

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2696-shook his head.

Since he was a modest person, he dared not to say that he was in the kill the Demon Lord and injure the Southern Boss who were both in the Hugh just admitted that Leon did indeed kill the Demon Lord and injure the Southern Boss, but what he said after that contradicted his own words.

“Well, Leon got lucky and obtained three extremely powerful Potential Energy Forces from a certain legendary martial artist. He used one of the Potential Energy Forces to kill the Demon Lord and injure the Southern Boss,” Seeing as Renee would not give up until she had her answers, Leon had no choice but to answer her question.

“I see!” Realization dawned on Renee.

Almighty state.

Such talent was unheard of and it all finally made sense now that she learned about the Potential Energy Forces.

It seemed like Leon managed to take the Demon Lord down and injure the Southern Boss because he had external aids.

“Hugh, if that Potential Energy Force can kill the Demon Lord and injure the Southern Boss at the same time, it has to be powerful, right? Which power level is it on?” Renee asked curiously.

“Probably in the Semi-Saint State,” Leon said.

The Potential Energy Forces were powerful beyond comprehension, so Leon did not know exactly which level it was in. However, he estimated that it reached the Semi-Saint or even the Saint state.

“The Semi-Saint State? If there’s a chance in the future, I have to see just how powerful it is with my own eyes,” Renee said in anticipation.

In the Western region, the Western Boss and her grandfather were the most powerful martial artists apart from Mister Orpwood.

the Peak Almighty State, not to mention the Semi-Saint State.

If possible, she truly wished to witness just how powerful it was.

“Um, that’s probably not happening. Leon has used up all three Potential Energy Forces. You won’t have the chance to see it!” Leon said.

Master Hazlewood’s Potential Energy Forces saved Leon’s life three times in total and they had been crucial to his survival through different obstacles.

However, he used up all three Potential Energy Forces and he felt somewhat at a loss.

was no longer the same powerless man he once was.

Even without the Potential Energy Forces, he had what it took to protect himself.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2697-“I see,” Renee was slightly disappointed and added, “Well, which level is Leon in, then?”

She already knew that Leon relied on the Potential Energy Force to kill the Demon Lord and injure the Southern Boss, but Leon was certainly quite formidable as well for him to have the courage to face up to two martial artists in With that said, Leon had to be in the Almighty state.

Though she had no opportunity to witness how the Potential Energy Force worked, it would be great to meet someone as capable as Leon as well.

“I think he’s on the same level as me,” Leon said.

“As you? How is that possible? Stop talking nonsense!” Renee rolled her eyes at him.

She knew that Hugh was rather formidable and that he already reached the not rival his superior in terms of strength.

From her perspective, she felt that Leon had to be much more powerful than Hugh.

“I’m not talking nonsense. I’m telling the truth,” Leon said.

She pouted. "I don't believe you."

Ever since she learned that Leon was talented and defeated the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss, she began idolizing Leon.

No matter what Hugh said, she refused to believe that Leon was on the same level as Hugh.

"Believe whatever you want," Leon said with resignation.

He was telling the truth and could not help it that Renee did not believe him.

After all, he could not tell her that he was Leon.

He came to the western region without using his real name because he wanted to track the Southern Boss down.

Since his purpose has not been accomplished, he could not expose his true identity to avoid any accident.

Naturally, he was unaware that the Southern Boss already guessed that he was Leon.

If he knew about this, he would know that there was no point in him to hide his name.

"Miss Morrison, it's still early and you probably haven't had your breakfast, right?"

"Why don't we go downstairs for breakfast?" Leon changed the subject.

"Um, sure." Renee nodded.

Her family entrusted her with the task of keeping an eye on Leon, so she came over as soon as she woke up and did not eat anything.

Once Leon mentioned it, she started to feel hungry.

The two went downstairs for breakfast and afterward, Leon got prepared to head outside.

"Hugh, where are you going?" Renee asked.

“I plan to go shop for jadeites and gems,” Leon said.

“What for?” she asked in confusion.

“To produce alchemical pills,” he explained.

He needed the jadeites for an Energy Convergence Circle to amplify the effect of the pills.

Though he did not decide if he wanted to partner with the Morrisons or the Dagleshs, this would not interfere with his need to produce more pills.

Hence, he intended to purchase the tools he needed for the production so that he could start as soon as he decided who to work with.

“I see!” Renee said. “How about this? You’ve just arrived in the western region and you don’t know your way around here. Why don’t I take you to a place to purchase the jadeite you need?”

She was heeding Hugo’s command and trying her best to remain by Leon’s side to prevent him from working with the Dagleshs.

“Well, sure! Thank you!” Leon said.

Indeed, he did not quite know his way around the western region.

Since Renee offered to be his tour guide, this worked in his favor and he did not turn herdown.

With that, the two got into Leon’s car and left the hotel.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2698-n a famous district filled with antique shops, the biggest jadeite seller the name of Western Gem Store stood.

Its interior was glorious and it was filled with jewelry, gems, and jadeites of all sorts.

Upon arriving, Leon and Renee first took a stroll around the district before entering the It was still early and there were not many customers. There were only a dozen people around, but there were plenty of people gathering at the rock gambling area.

There were professional gamblers and professional experts, along with merchants who specialized in jadeite.

Leon and Renee stepped into the hall and he glanced at the rock gambling area.

Though he could detect the spiritual energy inside the rocks and could practically select the most valuable rock without miss, rock gambling was far too time-consuming. Since he was not in short of money any longer, there was no point for him to seek wealth through this means.

He decided that others could have this opportunity instead.

With that, the two of them arrived at the shopping area to purchase some high quality jadeites as this would be more straightforward.

Seeing the two, a young saleswoman approached with a smile. "Sir, Madam, what are you looking for? I can give some recommendations."

"I want to purchase some clear or cream-clear jadeites," Leon said.

"Sure. All our clear and cream-clear jadeites are on the left. Please follow me," The saleswoman's eyes lit up and she wore an excited look.

Clear and cream-clear jadeites were all expensive and Leon seemed certain with what he wanted. Judging from what he said, he wanted to purchase more than one piece, which made him a big client.

Not daring to delay at all, she brought the two over to the display area of the clear and cream-clear jadeites.

"Sir, these are clear jadeites and these are cream-clear jadeites," she introduced.

While she proceeded to explain each piece, Leon glanced at the cabinets before him.

Apart from a few clear jadeites, there were even jewelry pieces made from imperial green and imperial purple amethyst.

“These pieces aren’t so bad!” Leon focused on the imperial green and imperial purple amethyst.

The core of the Energy Convergence Circle was undoubtedly the most important and the better the quality of the core, the more effective the circle would be.

Under normal circumstances, he only needed clear jadeite for the core, but it would surely be even better to use imperial green or imperial purple amethyst.

It was a shame that imperial green and imperial purple amethyst were far too rare.

The ones that were on display were far too small, with the largest one being only the size of a child’s fist.

This meant that they were not suited to be the core of the Energy Convergence Circle.

In the end, he could only take his pick of the clear jadeites and select a topquality piece.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2699-“Can you show me that clear jadeite over there?” Leon pointed at a piece of clear jadeite.

“Sure.” The saleswoman retrieved the jadeite and handed it to Leon.

Leon inspected it and noticed that an eagle was carved into it. Though the craftsmanship was excellent, the pattern was far from exquisite so it gave a rather ordinary impression.

However, he was purchasing jadeite for the Energy Convergence Circle, not as an accessory or gift, so he could not care less about the craftsmanship.

Judging from the size of this piece, it was perfect for the core of the circle.

He fired up his spiritual energy and detected an abundance of spiritual energy inside the jadeite, so he was satisfied with it.

“How much is this?” he asked.

“Sir, this is priced at 1.8 million,” the saleswoman said.

‘Well, that’s a fair price! I’ll take it!’ Leon nodded.

He purchased his fair share of jadeites for Energy Convergence Circles before and knew the market price for most items.

Judging from the size and the quality of the jadeite he selected, 1.8 million seemed like a reasonable price.

Without further delay, he intended to purchase it.

“Sure! Please wait, Sir. I’ll pack this up for you!” The saleswoman was overjoyed.

High-quality clear jadeites were far too expensive and ordinary customers would often be more hesitant to purchase them.

Leon, on the other hand, did not hesitate for a single moment and it was her first time encountering such a customer.

Pleasantly surprised, she became even more enthusiastic.

Just then, footsteps approached and a couple at around the age of twenty- six walked over.

The couple was extremely eye-catching.

The man was tall and dressed in a luxurious outfit that gave him a majestic air.

The woman was even more eye-catching with her alluring features and figures.

Her elegance rivaled that of the man next to her.

In terms of looks, this woman would only be second to Renee and Leon’s four confidantes, making her a rare beauty.

However, the pride in her eyes did not go well with her beauty.

It was unlike the pride Renee displayed as Renee’s demeanor carried an air of distant, unbending nobility.

This woman, on the other hand, seemed to look down on everyone and such arrogance gave off a rather repulsive feeling.

Hey, isn't that Renee Morrison?" The proud woman glanced over and spotted Renee right away.

The man next to her noticed Renee as well.

■ Mister Grimston and Miss Underwood. It's you!" Renee turned around and frowned when she recognized the couple.

They were the eldest son of the Grimston, Bucky, and the eldest daughter of the Underwoods, Aurelia.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2700-"Renee, it's been a while!" Bucky took the initiative to greet Renee, then went on to stare admiringly at her.

As the most beautiful woman in the western region, Renee was the dream woman of many young bachelors and he was no exception.

He fell for her a long time ago and proceeded to pursue her for a while.

Unfortunately, Renee did not return his affection.

Her standards were too high and she remained unmoved in response to his advances. She never gave him any chances and rejected him multiple times.

Felton, too, was one of Renee's many pursuers.

In terms of background, status, and strength as a martial artist, Bucky could not rival with Felton.

Therefore, he eventually gave up and started pursuing Aurelia instead.

The two of them ended up dating, but the grass would always be greener on the other side.

Though he was already dating Aurelia, he still struggled to forget about Renee.

Hence, when he saw her again, the feelings he once suppressed resurfaced once more.

“Renee? You sure sound like you are really close with her...” Aurelia shot Bucky a jealous and displeased look.

It was no secret that Bucky once pursued Renee and she knew about it as well.

Seeing as Bucky was staring unblinkingly at Renee, she was instantly filled with envy.

Though Renee was referred to as the most beautiful woman in the western region, her beauty was comparable to Renee’s.

Both of them were known beauties of the region and she was confident that she had to be one of the three most beautiful women.

Renee was always superior to her in terms of beauty and fame, and Aurelia was frustrated about it.

Judging from the way Bucky was staring at Renee, he clearly did not forget about her and this only intensified her resentment toward Renee.

Mister Grimston, it’s been a while. I heard that you will soon be engaged to Miss Underwood. Congratulation!” Renee smiled.

Bucky and Aurelia were dating for a long while and news about their pending engagement was heard recently.

Renee caught news of it and took the opportunity to congratulate them.

“Yeah, Bucky and I are getting engaged in three days! We came here to purchase a few valuable jadeites as the centerpieces of our engagement party...” Aurelia held Bucky’s arm and spoke with a half-smile as though she was boasting.

“I see!” Renee felt that it made sense for them to want jadeites for their engagement party.

Since both the Grimstons and the Underwoods were powerful families, using ordinary jewelry for the engagement would seem too dull.

Using high-quality jadeites for it, on the other hand, would be more elegant.
