

Married At First Sight Chapter 3206

Married At First Sight Chapter 3206-Abby came to Wiltspoon alone as a fox, just for Evan.

Evan was responsible for Wiltspoon's safety. Whether he would not marry her later, this was the wife candidate arranged for him by his grandma. If something happens in Wiltspoon, not to mention the Du family, to find him trouble, it is there that grandma will beat him.

Evan called Zachary. When Zachary answered his call, he begged, "Brother, can I stay in your suite for one night?"

"Except for my master bedroom, you can sleep in any other room." Zachary didn't object, but he couldn't sleep in the master bedroom.

When Zachary usually stayed in this suite, he always stayed in the master bedroom.

Evan: "Well, okay, thank you, brother."

Zachary: "What's wrong with Abby?"

"She was so drunk that she vomited and felt thirsty. I couldn't leave, so I had to stay at the hotel for the night. When it was almost dawn, I sent her back to her room before leaving, so as not to let her know that I was living in the same room with her."

After Zachary was silent for a moment, he said, "If you think carefully and decide not to marry her or consider her anymore, it's best to do that and not ruin the girl's reputation."

Evan said with a headache, "Brother, I don't know what to do. She is actually very good. Grandma's vision is unmistakable. I can get along with her, but... I seem to prefer being with the fox."

Zachary: "fox?"

Evan said, "It's the woman who has been entangled with me in my dream. She has a nickname called Variety Fox. She may be good at makeup. I don't know her real name, where she is from, or even her whereabouts. I can't even tell. She is very mysterious and brings out my desire to conquer."

Zachary: "You lost your heart before you even knew the other person's name. Does she have any connection to the head wife of the Lafayette family in Meadspring?"

The head wife of the Lafayette family in Meadspring was Jane's sister-in-law and the second daughter of the Stoll family in Annenburg. She was a double-faced person.

The master of Ms. Stoll and the master of the fourth young lady of the Johnson family were old acquaintances. They were both masters who traveled across the world decades ago. Although they have retired for decades, they still leave behind their legends.

Evan: "Mrs. Lafayette's wife is a two-faced person. That's because she is good at disguise. I think Fox should be good at makeup, like disguise. She should be the same as the Johnson family's second wife, a kind person."

The second young lady in the Johnson family was a well-known senior makeup artist. How good were her makeup skills? Her skillful hands transformed her face to such an extent that even her mother was unable to recognize her.

Zachary stopped talking.

When Evan mentioned the second young lady in the Johnson family, Zachary had an idea.

Grandma selected Abby for Evan, but Evan had a crush on another girl and became involved with her.

Evan went to his grandma and asked for a replacement, but grandma asked him to handle it himself.

Grandma May never did anything that was uncertain. Neither Zachary nor Callum nor Kevin could climb over Grandma's five-finger mountain.

Could Evan be revealed?

dream!

Since grandma had chosen Abby, this Abby was not simple.

Zachary suddenly thought that Abby would contact Evan with another face and another identity and make Evan fall in love with another woman.

Zachary thought of this, but he didn't mention Evan.

Grandma didn't even mention it. Why should Zachary talk so much? Let Evan figure it out on his own and discover it for himself.

See if Evan can prove that Abby is the Fox. If the two are not the same person, consider Zachary's guess wrong. Anyway, this matter was unrelated to him.

The matter had nothing to do with him; Zachary was just hanging on high.

He was home with his wife, who was on the hot bed. When his child was born next year, his small family would be complete.
