

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3157

Liberty smiled and said, “I believe Brother Duncan will not like Ms. Girard. Brother Duncan only has me in his sights. You don’t have to worry about me. Having a love rival will be a test for me and Duncan. Seren, you don’t need to actively monitor her. Let nature take its course. If Ms. Girard can capture Duncan, I have nothing to say. If she can’t capture him, she might come to me.”

Liberty had experience dealing with love rivals. Before she divorced Hank, when Hank and Jessica were together, didn’t she never lose?

She initiated the divorce first.

A single grain of sand had no place in her eyes.

Since Hank didn’t care about her, he was very stingy with her, but he was very generous to his mistress. She helped them.

Divorce was not necessarily bad, and back then she was living a good life. Although she had Serenity’s assistance, even without it, she could have survived the difficult days of divorce.

After experiencing a failed marriage, Liberty has long since woken up. Women, whether before or after marriage, must have their own jobs and incomes. Don’t pin all their hopes on men. Don’t just focus on their family, lose themselves, and be out of touch with society. In that case, once divorced, a woman will be at a disadvantage and will not even have an advantage in fighting for child custody.

Love was no longer the most important part of Liberty's life. Career and family love were the most important parts of the rest of her life.

Serenity said, "Well, I won't do anything. I'll simply monitor Ms. Girard closely. I have to know her actions, lest she suddenly go to look for her and kill her by surprise. Excellent men are always liked by many people."

She continued, "Many men also admire our outstanding female compatriots." Sister, you also had other suitors, but Brother Duncan strangled them in the cradle before they even started."

Liberty: "..."

She had met a suitor before, and she rejected him without Duncan taking action. At that time, she did not change her mind and did not want to marry again.

After having been with Duncan for so long, she was moved by his affection and persistence, so she wanted to give each other another chance. She believed Duncan would not let her down.

"I asked Sonny to come and answer the phone." Serenity moved the phone away from her ear and called to her nephew, "Sonny, mommy called back." Do you want to talk to Mommy on the phone?"

"want." Sonny responded immediately and rushed over.

Serenity handed him the phone and picked him up, allowing him to sit on her lap while listening to the call.

The mother and son talked on the phone for half an hour before ending the call.

Serenity: "Are you done painting?"

Sonny: "I've finished the painting, but I haven't added the colors yet."

Serenity put her cell phone back in her trouser pocket, stood up, and said, "Bring it to me to see."

Sonny brought his new painting and gave it to Serenity. Serenity took it and examined it. The painting was of a cat. Sonny liked small animals very much. The pet that Zachary gave her before was made chubby by Mrs. Lane but deeply loved by Sonny.

Maybe it was because Sonny saw fat cats every day, but his paintings of kittens were really good.

He was just a little younger. If he is a few years older and has been studying painting for a longer time, his paintings will definitely reach a higher level.

He liked taking specialty classes.

Sonny: "This is my aunt's fat cat."

Serenity's pet cats have names, but now everyone calls them fat cats.

Serenity told Mrs. Lane not to feed them too much and to let them lose weight. Animals are the same as people. If they are too fat, their bodies are prone to various problems.