

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3170-After Duncan was silent for a while, he suddenly said, "Liberty, we should have completed the marriage formalities years ago. I will continue to do rehabilitation, and I will definitely recover as usual and not be a burden to you. I can't promise when I will get better. Now I have switched to an automatic wheelchair. I can operate it and travel by myself. I thought about it and decided that we should go through the marriage formalities first and then hold the wedding after I fully recover."

Duncan thought about what Zachary said: maybe Liberty still had a shadow over her previous marriage, and if he thought about it too much, he would worry about her being snatched away.

He will then obtain a marriage license with her. He is her man; who can take him away?

He was a heartless man; otherwise, he would not have married a wife at the age of 36.

He finally fell in love with her for the rest of his life.

His heart was very narrow, and he could only accommodate Liberty.

There was a time when Liberty wanted to get a marriage certificate with Duncan, but she just wanted to get a marriage certificate and become a legal couple and didn't want to hold another wedding.

She believed that because she was marrying into a wealthy family for the second time, she should maintain a low profile to avoid causing too much jealousy.

Everyone in her natal family, including her sister and her aunt's family, refused to agree.

Duncan and the Lewis family also disagreed.

Serenity said, Sister, what happened to the second marriage?

The second marriage is also an honorable marriage, and you don't steal someone or act like a mistress. Who said that a second marriage couldn't have a high-profile wedding?

Serenity hoped that when Liberty married Duncan, she would have a grand wedding so that everyone could witness Liberty's happiness.

The Lewis family felt that Duncan was in his first marriage, and he was the fourth young master of the Lewis family. How could there not be a wedding? Liberty's request should not cause any offense to the fourth young master of the Lewis family. Not only does he have to hold a wedding, but he also has to hold a grand wedding so that he can catch up with Josh, Jasmine, Zachary, and Serenity.

Let's not talk about the wedding issue. After Liberty accepted Duncan, she could marry him at any time, as long as he proposed to her. However, Duncan was not in a hurry. He was afraid that he would not be able to recover and would drag Liberty down.

Therefore, the two people were still in love and failed to enter the wedding hall.

Duncan proposed to get a marriage certificate before the year, but Liberty hesitated.

She said, "Duncan, I'm very busy right now. I haven't had time to arrange our marriage yet. Let's wait until after the year."

Liberty was really busy. But she was also a little worried that Duncan would change his mind if Ainsley really got involved.

She wanted to see first if Ainsley would take the next step.

When Duncan faced the passionate pursuit of a woman who was better than her, he still loved her as before.

Once her business was on track and she had some free time, she would definitely go back to Wiltspoon to get a marriage certificate with Duncan and have a grand wedding.

Otherwise, if she gets married and the mistress interferes, she will get divorced.

Liberty, who had once experienced a divorce, was still quite afraid.

In the end, her previous failed marriage wounded her and left a shadow.
