

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4064

Speaking of this, Jasmine moore said meaningfully: "035, 210 billion US dollars is the price you paid yourself just now, which proves that this is within your tolerance range! I personally think that you can re-price at this price. The deal is already another village, if you are still not satisfied and try to continue the reshoot, then I can only arrange for the staff to ask you to leave!"

Immediately afterwards, Jasmine moore said again: "If this Rejuvenation Pill is sold for 72 billion US dollars by No. 016, we will lose nearly 300 billion US dollars compared to the quotation of 370 billion just now!"

"But for us, $300 billion doesn't matter, the rules matter!"

"We will not hesitate to expel anyone who tries to challenge the rules and fairness of our auction!"

"No matter how much money he has, no matter how high his status, he is not welcome here!"

There was a sudden thud in the center of Jian.

He recalled how dhilon was expelled just now, and knew in his heart that he was a little carried away.

Being able to have such an opportunity is already a blessing from God, what else do I have to worry about?

Thinking of this, he immediately gave up his struggle and said, "I am willing to pay 210 billion!"

Bernard Ernault collapsed suddenly, and blurted out, "Miss moore, this old man is talking so much nonsense, why didn't you expel him! He should get out of here immediately!"

Jasmine moore said in a cold voice, "016, if anyone doesn't speak up after I warn him to be expelled, I will expel him naturally, so from now on, you and 035 must not say any more nonsense, otherwise, no matter what. Whoever it is, will be expelled, and this rejuvenation pill will be re-divided into four parts and auctioned on the spot!"

The audience immediately boiled, and someone blurted out: "Get them both out!"

Jasmine moore looked at the man and said coldly, "No. 173, if you make noise again, I'll ask the staff to expel you!"

The audience kept their mouths shut.

Jian didn't dare to do what he thought, and immediately said unswervingly: "I am willing to pay 210 billion! Please give me the phone number, and I will arrange the payment now!"

Bernard Ernault collapsed suddenly, covering his face and crying.

The staff immediately handed the mobile phone to Jian.

And Fei Kexin in the box finally breathed a sigh of relief.

This auction was really ups and downs and dangers for her. Fortunately, she could survive in the end.

Just now, she was really worried that Grandpa's enthusiasm in business and business would come up, and then he would destroy a hand of desperate cards.

Fortunately, the old man finally defeated the impulse with reason.

Fei Kexin was very afraid that her grandfather would die prematurely, because in that case, her family would completely lose their support.

His uncle would definitely evict his family after the funeral without hesitation.

And as long as Grandpa can survive, it is an opportunity for her.

At this time, Jian had already given up struggling deep in his heart.

Although the price was raised by dhilon to 210 billion step by step, it made him extremely painful.

But compared to the ten or twenty years of life that Huichundan brings, it is still worth it after all.

So, he took the mobile phone handed by the staff and called his most trusted confidant butler directly.

When the call was connected, he said, "Acheng, immediately call the auction house with the US$200 billion prepared by the Swiss Bank, and notify some of our closest partners, so that they can quickly raise US$10 billion for the auction. Come here, promise them the highest loan interest rate in the industry, and promise that they will receive special care from our Fei family in the future, be sure to hurry!"

For Jian, a big man with a net worth of nearly one trillion dollars, it is easy to borrow ten billion dollars temporarily. As long as you let out the words just now, I don't know how many people will break their heads and rush to send them. money.

However, he did not expect that the person called Ah Cheng was silent for a moment on the other end of the phone, then choked up and said, "Master... Two hours ago, the eldest young master had activated the highest emergency plan of the board of directors and prepared you Those two hundred billion dollars, all frozen..."
