

Chapter 937 Those People Were Sent By Me

Observing Ethan's respectful demeanor, Baldwin's mind went blank, struggling to grasp the unfolding events.

Turning to Floyd beside him, he aimed to inquire about the situation.

How could a big shot like Ethan be so respectful towards Liam?

Before Baldwin could ask, Floyd, already briefed by Ethan, stepped forward and declared firmly, "Baldwin! The bureau has confirmed you took bribes and engaged in corruption. As a police officer, this is a serious breach. We'll be pressing charges. Guys, cuff Baldwin!"

Swiftly, surrounding officers handcuffed Baldwin.

The cold metal on Baldwin's wrists left him shocked and furious.

Baldwin unleashed a torrent of curses. "Ethan! Do you even know what you're doing? Aren't you scared of Benedict's retaliation? As a bureau chief, how dare you openly oppose Benedict?"

Unfazed, Ethan sneered. "I'm not blind to your dirty tricks, Baldwin. Now, you'll pay for your deeds!"

Hearing this, Baldwin felt complete despair as Floyd escorted him away.

Inside the villa, all the other police officers had left except for Ethan.

Receiving a signal from Liam, Ethan followed Liam outside.

Ethan asked, "Liam, are there more instructions for me?"

Liam shook his head and inquired, "How did you know I called you to handle Baldwin?"

Ethan swiftly briefed Liam on the situation before.

After grasping the details, Liam nodded and remarked, "Floyd, the deputy chief, is quite sharp and adaptable, making my job easier. He is worth cultivating. Ethan, you've handled this mess perfectly today."

Even with just a casual compliment from Liam, Ethan felt thrilled and grinned from ear to ear.

Ready to make his exit, he was interrupted when Floyd hurried back, looking anxious. Floyd said, "Director Hewitt, Mr. Hoffman, I got word of intense gunfire at the Dark Gang's place. Many casualties! Shouldn't we check it out?"

Normally, Pineview District wouldn't intervene in Dark Gang clashes, but Floyd saw Liam as a powerful ally and saw this as a golden opportunity.

Hearing Floyd, Ethan turned to Liam and inquired, "Mr.

Chapter 937 Those People Who... +120 Points at most Hoffman, your call?"

Liam smiled and casually replied, "Those people were sent by me to wipe out the Dark Gang. There's no need to worry."

Floyd and Ethan were deeply shocked by this statement.

Could the mighty Dark Gang be eradicated with just a simple sentence from Liam?

Both were profoundly surprised, realizing the true power Liam possessed.

Later on, Ethan sensed it wasn't the right time to linger. He said his goodbyes and left with Floyd.

But as they left the villa, Ethan suddenly halted, glanced back at Liam's place, and mumbled, "Seems like things in Salem are gearing up for a change!"