

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3188-Zachary agreed with his wife's arrangement. She didn't do everything; she just gave the two parties a chance to talk clearly in person.

Zachary said, "I informed Evan, and Evan will come over."

Serenity said, "I don't have to worry about you doing the work. Husband, you go about your business first, and I'll do the same for a while."

Zachary said, "Okay, don't be too tired, and don't sit for too long. Get up and walk from time to time."

Serenity was still pregnant, and although she was still very light, it was not good for her to sit for too long.

"I know; I cherish our child more than you."

The couple exchanged a few words of advice, and Serenity ended the call first.

At the same time, Annenburg in Province X.

Tatum was working alone in the large kitchen.

The butler had bought the ingredients he needed for cooking today, and they were all the freshest.

Not knowing what dish he wanted to cook, the butler didn't help him and left him to work alone.

Tatum didn't need their help.

He had one afternoon, which was enough.

It was just a few home-cooked dishes for Elora.

Knowing that Elora's status in the Ormond family was like that of his elder brother, many people would probably come over to have dinner together, mainly because they wanted to know whether he could pass the retest.

As a result, Tatum cooked a few dishes, but the quantity was not large at all. Even if everyone in the Ormond family came back to eat together, it would still be enough.

Elora didn't take this matter to heart.

She just told her secretary that she would reschedule or cancel the dinner originally planned for tonight. In the evening, she would return to the mansion for dinner and interview the new chef.

Oh, he was a chef applicant, not the chef of the Ormond family.

Who knows if the man named Tatum cooks delicious food? What if he is good at snacking?

At around four o'clock in the afternoon, Tinsley knocked on the door of Elora's office. "Sister, when are we going home for dinner?"

When Tinsley came in, her expression was serious. When she closed the office door to block out prying eyes from outside, she instantly changed her face to look like a foodie.

Without even raising her head, Elora chuckled and asked, "What time is it now?" I just want to go home for dinner. Are you very free? If you are very free, I will leave this project to you."

"No, no, no, I'm not idle; I'm not idle at all." Tinsley quickly waved her hand, fearing that Elora would give her a few more projects to follow.

She was too busy at the moment to even touch the ground. But she can't take things too seriously. If she does, she won't even have time to be lazy and drink a cup of coffee.

"That's right, we are going back to the manor for dinner. Tatum will retake the test in the afternoon. I really want to know if he can pass the test. I also want to try whether the dishes he cooks are as delicious as the snacks he makes."

Elora said calmly, "The snacks he makes are edible, but they can't be said to be very delicious."

