

Chapter 1050 You Are Not Welcome Here

Trevor stared at the exiting figure of the arrogant girl.

He thought something was amiss.

She claimed she came from Star Film and Television Company, which Xzavier owned.

Star Film and Television Company was one of the leading companies in the industry. He didn't think they'd send an idiot to make a mess of the business negotiations.

"She is Caitlin Sanderson, daughter of Star Film and Television Company's chairman, Xzavier Sanderson," Nelly said as she came in.

Trevor raised his eyebrows and said, "I see. It's no surprise she's so arrogant."

Nelly frowned and continued, "Caitlin's coming here today is not a good sign. Caitlin, as far as I know, is notorious for being petty. I'm afraid she'll hold a grudge against us because of this. We'll likely be drawn into an unpleasant conflict with Star Film and Television Company."

Ivanna looked worried when she heard this. "Did I get you in trouble?"

Trevor just grinned.

Conflict with Star Film and Television Company was inevitable. That was why he came to Barlowtown in the first place.

Taking his revenge on Xzavier was compulsory.

"Relax. Don't be afraid to fight just because your opponent is strong. You just need to work hard. I'll handle the rest," Trevor said, confidently. "Ivanna, you just need to take care of yourself and get better."

Trevor then waved them goodbye and walked out of the ward.

Caitlin's unsolicited visit proved that Ivanna had been noticed by Star Film and Television Company.

It also meant that Trevor's prediction of Ivanna was correct. She indeed had the potential to become a superstar.

As expected, his company was in trouble soon.

The next morning, he received a call from his employee.

"Sir! Bad news! Our office's real estate agent is reclaiming the space. What do we do?" This employee was a graduate of the art school, whom Trevor had hired.

Alec Morgan, the real estate agent, was going to reclaim his office!

Trevor frowned.

Sky Film and Television Company was formed not long ago, and its office space was rented.

Did Alec mean to breach the contract?

"Don't worry. I'll be there soon." Trevor hung up the phone with a thoughtful look.

He hurried to the company after making some preparations.

Trevor wasn't in any way surprised when he met not only Alec

but the arrogant girl, Caitlin.

Of course, she was responsible for this.

Trevor strode over to them.

Alec, who had been screaming at the employees, noticed Trevor and said, "You arrived just in time! I'm ordering you to move out within an hour. Don't make me force you out. Otherwise, you'll be responsible for anything that happens to your employees."

Alec then turned to Caitlin and said, "Are you satisfied with the way I've handled this matter, Miss Sanderson?"

Caitlin, who was donning a pair of sunglasses, didn't spare Trevor a glance. She nodded slightly, without saying a word.

Alec frowned at this. He thought Caitlin was not satisfied, so he turned again to Trevor and said, "What are you looking at? Get out of here! You and your employees are not welcome here anymore."

Trevor frowned.

Caitlin had instigated Alec to do this.

Sky Film and Television Company was a new venture. It had only recently been established, and there were only a few employees. Because the majority of them were girls, it would be difficult to prevent Alec and his men from evicting them.

The scene was chaotic.

Were they really going to be evicted?
