

Chapter 998 Things Were Exposed

In the following days, Trevor became busy learning medical skills from Sally and her mother while secretly contacting people from big enterprises in Esterham.

He took advantage of the opportunity while Zakai was locked in prison and spread the news that the Sanderson family had arranged commercial spies in various companies.

Unfortunately, those good times didn't last long.

This morning, while Trevor was learning medical skills, he received a call from Greta.

After a few seconds, his expression became serious.

"Ah! You hurt me!" Sally, who was lying on the carpet, suddenly cried out in pain. She turned around with tears in her eyes. "I'm here to help you practice acupuncture, not let you hurt me!"

"I'm sorry," Trevor replied hurriedly. "I was just a little distracted just now."

Sally pressed her lips into a thin line. "Who called you?"

Trevor sighed. "Greta. She just told me that Zakai had been bailed out."

"What?" Sally exclaimed, her eyes widening in shock.

"Dooley probably returned to Esterham and paid the bail to get him out."

Unfortunately, with money, many things could be easily done.

Even Greta, who came from a family of law enforcers, could do nothing about it.

Suddenly, Trevor's phone rang again.

He frowned when he saw who the caller was. It was Zakai!

As soon as he answered the call, Zakai angrily roared on the other end of the line.

"Dragon! You're not in the company. Where the hell are you? Goddamn it! Come back right now!"

After that, Zakai hung up the call.

Trevor went silent for a moment and sneered.

Zakai's tone was impetuous just now, but there was also an imperceptible fear laced in his voice.

It seemed like his misappropriation of funds had been exposed.

If Trevor's guess was right, Zakai called him because he wanted to use him as a scapegoat.

"Are you going? I think Zakai's up to no good." Even Sally could hear Zakai's voice on the phone just now, so she couldn't help but worry about Trevor.

"Of course." Trevor grinned.

Now that he finally had the chance to face one of the culprits who had set him up, how could he not go?

After bidding farewell to Sally, Trevor went to his car. He was ecstatic.

It was now time to see his enemy.

Eventually, Trevor arrived at the Glory Company building.

The atmosphere there was unusually tense.

As soon as he arrived, two bodyguards wearing sunglasses came up to him.

The bodyguards weren't employees of Glory Company. They surrounded Trevor.

Trevor, on the other hand, looked calm. He could care less about them as he walked into the elevator and went to the CEO's office.

"He's here, sir," one of the bodyguards said.

Trevor looked around and noticed that Sigrid was sitting on the office floor. She looked like she had just been beaten.

Zakai was standing in the corner of the office, looking utterly terrified and embarrassed at the same time. The side of his face was swollen, and there was an obvious handprint on his face.

The only one who looked fine was a middle-aged man sitting on a luxurious office chair.
