

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2628-"I see!" Realization dawned on Howard.

He finally understood why Fletcher insisted on inviting Leon here, but soon realized that something was off.

"Fletcher, the Poisonwielder is formidable. Though Mister Wolf is capable considering his age, there's still a gap between him and the Poisonwielder. How could he possibly defeat the Poisonwielder on his own?" Howard asked hesitantly.

He fought Leon earlier on the mountain and Leon could not even take a single blow from him. This would mean that Leon was in the SemiAlmighty State at best.

As one of the eight criminals, the Poisonwielder long reached the Initial Almighty State and was just a few steps away from the Intermediate Almighty state.

This made him much stronger than Leon, so Howard could not understand how Leon managed to kill the Poisonwielder.

"Well, I don't know what happened, but I think Mister Wolf possesses a treasure in the Intermediate Almighty State and he probably used it against the Poisonwielder," Fletcher said honestly.

When the Dragon Guards from the southern and western regions worked together, the Dragon Guards from the western region did not believe in the Essential Detox Pills Leon made.

In the end, they all fell victim to the Reaper's Breath and allowed the Poisonwielder to run.

It was Leon who led the Dragon Guards from the southern region to track the Poisonwielder and eliminated the Poisonwielder on his own.

However, Fletcher did not know how Loen managed it.

All he knew was that Leon possessed a bracelet that would wield attacks in the Intermediate Almighty State.

It could be said that Leon managed to turn the table mainly because of this treasure, so Fletcher assumed that was how Leon succeeded as this was the only explanation he could think of.

“So Mister Wolf defeated the Poisonwielder with a treasure in the Intermediate Almighty State! It’s no wonder!” Howard said.

He was quite confused earlier. The Poisonwielder was cunning, formidable, and resourceful.

In a face-down, even Howard, who was in the Intermediate Almighty State, may fail to defeat him, not to mention Leon, who could not even take a single blow from him.

At this moment, he finally realized that Leon had a powerful treasure and likely used it to catch the Poisonwielder off-guard.

It was no wonder that the Poisonwielder was defeated.

Naturally, Fletcher felt the same.

When he first met Leon, Leon was merely in the Initial Emperor state, making him hardly a match for the Poisonwielder.

If Leon didn’t possess a powerful treasure, it would be impossible for him to defeat the Poisonwielder.

“Howard, you are underestimating Mister Wolf. He possesses far more than a powerful treasure. His actual strength surpasses your imagination!” Mister Orpwood said pointedly when he overheard their conversation.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2629-“Oh, is that so? Mister Orpwood, do tell what Mister Wolf is capable of.” Howard did not take what Mister Orpwood said seriously.

Though Leon was strong for a young man, the top martial artists in the Thirteen Greats were comparable to Leon as well and Howard saw no reason to put Leon in such high regard.

From his perspective, Leon was only lucky enough to obtain a powerful treasure and he did not think that Leon possessed actual strength apart from that.

It was not like he could defeat the Poisonwielder without the treasure.

However, what happened next shook him to his core.

“Howard, I’ll tell you the truth. Mister Wolf here took down the Demon Lord recently and injured the Southern Boss. Hades showed up at the last moment and ran with the Southern Boss. If even the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss can’t defeat him, no treasure could affect Mister Wolf’s true power,” Mister Oprwood said.

The Demon Lord ranked third place on the criminal list and was so for over a decade. Even Dargon Guards from the central region struggled to take him down or capture him, and this was proof of just how powerful the Demon Lord was.

Because of that, Alfred reported to the central region to remove the Demon Lord’s name from the criminal list as soon as Leon eliminated him.

This shook the Dragon Corps branch in all different regions.

Considering how powerful and cunning the Demon Lord was, no one expected the Dragon Corps in the southern region to eliminate him.

This was practically a miracle.

However, Leon’s identity was confidential so Alfred did not include that information.

Hence, the others only knew that the Demon Lord was eliminated by the Dragon Guards in the southern region, and that was what Mister Orpwood thought as well.

He was curious as to which Dragon Guard accomplished the impossible and asked Alfred about it multiple times.

Unable to stand him, Alfred considered the fact that Leon once crossed paths with the western branch over the mission concerning the Poisonwielder and told the truth in the end.

To get Mister Orpwood's help to search for the Southern Boss, Alfred also informed him that Hugh injured the Southern Boss, so Mister Orpwood knew the details about the event.

This was precisely why he was impressed by Leon.

"What? Mister Orpwood, did you just say that Mister Wolf here killed the Demon Lord? On top of that, he injured the Southern Boss?" "Are we hearing this right?" Both Howard and Fletcher were shocked.

Since the Demon Lord was a famous figure, they both heard that the Demon Lord was eliminated and that he was removed from the criminal list. However, they never knew who was responsible for it.

To their bewilderment, it was Hugh who did it. On top of that, it was accomplished when both the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss worked together.

It was so surreal that none of them could believe it.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2630-"Of course! Alfred from the Dragon Corps in the southern region told me this, so how can it be wrong? Mister Wolf is probably stronger than even me," Mister Orpwood nodded with respect.

He once saw Hug, but Hugh wore a mask at the time to cover his face so this was the second time he met Hugh.

When he first saw Hugh, Hugh took down the Poisonwielder all by himself, and now, he took the Demon Lord down as well.

Leon's righteousness impressed him.

On top of that, the Demon Lord was close to reaching the Peak Almighty State.

Though Mister Orpwood himself recently reached the Peak Almighty state as well using the rare herbs found in the western region, the Demon Lord was known to be ruthless and cunning.

If they fought, he may not be able to defeat the Southern Boss, not to mention if they teamed up against him, even Mister Orpwood himself would be at a disadvantage.

However, they ended up dead and injured when they teamed up against Hugh.

That was how Mister Orpwood knew Hugh was far stronger than him.

He was deeply moved by Leon's strength and his personality.

"Well," Howard and Fletcher were both stunned.

Howard, who fought Leon before, thought that Leon was weak when Leon failed to fend off his attack.

To his bewilderment, that could not be further from the truth.

He knew the strength of both the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss. They were stronger than Howard, who was only in the Intermediate Almighty State.

Either one of them could easily defeat him, yet Leon managed to take them both at the same time and kill the Demon Lord, before injuring the Southern Boss in the end.

This only proved that Leon was far stronger than Howard and he could not hold a candle to Leon's strength.

Realization dawned on him and he realized Leon simply did not exert full strength when he attacked Leon on the mountain.

Thankfully, Fletcher knew Leon and managed to mediate the misunderstanding in time. Otherwise, he would have attacked Leon and once Leon exerted full strength, he would suffer the consequences.

"Mister Wolf, I didn't expect you to be so powerful at such a young age. You surpassed my imagination," Fletcher was deeply impressed by Leon's power as well.

He initially thought that Leon managed to defeat the Poisonwielder with his treasure and luck. It was not until this moment that he realized he underestimated Leon.

Even the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss could not rival Leon and ended up dying or injured.

It was clear that the Poisonwielder was no match for Leon from the very beginning.
