

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3950

Charlie smiled and said, "That's good."

After all, he checked the time and said, "Miss Fei, I have something to do, so I won't tell you more."

Fei Kexin said very understandingly: "MR. Wade, go ahead if you have something to do."

As she said, she changed the subject, and said: "MR. Wade, if you have time another day, I invite you to have dinner with Claire. After all, everyone has known each other for many days. Many things have been helped by you and Claire. Thank you so much."

When Charlie heard this, he immediately decided that Fei Kexin must have something tricky.

So Charlie didn't reject her directly, but nodded and smiled: "Okay, but I may be busy these days, so why not wait for next week."

The Huichundan auction will be this Sunday.

Charlie deliberately said next week, just to see how Fei Kexin reacted.

Sure enough, when Fei Kexin heard this, she couldn't help feeling a little anxious, and asked quickly: "MR. Wade, I may leave Aurous Hill temporarily for a while next week. I wonder if it is inconvenient for you to make an appointment this week?"

Charlie shook his head slightly, and said apologetically: "I'm sorry Miss Fei, I may really not be able to spare time these few days, why don't you wait for you to return to Aurous Hill next time, I will arrange it?"

Hearing this, Fei Kexin knew that relying on his own ability, it would be difficult to ask Charlie out for a meal before the auction.

As a result, she pinned her hopes on Claire in her heart.

Thinking about going back and working hard again through Claire, to see if there is a turn for the better.

If it doesn't work, let Claire and grandpa meet first, at least they can have a favor.

So, she smiled and said to Charlie: "MR. Wade, since you have been busy recently, I won't bother you much. Let's make an appointment after you finish this time."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and smiled, and said, "Miss Fei, I have something else to do, let's take my leave first."

"Goodbye, MR. Wade."

Seeing Charlie leave, Fei Kexin was helpless, but also a little bit unwilling.

There are only the last few days left in the auction. She is like a student about to face the final exam. The exam date is approaching, and she is not sure, so she can only do everything she can to prepare more before the exam.

So, she looked at Kelly West and said: “Kelly, you have worked hard on Claire. If you can, I want her to owe you a favor. I don’t know you. Is there any good way?”

Kelly West thought for a while, and said: “Miss Fei, I think Claire is very obsessed with design, I think I can find a breakthrough from this point.”

Then, she said: “I started at the end of the month, and I was invited to conduct the annual graphic and interior design master class at the Rhode Island School of Design. I can give Claire a place.”

Fei Kexin didn’t know much about the field of design, so she asked her: “Is this master class high in gold?”

Kelly Weiss said: “In addition to me, there are many top designers in the design field in this master class. They can be regarded as a team of ceiling-level professors in the design field. Therefore, in the field of designers, it contains a lot of gold. high.”

“And this master class is normally only for young designers who have performed well in the world and have a record of winning awards, and there are only 50 places in total, so it has been very in short supply. Every year, at least five applications are received. With more than a thousand people, the acceptance rate is less than one percent.”

Fei Kexin hurriedly asked her: “Do you think Claire is interested in this master class?”

Kelly West smiled slightly and said: “I first asked me about the master class in private. She is very yearning for the master class, but she also knows that she has not yet reached the admission criteria for the master class. I believe she will be very excited if she is given a quota and let her go directly to the United States to participate in a one-month master class!”
