

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3194-Zachary: "If you can't eat it, I can eat more."

Evan: "Brother, I am your younger brother."

Zachary: "I have so many brothers, but if you did something like that, the face of our York family would be lost by you."

Evan was shocked again. What a disaster!

He did something so outrageous that he disgraced the York family.

Evan: "Brother."

Zachary: "Wait aside. Wait!"

Evan stood up helplessly, sat aside, and waited for time to pass.

Evan had finally tasted what it felt like to live as long as the years.

He really felt that this time was too sad.

Finally, it's time to get off work.

Zachary turned off the computer, stood up, and walked around the desk.

Evan stood up immediately and walked forward like a pug with a smile on his face. "Brother, are you tired?"

Zachary glanced at him and said, "I'm tired; can you share the burden with me?"

"I have help too."

Almost all of the brothers help with the family business, but the burden still falls on Zachary. They put more thought into doing what they love.

Unlike Zachary, who only had one purpose, which was to build the York Corporation and make the York Corporation stand firm in Wiltspoon,.

Zachary glanced at Evan again, and Evan didn't dare to speak.

Even if they add their own careers, they are not as busy and tired as their elder brother, Zachary.

The enormous York Corporation bore an excessive burden.

Zachary picked very tiring tasks, but in order to allow them to do what they like, the eldest brother did not ask them to share how much they had to share. He only arranged for them what they happened to be interested in so that they could accumulate experience.

"Seren, I'm off work." Zachary walked toward his beloved wife.

Evan trembled when he heard Zachary's gentle tone when he called his sister-in-law's name.

Serenity received Zachary's gentle touch.

A pretty face suddenly flashed through his mind, and soon that face was replaced by another.

He quickly retracted his drifting thoughts.

He could only marry one person.

Choose her or not?

Evan was very confused.

The person grandma chose for him was excellent, and he could get along well with her, but he always felt that something was missing.

In his dream, he had become entangled with the woman, but in reality, he had found her. The two of them didn't get along well; they would always argue and even fight, and they felt a bit like enemies.

But he preferred to be with her.

No wonder he would pester her endlessly in his dreams.

He harbored a deeper affection for her. He probably lacked some passion for the person his grandma chose for him.

One side was what he really liked, and the other side was what his grandma picked for him.

Evan knew that the person grandma chose was based on his temperament, and the person was definitely suitable for him.

If he had not found the woman of his dreams in real life, he would definitely fall in love with that woman according to grandma's wishes, get married, have children, and live his whole life step by step.

However, he found the woman of his dreams.

Evan was very confused.

He couldn't find out the woman's surname in the dream. He only knew that she had a nickname, Fox. She had good boxing and kicking skills, had a sweet temperament, good looks, and was a bit playful. Her background had been kept secret. Even he, the fourth young master of the York family, couldn't find out her background.

He had no idea about the other person's family background, and even if the elders in the family were open-minded, he felt sorry for her for marrying a woman who had no idea about his background or even his name, let alone the elders in the family.

Evan thought about asking Julian for help, but Julian was too busy chasing his wife to bother him.
