

Married At First Sight Chapter 2997

Married At First Sight Chapter 2997-“Grandma, our brothers were all taught by you. If you dislike us, it means denying your own educational achievements.”

Grandma May was speechless.

Her precious eldest grandson, Zachary, was becoming more and more eloquent. This was all due to her, because Zachary married Serenity, her granddaughter-in-law.

Serenity’s smile never faded.

Every time Grandma May quarreled with Zachary, she laughed until her belly hurt.

“Seren, let’s ignore him. He keeps a straight face and is extremely serious all day long. You are the only one who can stand him. If it were the second woman, she would have been far away. When children see him when he goes out at night, it can make them cry.”

Zachary had a dark look on his face.

Serenity said, “No, I think Zachary is very good. He is not cold at all. Anyway, he is gentle and considerate in front of me, and he is a model husband. I am very satisfied.”

Zachary immediately looked happy. “My wife is good to me.”

Grandma May smiled and said, “You two can torture a single person to death by showing off your affection.”

“Grandma, don’t you like to see us so affectionate?” Zachary asked Grandma rudely.

Grandma May laughed, “I am happy, happy, very happy to see you taken down by Seren. Oh, I don’t know who swore that he would not fall in love with Seren or pursue his wife.”

Zachary’s face turned green. “Grandma, please stop digging into old scores.”

Serenity said sternly, "My man is my man; you can't escape from me."

"Domineering, grandma likes your domineering attitude!"

Grandma May and Serenity smiled at each other, left Zachary behind, and took the lead in entering the house.

Zachary shook his head helplessly and fondly.

Grandma May was like an old, naughty child.

She was also the sea-fixing needle of their York family.

As long as Grandma May is still there, they feel that there is no need to be afraid if the sky falls because Grandma is holding them up.

Liam and Tania, who were sitting on the sofa waiting for Zachary and Serenity to come back before starting dinner, saw Grandma May and Serenity coming together, and they both stood up.

Liam said, "Mom, you are back."

Grandma May hummed.

"Come back and have a look when you've had enough fun."

She looked at Tania, who was also called "Mom."

"Tania, why didn't you call mom when you were unhappy yesterday? Mom would take you around for a few days to relax."

Tania's face turned red.

Really, nothing could escape Grandma May's eyes.

"Yeah, it's nothing. I just argued a few words, and there was no quarrel."

Liam said, "That's right, that's right; Mom, Tania, and I didn't quarrel. Tania missed Seren and came to stay with Seren for a few days. I have never been able to live without my wife, so I also came to stay for a few days. When mom came back, it became lively."

His old mother, Grandma May, had always been the doting daughter-in-law.

Grandma May said that her daughter-in-law was not born to her, but she should be filial to her elders and support the York family. She was a great contributor to the York family, so she was naturally pampered.

Those of them who were sons are the biological sons of their mother, so it was natural for them to be filial to her. What the hell did they want to be a mother in return?

Did they dare to say it?

Grandma May's crutches could chase them from the mountains to the mountains, and from the mountains to the mountains again.

"You didn't quarrel, but you made my daughter-in-law unhappy."

Sam said.

As the butler of the old house, Sam had ears and eyes in all directions and was Grandma May's most powerful spy.

As long as the old lady wanted to know, Sam could tell the old lady.

The old lady often said that Sam should join the Bucham family. With Sam's ability, he could definitely climb to Josh's position and squeeze out all of them.

Josh wiped his sweat. Fortunately, Sam did not join the Bucham family to compete with him for a position.

Married At First Sight Chapter 2998-Liam immediately said, "Mom, I will take Tania shopping later. She can buy whatever she likes, as long as she is happy."

Grandma May sat down and said, "You are about to become a grandfather. You must set a good example for your children and grandchildren."

Liam said, "Mom, I have always been a role model for Zack and Tatum."

Grandma May said, "You two go to the kitchen to help Tatum."

"Mom, it's time to eat." Liam said as if he were taking credit, "Tatum prepared the meal a long time ago."

Grandma May glanced at Zachary.

Liam smiled sarcastically, then glanced at Zachary, and both father and son walked to the kitchen.

After leaving the father and son, Grandma May put on a smile and said to Tania and Serenity, “We, mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, will go shopping later. I haven’t bought anything for a long time. Let me buy some skirts for my precious great-granddaughter.”

Tania echoed: “Yes, yes, I need to buy more skirts.”

Serenity: “Grandma, Mom, the baby hasn’t been born yet, and it may not be a daughter.”

Grandma May and Tania looked at Serenity at the same time.

Serenity: “Okay, okay.”

Give them a little fantasy.

When the baby was born and the illusion was shattered, they couldn’t blame her.

She was mentally prepared to give birth to a son.

The York family had not had a daughter for several generations. Was she so lucky to have a daughter at the same time?

Sonny had already said that she was carrying a little brother.

“By the way, where is Sonny?”

Grandma May later realized that a small figure was missing.

Grandma May said, “I always felt that something was missing after I came back, but now I remember that Sonny is missing. Did the Lewis family pick up Sonny?”

Serenity said, “Sonny knew that grandma had to cry just now when she thought of him. Grandma always said she loved him the most, but it took her so long to remember him. Sonny is going to Jensburg with Brother Duncan to spend the weekend. He should be there soon.”

Serenity looked at the sky outside, and it was getting dark. Well, in winter, it gets dark quickly.

Grandma May said, "Duncan didn't even say a word to me. I also miss Liberty and want to go to Jensburg."

Tania said hurriedly, "Mom, it takes several hours to fly to Jensburg. Please don't go."

"I don't go by plane; I go by car and play and walk along the way."

Tania: "..."

Sometimes she wanted to be like her mother-in-law and go wherever she wanted in a cool and unrestrained manner, but she didn't have her mother-in-law's abilities or her connections.

Mainly because Liam wanted to follow her.

Grandma said, "Tania, help me pick out some sets of jewelry and give them to Hayden when I go to Jensburg."

Hayden had publicly admitted that she was a woman, which showed that her relationship with Kevin was very strong.

"Okay,." Tania readily agreed.

"When I go, I'll ask Kevin's family to go with me. Jensburg is bustling."

Tania said, "Then Liam and I will follow, and Kevin and Hayden should also make an appointment. Let's meet like elders, have a meal, get acquainted, and then sit down to discuss the wedding matters of the two small parties."

Grandma may have thought for a while and said, "Then let's call everyone. Since we are discussing the wedding, let Kevin's family bring her the betrothal gift that she prepared long ago and formally propose marriage to the Queen family. But we can't run over suddenly; at least the Queen family is not prepared and caught off guard. Let's make arrangements."

Tania nodded repeatedly.

Yes, they couldn't suddenly rush to propose marriage. They must first communicate with Mr. and Mrs. Queen, and then they, the senior warlords, could all go out together.
