

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4047

At this time, Jasmine moore, who was at the auction site, announced loudly, "The next lot that will be on stage is the third Huichundan tonight! There are not many opportunities for Huichundan, please take good care of it and don't leave any regrets for yourself. ."

Hearing this, the spirits of everyone on the scene were lifted again.

Because Todd took the second rejuvenation pill just now, everyone saw the more magical side of rejuvenation pill with their own eyes.

Therefore, many people have already begun to gear up at this moment, and decided to take down the third rejuvenation pill at all costs.

The staff once again served a rejuvenation pill on a silver plate, and Jasmine moore smiled and said, "The starting price of the third rejuvenation pill remains unchanged, it is still 100 million US dollars, and the price is increased by 10 million each time. I see everyone sitting here. We are all gearing up, so I won't waste everyone's time, the auction starts now, please bid!"

As soon as the voice fell, someone shouted: "Five billion!"

As soon as the man's voice fell, someone opened his mouth and said: "When is it, and five billion, I will pay one hundred!"

Everyone knows that it is impossible for the third Huichundan to be sold at a price lower than 10 billion, and it is not surprising that the price is 10 billion in two bids.

So, although the third Huichundan started from 100 million US dollars, it was pushed to 10 billion US dollars in less than ten seconds.

The one who offered ten billion US dollars was the rich man who wanted to let Todd go first, so that he could get a bargain on the third rejuvenation pill.

He originally thought that the rejuvenation pill could be won by himself with almost nine billion dollars, but who would have thought that many people were deeply impressed by the changes after Todd took the rejuvenation pill, so he quit the last round early Competitively, this round is almost sticking to the teeth.

Therefore, when the rich man quoted a price of 10 billion US dollars, someone immediately added another 100 million US dollars to his quotation.

Immediately afterwards, the price continued to move higher.

It was quickly pushed to a new high of $12 billion by several other bidders.

The rich man had no time to regret it at this time, but there was nothing he could do about regret.

So, he gritted his teeth, raised his hand, and said in a trembling voice, "I will pay 13 billion!"

As soon as the words fell, someone immediately raised their hand: "13.5 billion!"

No one expected that when the price reached 13.5 billion, there were still many people on the scene who were unwilling to give up.

As a result, the price rushes higher and higher in the constant bidding of the crowd.

14 billion, 15 billion, 16 billion...

The price has been on a tear all the way, breaking through the billion mark one after another, and even without stopping, it directly broke through the 18.7 billion mark.

In the process of rising prices, one after another was left behind.

It's not that they don't want to get rejuvenating pills, it's just that the price is too high, beyond their ability to bear.

Even if some people were willing to pay that much, they wouldn't be able to put out $10 or 20 billion in cash right away tonight.

With so much money, at least part of the assets must be sold, or even a part of the shares can be mortgaged or reduced to make it possible.

As a result, many people gave up the auction with tears in their eyes, and at the same time regretted in their hearts, regretting the first 2 billion US dollars and the second 10 billion US dollars. Watching the opportunity slip away before your eyes.
