

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4157

Late at night on the Vancouver harbour pier, it is as busy as it is during the day.

Large ports basically operate 24 hours a day, so even in the middle of the night, the lights are still bright, a large number of trucks carrying containers are constantly entering and leaving, and the docks are constantly loading and unloading cargo ships that are docked.

Therefore, the vehicles that came to the dock one after another did not cause too much vigilance.

Under the guidance of the members of the Italian group, Abbas arrived at the port first, and then at the dock of the small ship, he easily took down a 1,000-ton dilapidated freighter.

On the freighter were eight members of the Italian syndicate, as well as three young women who were kidnapped.

In addition to the two brought by Abbas and others, a total of five young women were kidnapped by this group and were to be sent to the high seas this evening.

On this dilapidated freighter, Abbas conducted a surprise trial on the gang and found that the actual leader of the gang was an Italian named Francesco Ricci.

And this Francesco turned out to be Andre's younger brother.

According to Francesco's confession, they originally planned to set sail for the high seas at three o'clock in the morning this morning, and meet the ships that came to pick up the goods at a specific location on the high seas.

After the meeting, the other party will pick up these girls first. As for the transaction payment, they will not pay the Italian group until they have disposed of these girls.

Afterwards, Abbas directly took all these people to the freighter that Charlie bought, and in this freighter, there were more than 100 Wanlong Palace soldiers in ambush at this time, just waiting for the Italian group to come to the door.

When Andre arrived at the dock with charlie and a group of his subordinates, the team had expanded from less than ten cars at the beginning to at least seven or eighty cars along the way.

Many of the subordinates who received orders and drove to the dock alone or in groups of three or five joined the convoy directly after encountering Andre's convoy, so the size of the team went all the way and expanded all the way.

By the time they reached the dock, the convoy had already stretched for nearly a kilometer.

The freighter that charlie bought did not dock at the loading and unloading dock because it declared to leave the port empty. As a result, its location was much calmer than the loading and unloading area.

Most of the ships docked around were cargo ships that had not yet started to line up for loading, so the ship was completely dark.

On charlie's 15,000-ton freighter, the lights were bright at this time.

From the distance below, you can see signs of personnel activity on the deck and in the bridge.

It does look like the sailing is about to start soon, and these people seem to be very much like the crew preparing for the sailing.

Andre saw the huge freighter stop in front of him, and he was extremely excited in his heart, and murmured in his mouth: "This ship is so f*cking big!"

At this time, in his heart, he could not wait to rush to the boat immediately, stand on the bow and shout, I am the king of f*cking Vancouver!

With such a ship, the strength of my group can also improve a lot in the future, and I can also develop shipping business in the future!

The Italian group he rules can only be regarded as a second-tier gang in the whole of Vancouver. Although he has always had ambitions to improve, he could not find a way to improve.

But everything is different now.

With this ship, the group has more possibilities and broader space.

Maybe this ship is where your dreams started!

Thinking of this, his heart couldn't wait even more.

After the car stopped on the edge of the dock, Andre couldn't wait to push the door and get out of the car.
