

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3115-After being silent for a moment, Matriarch Farrell responded to the butler: "Let her come in."

With the permission of Matriarch Farrell, Erika quickly opened the study door and came in.

After being extremely disappointed with Marco, Erika decided to divorce her. Her mood changed, and her clothes became simpler and no longer as gorgeous as usual.

No matter how beautifully she dressed up, her husband, Marco, would still cheat on her.

Why should she bother to please him again?

She just lived the life she wanted.

Erika walked behind Matriarch Farrell and did not immediately call for help. Instead, she quietly watched Matriarch Farrell practice calligraphy.

After looking at it for a while, she said, "Mom, your handwriting is very messy now. You're in a bad mood, so don't force yourself to practice calligraphy."

"Everyone has bad days."

After Matriarch Farrell finished writing the last word, she put down her pen. After admiring her handwriting, she admitted that she was in a bad mood and that her handwriting was not good-looking and could not be compared with usual.

She grabbed the paper, crumpled it into a ball, and threw it in the trash.

She turned around, walked to the sofa in the study, and sat down.

Erika followed her over and sat down, minding her own business.

"What do you want to tell me?" Matriarch Farrell asked gently.

“Just talking about the situation between Marco and me, Mom, I have clearly thought it over.” I still decided to divorce Marco. I don’t want to endure it anymore, and I can’t persist. Now that I see him, I think of his help. If he wants to strangle me to death, He has long-lost feelings for me.

We are still together for the sake of the children, but I feel like now I can’t bear it anymore, even for the sake of the children.”

After Matriarch Farrell was silent for a long time, she asked her, “Is Marco willing to divorce?”

“He refused and even quarreled with me, saying I was fooling around. Mom, really, I feel sick when I see him now. If we can’t get a peaceful divorce, I will file for divorce. I hope you can persuade Marco and let him get together with me. He likes those young and beautiful women outside. I will help him and divorce me. Without divorce or marriage to bind him, he is free.”

Erika’s voice was also very gentle, indicating that she was in a peaceful mood now, and that her husband could no longer stir up trouble in her heart.

“Mom, you were the one who fell in love with me in the first place. You hired someone to act as a matchmaker and arranged for Marco and me to meet and fall in love. We both got married, as you wished. Since I married into the Farrell family, I think I have never done anything to feel sorry for the Farrell family, nor have I ever done anything to feel sorry for Marco. The only person I feel sorry for is Kathryn. In the past, in order to please you and Shiloh, I did everything I could for Kathryn. I have a very bad attitude and have done some things that are harmful to Kathryn.”

Erika felt that she was worthy of her husband’s family.

Matriarch Farrell said, “Don’t think about it anymore? You have been married for more than ten years and have children. Your children are at an important stage of learning. If you let them know that you are divorced, it will affect their studies.”

Erika said, “Mom, I have thought clearly and don’t want to think about it anymore. So, what if I have children? Can having children prevent my husband from cheating? It’s useless for me. I can’t keep my man or my marriage.”

“After the divorce, I will live in the wedding house that my mother prepared for us, take the children back to live there, and tell them that the family is separated, so we will live there, and his father will rarely accompany children; the children rarely ask about him. Just meet up every once in a while. I don’t think the kids will notice.

If Marco still hopes that his children will be well, I believe he will also cooperate with me in acting.”

Matriarch Farrell sighed.
