

Married At First Sight

Chapter 3171

Married At First Sight Chapter 3171-“It doesn’t take long to get a certificate. Just go back to your home.” Duncan insisted on getting the certificate first.

Once they became a legal couple, Liberty could feel at ease.

He is also famous, and he has his own wife. Those women with outside ideas should stay away from him.

“Duncan, let’s have a good chat about this matter when I’m free, and we’ll think about it during this time.”

“Marriage is a lifelong event, so don’t be impulsive. I am a woman who has been divorced once, so I must be cautious when dealing with my second marriage.”

Duncan heard it. Liberty didn’t want to take the certificate with him. Maybe she was too busy, or maybe the dream worried her, and she changed her mind.

What she said next showed that her previous failed marriage had cast a huge shadow on her.

It’s just that he hadn’t done well enough—not enough—and no love rival had appeared in reality. Just a dream made Liberty worry that he would betray the marriage and not agree to get the marriage certificate with him.

“Okay, let’s wait until you are free. Sonny will go on winter vacation soon. When Sonny goes on winter vacation, I will take him to accompany you.”

Zachary intervened at this time and said, “Sonny just told me yesterday that it was winter vacation and he wanted Serenity to take him to FC Manor to play with Titus. Serenity asked him if he wouldn’t go to Jensburg? He said it was very cold in Jensburg.

My sister will definitely come back years later, but Sonny doesn’t want to go there. He just wants to wait at home for his mother to come back.”

Duncan: "You didn't even tell me."

Zachary smiled and said, "I didn't ask you to accompany him; what should I tell you?"

He was Sonny's uncle, and for the time being, Sonny's emotional balance was still biased towards him. Duncan was just Uncle Lewis now, and he had not yet become Sonny's stepfather.

Duncan was speechless.

Liberty said on the phone, "It's the end of the year, and all major companies are very busy. Duncan, you don't need to come over. Please take care of the company's affairs first, so that you can have a peaceful year. I'll go back when my company is on holiday."

Liberty was now also in charge. There needs to be a holiday for everyone, even if she doesn't want to.

Everyone was on holiday, and no one was doing anything. It was natural for her, the boss, to take a holiday.

Before taking the annual vacation, Liberty wanted to talk more about business and sign more orders so that she would not have to worry about running out of things to do after the new year.

"It's okay. My company has been running for many years, and the business has been stable for a long time. Even if I don't return to the company for a month, it will not affect its normal operation. The management team under me is still very capable. Liberty, please get busy. I heard someone knocking on the door. I'll call you when I'm free in the evening."

Duncan heard Liberty's knock on the door. He stopped taking up Liberty's time.

Liberty's Jensburg company was still in its early stages of establishment. Last weekend, he took Sonny to see Liberty. Liberty told him that now the company only has expenditures and no repayments.

Even if an order is signed but the goods have not yet been shipped, there will be no refund. The received deposit is insufficient to cover daily expenses.

She was under a lot of pressure and didn't know if she could run that company. She had to compete with Farrell's group. Farrell's Group didn't want Liberty's business to rise. Every day, they stared at Liberty's company, trying to compete with each other.

Lewis & Co. had been established for more than ten years, and its business was stable. He had retained the majority of the management team since the company's founding. After more than ten years in the company, he was still very confident about them.

Even if Duncan is not in the company, don't worry; they can't find his palm.

If he is not free, his three brothers will also make time to help him take care of the company so that he can rehabilitate and pursue his wife with peace of mind.
