

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2596-“Fletcher, what’s wrong with you? We need to go back and report to the captain.

You are wasting time!” Howard was annoyed.

Inviting an outsider to the Dragon Corps branch was already inappropriate. On top of that, Fletcher now wanted to go to the Feaks’ mansion with Leon and delay reporting the situation to their superior.

Howard was displeased and he could not quite understand what Fletcher was thinking.

“Howard, I’m sorry, but Mister Wolf is special. If you are in a rush, you can go back and report to Mister Orpwood. Just leave me behind.” Fletcher smiled sheepishly.

Leon worked alone to eliminate the Poisonwielder and ever since Mister Orpwood found out about it, he wanted to meet Leon in person, and now was his chance.

Mister Orpwood would likely not blame Fletcher if he returned to the branch slightly later if he managed to bring Leon with him.

Hence, Fletcher was not worried.

Naturally, Leon did not want his identity to be known and Fletcher felt that it would be inappropriate to tell Howard the truth without Leon’s permission.

For the moment, he could only be vague with his words.

“You! Forget it! The Feaks’ mansion is along the way anyway. I’ll come with you,” Howard said with displeasure.

With that, Leon, Roman, and the others left.

Meanwhile, in the Morrisons’ mansion.

This was the day of the family meeting.

Early in the morning, Caleb, the elders, and other important members all arrived in the main hall for the meeting to talk about ongoing family affairs and the recent development of the family businesses.

“Alright, let’s start the meeting! Please feel free to give any advice or share challenges you face,” Caleb said authoritatively.

Hugo was the first to stand up. “Grandfather, I would like to speak. Please make up your mind as soon as possible about the deal between US and Cynthion Group, or we might miss a great opportunity.”

He knew that Cynthion Group held great potential and that working with it would only benefit the Morrisons.

Out of concern for the greater good, Hugo wanted Caleb to set aside his pride and accept the conditions Leon proposed. If they waited any longer, something else may happen.

“Hugo, this again? I thought we’d already reached a consensus yesterday!”

Caleb frowned.

The profit Leon offered was far too low and Caleb wanted to ignore Leon for a few things to make him cave. However, Hugo kept trying to convince Caleb to reconsider and even analyzed the benefits of working with Cynthion Group.

Ultimately, Caleb decided to send one of the elders to the southern region for a further investigation into the Cynthion Group.

However, the elder did not even return yet and Hugo was already pressing on the issue.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2597-“Yeah! Hugo, what’s the rush? Just wait for the third elder to come back!”

Jayden sneered.

Both he and Caleb continued to look down on Cynthion Group like they did the day before.

“But,” Unwilling to give up, Hugo opened his mouth to argue but was interrupted by Jayden.

“There’s no ‘but! Cynthion Group is offering US too little profit. It’s only normal for us to consider it carefully instead of allowing them to manipulate us!” Jayden scoffed.

“Yeah, he is right!” “A business deal requires multiple negotiations and compromises. It doesn’t just happen overnight!: “Cynthion Group is only offering twenty percent of profit and they are trying to trick us! We need to do what’s best for US and fight for more!”

The other elders agreed along with Jayden’s point of view.

Seeing how the others supported him, Jayden felt smug.

“Hugo, I know that you are close with Mister Wolf. Why don’t you represent us and talk to him? Ask him to increase the profit to forty percent. This is the best we can do!” Jayden smirked and hinted that Hugo was likely bribed by Leon.

That would explain why Hugo kept trying to convince Caleb to accept such unfavorable terms.

“Yeah, he is right! We can accept forty percent of the total profit. Instead of wasting your time with me, you might as well go to Mister Wolf and get him to accept it. Once he agrees to this term, the Morrisons will partner with Cynthion Group!” Caleb nodded in agreement.

Back when he negotiated with Leon the day before, he asked for an equal division of profit, but Leon turned him down.

He compromised and felt that he was being generous for demanding forty percent of the profit.

The one thing that was different for Caleb was that he did not think Leon bribed Hugo. He merely thought that Hugo was close with Leon and wanted Hugo to make good use of this connection to increase the share they could get.

That ought to satisfy everyone in the deal.

“What? That’s not possible!” Hugo was shocked. “Grandfather, don’t listen to Uncle Jayden. We only need to help supply herbs and with marketing, so there’s no risk on our end if we work with Cynthion Group. It’s already quite generous of them to offer US twenty percent of the total profit. He would never agree to give US forty percent.”

He knew that Caleb and Jayden refused to seal the deal immediately because they wanted to obtain more. However, Cynthion Group was no ordinary pharmaceutical firm and did not have to rely on the Morrisons.

If they insisted on getting forty percent of the total profit, they would only embarrass themselves because Leon would never agree to such unreasonable terms.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2598-“Why is it impossible? Cynthion Group is only responsible for producing the pills, whereas we provide herbs and make marketing arrangements. We will be putting in more work than them! All we are asking is forty percent of the total profit, so that’s a good deal!” Jayden scoffed.

“Uncle Jayden, I don’t agree with you! The alchemical pills are the core value of Cynthion Group. There isn’t another company that can produce pills that aid martial artists’ training in both the southern and western regions. The same can’t be said about US. If we don’t agree to Cynthion Group’s terms, they can choose to work with another family! Once others witness the effect of the pills, they will all fight for a chance to work with Cynthion Group,” Hugo argued.

There was a distance between the southern and western regions and it was normal that some of the families in the western region did not hear of Cynthion Group. However, the news would travel fast.

Leon came to the western region to expand Cynthion Group’s market.

Soon, families in the western region would learn about Cynthion Group.

Hugo only worked this hard to convince Caleb to accept Leon’s terms because he needed to close the deal with Cynthion Group before other families found out.

Once others learned about Cynthion Group and the great potential within it, they would all reach out to Cynthion Group to form partnerships. When that happened, it would be rather challenging for the Morrisons to work with Cynthion Group.

One must say that Hugo was very perceptive.

During the bouquet the night before, Leon already took the opportunity to spread the name of Cynthion Group.

After witnessing the effects of the pills, countless people fought for a chance to work with Cynthion Group.

At the moment, Hugo did not know about that and would only panic further if he did.

“No way! The alchemical pills may help martial artists with their training, but they are just slightly more effective than herbs! It’s not that big a deal and other families won’t be interested. Besides, the Cynthion Group isn’t a company from around here and doesn’t influence the area. If they want to find their place in the western region, they will have to rely on US or they won’t be able to do much!”

Jayden sneered.

When Hugo returned from the southern region, he brought home some premium Energy Nurturing Pills and three Supreme Pure Energy Pills.

They witnessed the effect of the premium Energy Nurturing Pills and they could only enhance martial artists’ power to a limited extent.

That was all.

The western region was known for having an abundant supply of rare herbs that could help martial artists with their training, so the alchemical pills produced by Cynthion Group were not all that unique.

Since the profit Leon offered was too low, Jayden did not think that any other influential family would want to work with Cynthion Group.

Hence, he kept looking down on Leon and Cynthion Group and did not take the alchemical pills seriously.

What he did not know was that the premium Energy Nurturing Pills could also increase the chances of a breakthrough. On top of that, there were also Supreme Pure Energy Pills and Sun Pills that worked more effectively.

He was simply too arrogant to see the actual value in the alchemical pills.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2599-Well,” Hugo froze and found himself rendered speechless because Jayden was right.

In terms of effect, the premium Energy Nurturing Pills worked similarly with rare herbs.

Though he knew that the Energy Nurturing Pills could also enhance chances for a breakthrough, it was not certain and he did not witness it before. Hence, he could not quite argue with Jayden.

On top of that, Caleb and the elders supported Jayden and were dead set on fighting for more profit. No matter how hard Hugo tried, he could not get Caleb to agree to the deal.

With Jayden’s interference, things kept getting more complicated.

Feeling devastated, he did not know what to do.

Just as he fell into despair, something unexpected happened.

A melodious voice rose and Renee hurried inside. “You don’t know the half of it!”

“Renee, why are you here?” Hugo was slightly shocked.

Renee was too young and held no power in the family business. Hence, Renee was never invited to the family meeting, nor did she want to be.

This was the very first time she showed up in the meeting and the fact that she barged in while the meeting was going on caught Hugo by surprise.

“Hugo, I came to report something important to Grandfather!” Renee said.

After attending Jaxon's bouquet the night before, plenty of people witnessed the effect of the alchemical pills and they all fought to work with Cynthion Group.

She knew about this and was smart enough to tell that this was not a good thing for the Morrisons.

She instantly realized that she had to report this to Caleb and get him to seal the deal with Cynthion Group before others did.

Unfortunately, after what happened with Felton the night before, she got home late and woke up later than usual, so she did not have the chance to tell Caleb what happened.

It was not until now that she hurried over to speak to Caleb.

"Grandfather, Hugo is right! We can't drag this on any further! If other families get ahead of US and partner with Cynthion Group, it'll be too late for us," Renee said hastily.

Just as she was about to explain what happened the night before, Jayden interrupted her. "Renee, what is wrong with you and Hugo? Are you two under Mister Wolfs spell or something? Why would you work together to make US accept such unfavorable terms? Are you trying to be traitors that sacrifice this family's gain for Cynthion Group?" Jayden said mockingly.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2600-"Renee, enough with your nonsense! The deal with Cynthion Group is a business matter. You are still too young to know anything about this, so don't get involved!" Caleb said sternly to Renee.

He assumed that Renee was influenced by Hugo and did not take her seriously.

The other elders shared the same view.

Renee did not play an important role in the family business and she did not know doing business. If even Hugo failed to convince them to accept Leon's terms, Renee, who had no expertise in the matter, could not possibly succeed.

No one was going to compromise and cave to Leon's terms over a few words she said.

"Grandfather, I'm not messing around. I'm just telling the truth! You don't know this yet, but during Jaxon's bouquet last night, a lot of the guests tried to work with Cynthion, including influential families like the Daglehs. If we keep dragging this on, I'm afraid that some other family may snatch the opportunity away," Renee said, before proceeding to explain what happened during the bouquet the night before.

"What?"

Caleb and the others could not believe what they were hearing.

They thought that the Cynthion Group had no connection in the western region and had to rely on the Morrisons to establish itself here.

To their bewilderment, Leon already made Cynthion Group's name known amongst the younger generation over a single night. On top of that, countless people fought for a chance to work with Cynthion Group.

This was so surreal that they were taken aback.

"Renee, are you sure? Were there really powerful families offering to work with Cynthion Group?" Caleb snapped out of it and asked.

He only delayed accepting Leon's offer because he wanted to fight for more profit, but he never meant to push Cynthion Group away to another family.

However, there were other families now fighting for this opportunity, including the Daglehs.

Insignificant families would not be able to compete against the Morrisons, but the Daglehs were comparable to the Morrisons in terms of influence and power, so they would be a threat.

Instantly, Caleb lost his composure.

"It's true!" Renee nodded seriously.

"Damn it! How can this happen?" Caleb and the others' expressions darkened as their hearts sank.

Upon learning that there were other competitors, their earlier confidence was now replaced by panic.
