Chapter 260

Chapter 76: "... basked in the afterglow of their mating."

After they were done snacking, if you could call the large spread of sweets a snack, they were all sent on their way to rest before dinner. Kain, Galen, and Jaxon went to the north wing of the Moonstar Mansion. The north wing was officially called the Delta Wing, but most referred to it as the enforcer wing. Alora was sent to an apartment suite on the top floor of the Alpha Wing, just two doors down from Darien's own apartment suite. Darien sent Alora to her apartment before going to his own with Serenity.

There was a tension that had been building in Darien the second he and Serenity had stepped away from the kitchen table. The moment he shut the door to his room, Darien leaned his back against the door. Serenity stood in front of him, her green and gold eyes were like sparkling jewels as she looked up at him. Darien took a deep breath to steady himself and regain control. Unfortunately, the deep breath brought him the scent of Serenity's arousal, making his wolf howl.

Darien knew the exact moment his eyes started to glow, because the scent of Serenity's arousal thickened. There was a taste to her scent, and it made Darien hungry. It made him long to toss her on his bed, strip her down, and bury his face between her thighs. This thought had him hardening to the point of pain. His balls swelled and he started to leak from his tip.

Darien was holding onto his last shred of control. Then Serenity's eyes started to glow, her skin flushed, and her breathing became rapid. His gaze was drawn to her breasts as they rose and fell with each pant. Darien growled when he noticed her nipples had hardened. Darien buried his claws in his door in one last attempt to hold himself back.

Serenity was on fire as she took in the large bulge in Darien's shorts. It was when he buried his claws in the door that pushed her over the edge. Grabbing the zipper on the front of her top, Serenity slowly brought it down. As each bit of her flesh was revealed, Darien's eyes glowed brighter. When her breasts burst from the material, Darien swallowed audibly. Once her top was floating towards the ground, she reached for the zippers on her shorts.

It was the material of Serenity's shorts falling to the ground that finally broke that last thread of Darien's control. With a growl Darien rushed forward. Wrapping his arms around her waist, Darien lifted Serenity up and rushed from his sitting room to his bedroom. After tossing her on his bed, Darien stood back and tried again to regain control over himself. Serenity bounced on the bed after being tossed on it, she giggled in delight. She felt exhilarated by her mate's loss of control, it told her exactly how much he wanted her.

Propping herself up with her arms, Serenity looked at Darien with hungry eyes. Seeing he still had his clothes on, Serenity got onto her hands and knees. As she crawled to the end of the bed, she could visibly see the effort it took Darien to restrain himself. The heat from his eyes made her breasts tingle as they swayed with each move she made. Lifting herself up on her knees once she reached him, Serenity grabbed the end of his shirt and pushed it up.

Darien's heated gaze snapped to meet Serenity's. Without a word, their breathing heavy, Darien lifted his arms and let Serenity remove his shirt. When Serenity's hands moved to the clip that kept his shorts from falling, he put a hand over hers to still them. Serenity tilted her head to the side and frowned a bit, confused. Darien's gaze dropped to her lips, and he licked his own. Unable to resist anymore, Darien grabbed the back of Serenity's neck and drew her lips to his. The kiss he gave Serenity was ravenous and possessive.

Serenity's response was equally as passionate. Wrapping arms around Darien's neck, she held onto him tightly. Her breasts were crushed up against his chest, causing sensations that had them both groaning in pleasure. Eventually Darien broke their kiss so he could taste other parts of his mate. He placed open mouthed kisses on her neck that had Serenity gasping in pleasure, and wiggling her hips as her core grew hot and wet. With one hand still gripping the back of her neck, Darien used his other hand to explore.

At first, he gripped one of her plump cheeks, squeezing enough to elicit another moan of pleasure from Serenity. Then he moved his hand up and forward, gripping her hip for a moment. Wanting to touch more of her, he ran his hand up her side to one of her large breasts. Darien loved the gasps and moans of pleasure Serenity was letting out. Darien trailed his mouth down over her collarbone, and Serenity's body trembled. Serenity's hips. moved restlessly, and the scent of her arousal got stronger.

Serenity felt like her whole body was on fire. Her breasts felt swollen and ached. Her nipples were so hard they were almost painfully sensitive. Her clit throbbled, and her core felt unbearably hot and empty. Serenity had become so wet her thighs were drenched. Then Darien's mouth covered the nipple of one breast, while he squeezed the other. The combined sensations had Serenity crying out in pleasure. A strange pressure began to build in her core, and her hips moved involuntarily.

Darien moved the hand gripping the back of her neck to the middle of her back. Serenity's head dropped back, unable to hold it up anymore. Unwittingly pushing her breast up like an offering. Moving his other hand off her breast, Darien started to devour that one. Serenity let out more cries of pleasure. After sucking on this breast for a bit, Darien started to move his mouth further downward. As he kissed and nibbled down her belly, Darien laid Serenity back on the bed. With a hot hand on each thigh, Darien pushed them apart.

Lifting up, Darien looked down at Serenity. Looking at how wet her core was, he licked his lips again. Then Darien was burying his mouth between her legs. This time Serenity screamed her pleasure as Darien began to devour her. At first Serenity had both hands gripping his shoulders, then one moved to grip his hair. Darien let out a growl of pleasure as Serenity gripped his hair. The sensation had his cock throbbing painfully. Darien was glad he had kept his shorts on as he licked, sucked, and nibbled Serenity's pussy. He felt he would have buried himself deep within Serenity already if he hadn't.

Darien alternated between stabbing his tongue deep into her core, drawing out more of her delicious honey, and lashing her clit with his tongue. Serenity couldn't remain still, her hips moved and bucked, as her head tossed and turned from one side to the other. The pressure kept building and building, before it finally broke. Serenity screamed as she felt her first orgasm by her mate tear through her. The orgasm was still rolling through her when Darien abruptly stood up, removing his shorts at the same time. Within seconds he was kneeling on the bed between her thighs. Gripping her hips, he lifted Serenity up and abruptly drove himself deep into her core.

The orgasm helped dampen the pain of her hymen tearing as he drove into her. The sensation of his large member pushing through the sensitive throbbing tissue of her core brought on another orgasm, completely wiping out any pain. Holding himself still inside her, Darien swallowed her cries as he took possession of her mouth again. Serenity could taste herself on Darien's lips, and it made her buck her hips against him. Darien couldn't help but thrust his hips in return. His thrust was reciprocated with another buck of Serenity's hips.

Soon Darien was thrusting hard and deep into Serenity repeatedly. The pressure began to build up in Serenity again, this time it was so much more. Darien tore his mouth from Serenity's and buried it against the juncture where her neck met her shoulder. Where their mating mark was supposed to go. Darien's gums itched as his fangs grew longer. As if sensing his need to mark her, Serenity offered up her neck. She buried her own mouth against the area where she was to place his own mark on him. Just as the Serenity broke, they buried their fangs into each other's necks.

pressure inside

Darien roared against Serenity's neck, and she screamed against his. The sensations of their bond slamming into place, as they marked each other, only strengthened their pleasure. Darien's body jerked with each jet of seed that was released inside Serenity. The hot splash of Darien's seed inside Serenity brought on another orgasm. The clamping of Serenity's core around Darien drew out every last drop of seed from him. With a full body shudder of pleasure, Darien fell on the bed beside Serenity. Wrapping his arms around her, he hugged his mate and basked in the afterglow of their mating.
