An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2251

Chapter 2251

“After the fight, call it a day, Uncle Fifth Master, I’ll leave this place to you.”

After driving away the people from Blizzard Villa, Zhang Yiqing yawned and staggered away.

With such a lazy and sleepy look, someone who didn’t know it thought he hadn’t slept in a few days.

“Fellow knights, let me reiterate once again, since you have come to Longhu Mountain, please abide by the rules of Longhu Mountain.”

Zhang Qizheng looked around and said loudly: “No matter what grudges or grievances there are, they can either be resolved in the ring or privately after the game. If there is going to be public trouble, we at Longhu Mountain will never sit idly by and ignore it.”

“Daozhang Zhang is absolutely right. If anyone dares to break the rules, I, Mr. Li, will be the first to refuse!”

“That’s right! If you don’t give Longhushan face, you won’t give me, Wang, face. I’m standing here today to see who dares to cause trouble!”

“If you ask me, the people in Blizzard Villa deserve to be beaten and they deserve to die!”

“...”

Everyone was talking, and everyone expressed their support for Longhu Mountain.

Anyone who dares to break the rules of Longhu Mountain will be their enemy.

Although they were all beautiful words, at least they were shouted with momentum.

“Thank you all knights for coming.”

Zhang Qizheng bowed his hands, and then spoke again: “Now the time has come, the first day of the competition is about to begin, I will simply announce the rules now.

The purpose of this martial arts competition is to compete and compete as much as possible.

If one party falls off the ring or admits defeat, the other party must stop attacking. If there is any violation, he will be immediately disqualified.

In addition, this competition is not limited to weapons or martial arts. You can display freely, but you cannot kill people maliciously. If the situation is not right, the referee has the right to terminate the game.

Finally, I hope that everyone can use martial arts to make friends and make progress together. “

As soon as these words came out, the audience burst into applause.

I don't know if anyone listened to the rules of the competition, but I just applauded anyway.

“Today is a competition for Group C players. All players whose numbers are called should go to the corresponding ring to compete. If they are absent or late, they will be deemed to have given up. The other player will directly advance to the next round.”

“Okay, that's all I have to say. Now, the game officially begins!”

Without too many words, Zhang Qizheng simply explained the rules and announced the start of the game.

Soon, the entire scene became lively.

Because there were too many people, Longhushan prepared a total of eight arenas, and eight games were held at the same time.

In each arena, there is a Taoist priest from Longhu Mountain as the referee.

As the shouts rang out, people began to step onto the ring for a decisive battle.

The first three days were all contests for the players in Group C. Although the players in Group C were weaker than those in Group B and Group A, in fact they were all carefully selected elites.

Because those who can sign up for the competition will have the strength to lift tens of thousands of pounds at the beginning.

To reach this level, except for some people with extraordinary talents, only innate-level warriors can do it.

In other words, most of the players in Group C are innate warriors at all stages.

Innate warriors, if placed in a large sect, can already be regarded as elites. If placed in a small sect, they are even more focused on cultivating talented disciples.
