs at the Champs Elys Villa in the mountains on the outskirts of Aurous Hill.

With him in the hot spring pool, his wife, Claire.

Just like when they were bathing in the hot springs with Elsa, Charlie wore swimming trunks, while Claire wore a one-piece swimsuit.

The graceful posture was revealed in front of Charlie, making Claire more or less ashamed.

In fact, the couple did not plan to take a hot spring together.

Charlie wanted Claire to come first. When Claire came over in a bathrobe, she happened to be seen by Elaine, so Elaine said that Charlie and Claire should be together.

Claire stepped into the hot spring water first, and Charlie put the two people's mobile phones on the stone platform next to the hot spring pool before they were ready to enter the water.

At this moment, the phone rang suddenly.

It's a WeChat.

He turned on the phone and found that Warnia had sent WeChat.

Moreover, it is a voice.

This made him feel somewhat embarrassed.

If he clicks on the voice message and listens to it, doesn't know what it is. But if he clicks on it on the spot, what if it says something in it that makes his wife Claire misunderstand?

It is safer to listen to the ear in the earpiece mode, but it will inevitably make Claire think more.

So Charlie had to click to change the text.

Warnia's accent is very standard, and the recognition rate of WeChat voice-converted text is also very high, so her words were completely transformed all at once.

Charlie looked at the text, and his whole person was suddenly shocked!

“Why did Warnia suddenly speak to me saying the three words I love you? Why does she say that if she has a chance, she will be his woman in the next life?!”

“Could it be... is there any danger she encountered?!”

Thinking of this, Charlie hurriedly said to Claire: “My wife, you can soak for a while, I’ll get a drink.”

Claire nodded and exhorted: “You put on some clothes, don’t freeze.”

“it is okay.”

Charlie said, put the thick bathrobe on him, turned around and entered the villa.

Jacob and Elaine both went back to their rooms to rest, and Charlie clicked on the voice directly in the living room.

Immediately afterward, Warnia’s sad and desperate voice came out: “Master, I...I really love you! If there is a chance, I will be your woman in the next life... ..”

In this voice message, in addition to Warnia’s voice, there are also violent impacts, harsh sounds caused by friction between metal and the ground, and the roar of engines...

Charlie felt a little in his heart!

Listening to this voice, Warnia must be in an accident!

He immediately called her, and it turned out that the other party was temporarily unable to connect!

He hurriedly sent Warnia a voice call invitation on WeChat, but the other party did not respond!

Charlie panicked suddenly.

He knew that Warnia was in Japan and had not yet come back, so he could also speculate that she must have something wrong in Japan.

Now, he couldn't get in touch with her at all. What Charlie thought of the first time was to call Mr. Song to ask about the situation.

So, he immediately dialed Mr. Song's phone.

Chapter 2058

At this time, Mr. Song was ready to go to bed.

Since taking the Rejuvenating Pill, his body has grown stronger, but it also made him more cherish his hard-won health. Therefore, he has been adhering to the health concept of going to bed early, waking up early, getting active, and exercising, so he rests earlier every day.

Suddenly received a call from Charlie, he quickly connected the phone and said: "Oh, Master, you are calling me so late, what's your order?"

Charlie said: "Master Song, I want to ask what is Warnia's situation now? Why can't I contact her suddenly?"

"Warnia?" Mr. Song said in surprise: "We had contact in the evening. She is in Tokyo, Japan, and is negotiating cooperation with Nippon Steel."

Charlie said: "A few minutes ago Warnia sent me a voice message, suddenly saying something about her next life, and then I went back to her, and she is no longer available. I suspect Warnia may be in Tokyo. What happened to her!"

"Encountered an accident?!"

Mr. Song suddenly sat up from the bed and blurted out: "Master, in the voice that Warnia sent to you, did she encounter something?"

"No." Charlie pondered: "This is what I worry about the most. Warnia didn't say anything specific in the voice message, but it made me feel like she wanted to say goodbye to me."

Grandpa Song said nervously, "I will call the people next to her and ask what happened!"

“Okay! If you have any news, please be sure to notify me as soon as possible!”

Father Song hung up the phone and called Warnia first.

Sure enough, as Charlie said, Warnia’s phone could not be connected at all.

The old man Song couldn’t help but be stunned, and then he hurriedly beat Warnia’s assistant Swallow.

Swallow is Warnia’s confidant and her right arm. If Warnia encounters anything, she must know.

However, what made Old Man even more nervous was that Swallow couldn’t get through!

He is really panicked now!

He immediately called Honor and said: “Honor, come to my room immediately! Something happened to Warnia!”

A minute later, Honor rushed in panic, and as soon as he walked in, he blurted out nervously and asked: “Grandpa, what happened to Warnia?!”

Father Song said nervously, “Warnia is missing! I called her and Swallow, and neither of them could get through!”

With that, Mr. Song asked again: “Honor, how many people did your sister take to Japan this time?!”

Honor said: “It seems that she took two assistants with her, as well as a local driver.”

Father Song hurriedly asked again, “Do you know who the other person is besides Swallow?”

Honor thought for a while and said, “It seems to be Silviana.”

Father Song hurriedly ordered: “Quick! Find that Silviana’s phone number and contact her immediately to see if you can contact her!”

Honor nodded in a hurry, then took out his mobile phone, called the director of the human resources department of the Song Group, and said: "Silviana who went to Japan with Warnia, do you have her contact information?"

The other party replied: "Yes Young Master, should I send it to you now?"

Honor said: "Send it to me, hurry up!"

Soon, a bunch of phone numbers reached Honor's phone.

Honor called immediately, and after a while, he heard a prompt from the phone: "Sorry, the call you dialed cannot be reached temporarily, please call again later..."

Honor looked at the old man Song with a nervous expression, and said, "Grandpa...The two assistants around Warnia can't get in touch, this...what the hell happened... .."

Father Song was sweating profusely. He kept tapping his palms and muttered anxiously: "It's broken, it's broken! Warnia must be in a difficulty! What can I do... "

Honor said without hesitation: "Grandpa, or I will take someone to Japan! We should go now!"

Chapter 2059

Honor offered to go to Japan, and Mr. Song had some comfort in his heart.

He even thought to himself: "Honor and Warnia are not brothers and sisters, but it is really rare for Honor to be so concerned about her."

Thinking of this, he sighed and said: "Honor, you go to arrange the plane, I will go with you!"

Honor hurriedly said: "Grandpa, don't follow along. You are old and you are not familiar with the place. It will be even more troublesome if there is something short and long, and my dad is still abroad. There can't be no one sitting here in Aurous Hill, you stay at home, and I must find a way to get Warnia back!"

Mr. Song hesitated for a moment, and knew in his heart that it was really difficult for him to play any role as in the past.

Moreover, if both himself and Honor go to Japan, the Song Group would have no leader.

After that, it's a big family with hundreds of billions. Even during the holidays, the various tasks to be dealt with every day are very tedious. If there is really no one in charge of staying here to guard, if something happens, it is likely to cause a Great loss.

So, Mr. Song nodded slightly and said, "That's fine! Then I will stay at home. You can choose some capable personnel as soon as possible, and hurry up and leave as soon as possible!"

Honor immediately said: "Grandpa, don't worry! I will make arrangements!"

Immediately afterward, Honor called a few assistants and a dozen bodyguards. At the same time, he arranged a plane at the airport and took off directly to Japan in an hour.

Elder Song also called Charlie back and said to him: "Master, Warnia and the people around her can't be contacted. I'm afraid they have had some accident. I have arranged honor to leave immediately and rush to Tokyo!"

Charlie asked on the phone, "Is there no clue?"

Father Song sighed: "Yes, there are no clues. I asked the hotel. The hotel only said that they left by car more than an hour ago, but no one knows where they went."

Charlie asked again: "Didn't Warnia tell you what she was going out to do?"

"No..." Mr. Song said very sadly: "Warnia returned to the hotel from Nippon Steel in the evening and told me about the progress of the negotiation, and also explained that she may continue to communicate with them. But where she went tonight, I don't know at all, and she never said a word."

Honor is indeed extremely clever.

As early as when Warnia and Nippon Steel's Hashimoto Kinzaki had been frustrated in their negotiations, he had been constantly encouraging Warnia, giving her blood, and making her more eager for success.

And in the afternoon, he deliberately uttered the so-called blessing of "Maybe you will receive a surprise tomorrow morning", which gave Warnia a psychological hint even more subtle.

So after she received the phone call from Hashimoto to sign the contract, she naturally thought of giving her family a surprise, so when she left the hotel, she did not tell anyone other than her companions of the itinerary.

This is exactly what Song's honor is.

At this moment, Charlie was very worried.

Hearing that Honor was going to Japan, he didn't think much and certainly didn't have any doubts about him.

He just felt that since Warnia's whereabouts in Tokyo are unknown, the best thing he should do now is to find someone in Tokyo to help, and quickly follow the hotel where Warnia stayed to check for clues and see where Warnia went after leaving the hotel.

So he hung up the phone of Mr. Song first, and then called Nanako.

Chapter 2060

At this time, Nanako has just returned to Tokyo from Kyoto.

A few days ago, she temporarily accompanied her father to stay in Kyoto for a few days to change her mood to relax, but because of the many family affairs, she stayed for three days and returned to Tokyo.

After receiving Charlie's call, Nanako was a little surprised. After that, the time in Tokyo is one hour earlier than in China. It is more than 10:30 in the country now, and it is already 11:30 in Tokyo.

Therefore, Nanako asked excitedly and surprised: “Master, why are you calling me at this time?”

Charlie asked hurriedly, “Nanako, are you in Tokyo now?”

“Yes.” Nanako said: “My father and I just came back this afternoon, Master, you seem to be a little anxious from your voice, what’s the matter?”

Charlie said: “A good friend of mine suddenly disappeared in Tokyo. The last voice message she sent me seemed to have encountered an accident, but I can’t contact her at all now, so I want to ask you for help. Arrange for someone to investigate where she went tonight.”

Upon hearing this, Nanako hurriedly said: “Master, no problem! Tell me the general information, and I will arrange for a full investigation! The influence of our Ito family in Tokyo is still unmatched, as long as people are really there. I will find her where she is missing in Tokyo!”

“Okay!” Charlie hurriedly told Nanako some personal information about Warnia, the hotel she stayed in, and the time she left the hotel and asked: “Nanako, please arrange for someone to mobilize the surveillance video and take a look at her. Which car did she take, and where did she drive the car too!”

“Okay, Master!” Nanako also attached great importance to it, blurting out: “Then I will make arrangements!”

Since the Matsumoto family went offline and the Takahashi family was seriously injured, the Ito family’s influence in Tokyo has naturally increased greatly.

Many of the dependent forces and organizations that followed the Takahashi and Matsumoto families in the past are now taking the initiative to show their favor to the Ito family, and Nanako has gradually incorporated a part, which greatly expands the external power of the Ito family.

Among them, it includes the big runaways controlled by the Takahashi family.

Just like those little brothers of Orvel in the underground world.

They may not be able to get on the table, but they are all groups that breed in the dark of the city, so they are like rats in the sewers, with a strong sense of smell and extremely fast action.

When she asked them to find someone, they all moved immediately.

Because the last place where Warnia appeared was a hotel in the city center, the monitoring equipment was very complete. Therefore, the external forces of the Ito family immediately locked onto the commercial vehicle that Warnia was in when she left through the hotel's surveillance video.

As a result, everyone began to follow the trajectory of the car through the monitoring system. Because the Ito family offered a reward of hundreds of millions of yen, they were all trying their best to pursue the clues. Every group hopes to be the first. Find Warnia's whereabouts.

At this moment, in a valley in Nishitama County, western Tokyo.

Warnia walked carefully through the dense forest at the bottom of the valley alone.

The valley is hundreds of meters deep, not only has dense forests and vegetation but also has towering mountains on both sides, so the phone has no signal at all.

At this time, she had only one thought in her heart: walk out of the mountain alive, and immediately ask Charlie for help once the phone has a signal.

While marching through the dense forest, she secretly thought in her heart: "Today's matter must be someone deliberately murdering me. If they know that I am still alive, then I will definitely not be able to leave Japan alive!"

At the same time, there is a perception in her subconscious: "Now, no one can save me except Master!"
