

Chapter 5966

With her own strength, although Victoria cannot protect the entire Warriors Den,

It is still very easy to find a safe place to hide and live out the remaining one hundred years in a down-to-earth manner.

And if this adventure can allow her to obtain the Sifang Baozhu,

Then her overall fortune will skyrocket,

And her chances of obtaining the secret of immortality will be much greater!

It is even possible that it will bring about a major breakthrough in cultivation!

As long as she finds the opportunity to extend her life to a thousand years,

The Warriors Den will be gone, and she can build a new one!

Moreover, what if it offends the United States?

Tens or a hundred years later, all the current high-level officials in the United States will be buried,

And everything about the Warriors Den will be dusted by the years.

Who will still miss Victoria for a hundred years?

When the time comes, she will change her appearance,

Create another Warrior's Den, and live another five hundred years!

Those five hundred years are the five hundred years when her hands and eyes can reach the sky,

By that time, the Little Warriors Den will no longer be able to catch an eye!

However, if she hesitates at all and causes any changes to the Sifang Treasure Building,

It will definitely become the biggest regret of his life!

Thinking of this, Victoria strengthened her belief.

She stood up and said coldly: "Let's go all the way north to the U.S.-Canada border first."

"After the exact information comes,"

"We will go to the airport designated by the Department of Homeland Security to see what happens!"

Revendor said hurriedly: "Lord, you want to go to the scene in person?"

"Isn't it too dangerous? In the opinion of this subordinate,"

"Let Robinson's people handle this matter so that you won't be exposed for this..."

Revendor is Victoria's junior and a loyal servant.

He knows that Victoria's identity is extremely special,

And she also holds the shocking secret of immortality for four hundred years.

She must not risk herself unless absolutely necessary.

Moreover, in his opinion, three of the four great earls have died,

And Victoria did not personally intervene in the first three deaths.

Naturally, Victoria did not have to risk her life for Loyal,

A mere Pavel, and the unknown treasure.

Victoria no longer concealed herself at this time.

She looked at Revendor and said in a stern and anxious tone:

"Loyal's life or death is not important, nor is Pavel's life or death."

"What is important is the antique dealer and what he has in his hands."

"A unique treasure that can change the fate of the Warriors Den!"

"Finding it may be the biggest opportunity in the more than 300 years since the Warriors Den was founded!"

"The reason why I came to the United States in person is to get it!"

"If we can get it, it would be the best!"

"If we can't get it, we must find a way to destroy it!"

"If it really falls into the hands of that mysterious opponent,"

"It will be the biggest threat to me through these years!"

At this point, Victoria's expression became extremely gloomy,

And she gritted her teeth and said:

"You also know that over the years, whether Margaret is dead or not has always been a big worry on my mind!"

"I have invested so much energy and layout in the An family for twenty years just to find an opportunity to force her to show up,"

"But the result was not what I wanted every time! She even brought heavy losses to us!"

"I am not worried about anything else."

"I am only worried that Margaret is not dead."

"If that mysterious person is hers, what will happen to us?"

"If you say that, that is the worst result!"

"If this is true, Margaret will be the first enemy with the ability to influence the life and death of the Warriors Den!"

"And if they are allowed to get that peerless treasure this time,"

"The balance of victory may be completely lean towards her!"

Revendor looked horrified and said subconsciously:

"Lord... the peerless treasure you mentioned, really has such a powerful effect?"

Victoria said: "Whoever gets it can conquer the world."

After that, Victoria looked at Revendor, her tone was majestic and arrogant,

And she said in a cold voice:

"Revendor, you don't have to worry about the life and death of Warriors Den,"

"Let alone the life and death of other Wu family members."

"Today I promise you a great opportunity. If one day I can find the method of refining the pill and successfully extend my life for thousands of years,"

"Then it will be a piece of cake to refine the Eternal Green Pill."

"At that time, I will give you one Eternal Green pill and will grant you five hundred years of life!"

At this point, Victoria paused for a moment, looked at him, and said:

"If Warriors Den is gone, you and I can build another one!"

"If other Wu family members are dead, you still have the blood of the Wu family in your body."

"Five hundred years will be enough for you to spread the branches and leaves of the Wu family."

"At that time, you will be the ancestor of the Wu family and create a new Wu family."

"If one day I live as long as heaven, isn't it wonderful that our family will last forever?"

Revendor felt as if he had been struck by lightning, feeling numb from his scalp to his toes!

A life span of five hundred years was something he didn't even dare to think about!

After all, he knew that Victoria relied on Patriarch Meng's everlasting elixir to live up to five hundred years,

So how could he have such an incredible opportunity?

However, once Victoria mentioned the chance of living for a thousand years,
She will become a being like Patriarch Meng.

By then, wouldn't he have become the same existence she was back then?

If Patriarch Meng could give her the Eternal Eternal Life Pill,

Then naturally she could also give herself the Eternal Eternal Life Pill!

Patriarch Meng could give her five hundred years of life,

So she could also give herself five hundred years of life!

Thinking of this, Revendor could hardly control himself.

He wanted to kneel in front of Victoria and knock his head to the ground one by one until his head was smashed.

Victoria saw his excitement and ecstasy and also saw that he wanted to kneel down.

Victoria held up Revendor's body with a spiritual energy,

Preventing him from kneeling down.

At the same time, she said: "Revendor, remember, I only say this to you,"

"And I will never say it to the second person in the future."

"You must also keep this in mind and not reveal anything to anyone, do you understand?"

Revendor's voice trembled with excitement, and he said repeatedly:

"Don't worry, Lord, I understand!"

"I am willing to go all out to assist the Lord in this life,"

"Through mountains of swords and seas of fire. Even if I die!"

Victoria nodded with satisfaction and said:

"From today on, you must correct your mentality."

"As long as you and I can live forever and have to give up on more than ten thousand people in the Warriors Den,"

"Even if they all die, it will not be a pity!"

"These people are the cannon fodder I have trained for more than three hundred years,"

"And when it's time for them to die, they will just die!"
