Married At First Sight Chapter 3101

Married At First Sight Chapter 3101-Matriarch Farrell continued, "It's just such a coincidence that you and Shiloh… nothing happened to Kathryn from the beginning to the end!"Holden, Kathryn did not grow up beside us, but she is our biological daughter. She is the blood of you and me, and she is our blood!

When it comes to bad things, you always blame your biological daughter and throw dirty water on her. "Are there any fathers like you?"

Matriarch Farrell scolded Holden, leaving him speechless.

After a while, Holden asked, "Shiloh and I… was there a mistake, and it wasn't someone deliberately planning it?"

Matriarch Farrell: "It's a mistake. If it's a conspiracy, it's your most beloved eldest son, Marco, who plotted against you. If you can accept that Marco is the one who plotted against you, then you can think of a conspiracy. I can't limit your thoughts."

Holden: "…"

He didn't believe that Marco would plot against him and Shiloh.

Holden had four children. Without knowing that Kathryn was his biological daughter, his eldest son, Marco, and daughter, Shiloh, were the ones he loved most.

Marco also had an excellent relationship with Holden.

How could he possibly plot against himself and Shiloh?

That was a mistake.

Holden said, "Wife, you know that Shiloh and I happened by mistake; why do you want to kill them all? If you hadn't been too ruthless to Shiloh, Shiloh wouldn't have died."

Matriarch Farrell sneered, "You can't blame your biological daughter, so you start blaming me? You are so jealous; do you want to avenge me? "Do you want to kill me?"

Holden's expression changed drastically, and he denied it repeatedly.

Matriarch Farrell said coldly, "Shiloh was not my daughter in the first place. She grew up beside me, enjoyed the glory and wealth that did not belong to her, and got everything that did not belong to her. They are all my daughter's; she is not mine. My daughter will naturally return everything that belongs to my daughter.

I don't care what happened between her and you. I only saw my husband sleeping with my adopted daughter. I can't accept this anyway. I kicked her out and took back everything that was my daughter's, and of course, I didn't feel wrong.

Holden, I gave you a choice at the beginning: either divorce me and make a clean break, or commit suicide and promise never to cheat again. It was you who chose the latter. Now that you have made the choice, don't regret it or be upset.

If you want to vent your anger on Shiloh's behalf or want to investigate something, you can go ahead and I won't stop you, but don't appear in front of me again and don't go back to my home again. Let's live separately!

I gave birth to children for you, and your children have grown up and have families. After you move out of the Farrell family mansion, where should you live, and where can you take care of your old age? Tell your three sons, Kathryn, they will give you some living expenses every month, but it's impossible to do anything you want Kathryn to do for you!"

"Kathryn is a member of my Farrell family and the future head of the Farrell family!"

Holden: "I didn't, I… I just feel that Shiloh was treated as our daughter for more than 20 years and died inexplicably like this."

Matriarch Farrell said, "Did she die in vain? She died in plain sight. She had a conflict with her brothers and fell to her death. Even her biological mother and brothers did not say that they wanted to find out the truth. You are not blood related. What's the relationship being traced?"

Holden wanted to say that Shiloh was forced to die by her mother and brothers, so how could the family investigate the cause of death for Shiloh?

But he didn't dare say such words again. He thought that debts would disappear after death.

After Shiloh died, Matriarch Farrell would think of Shiloh's kindness and no longer blame Shiloh. Unexpectedly, her reaction was still so intense. Also, she had been a domineering and domineering person.

She didn't love Holden, and Holden knew it.
