

Chapter 174

Allison stared at Ryan. He showed no emotion whatsoever, making it appear as though her remarks had no impact on him at all.

"Stay away from me and my family." After saying that, she exited the room.

She was seething with rage. She was taken aback by the fact that Ryan was aware of the mate bond between Ethan and Elora. She knew Elora was not the only one behind the rejection. Ryan might push her to do that.

Allison proceeded to the room in which Ethan had been moved.

She noticed Ella was crying silently. Alpha Neil was walking back and forth in the room.

Linus was sitting on the edge of the bed, checking on Ethan's health from time to time.

Allison glanced at Ethan. He was lying on the bed, lifeless. Only his heart was beating to tell others that he was still alive.

"I will put an end to her life if I ever find the woman who rejected my son." Alpha Neil said.

"I asked the maids if they saw who had entered the garden at that time." Glen said to Alpha Neil while gazing at Allison.

Allison turned to him and shook her head. She tried to stop him from saying anything. Ethan had already been rejected by Elora, and there was now nothing that could be done about it. However, at least her mother had a chance of saving Ethan.

"Tell me the names." Alpha Neil said to his best friend, who was still trying to play his beta's role after retirement. Just like a loyal beta, he went to find out about the incident. Since Wade was busy with Ethan's health and had to manage the pack activities at that time, he thought he should step forward.

"At first, Allison went into the garden with Ethan, but when Elora walked in, Allison left the garden."

"Elora?" Ella mumbled as she heard Glen's statement.

"But how is it connected to her?" She asked.

"Call that woman and ask her." Alpha Neil growled at Wade.

Wade looked away from him and remained silent.

Everyone in the room was surprised by his silence.

"Did you already know about that?" As Alpha Neil approached him, he questioned.

Wade lowered his head. "Ethan strictly forbid me from discussing it with anyone else. I am obligated to follow the order of my Alpha."

"Total nonsense! Is it anything that ought to be kept a secret?" He roared.

At that time, the door opened, and Elora walked into the room.

She gave Ethan on the bed a glance before clenching her hands to bring herself back under control.

Allison took note of the appearance of Elora's face. It appeared as though she cried a lot. Behind him, Ryan entered the room.

Allison turned away from him. She did not want to look at him right now. She was angry with him. The way he warned her about her father, she was afraid that he would hurt him in the future.

"How dare you come here? You dared to hurt my son." Alpha Neil hastened his approach to Elora.

Ryan, however, came between them and halted him before he could get to her.

"Whoever will try to hurt her, I will take action by myself." He muttered to Alpha Neil.

Elora lowered her head in silence.

"Take action? What about what she had done to Ethan?"

"That's her and his private matter, Alpha Neil. Why do you bother to come between mates who don't want to be with each other and have different partners?" Ryan replied calmly.

Hearing him, Neil turned his head toward Allison. He shifted his gaze back to Ryan and asked,

"You took revenge, didn't you?"

Alpha Neil's words astounded everyone.

"Revenge for what? Your son is so fragile that he is unable to deal with anything, not even the rejection of a hybrid."

Neil looked at Elora and asked,

"Who are you? An Alpha can never be turned down by anyone. It is the power that we Alphas inherited from the goddess of the moon. Then how could you reject an Alpha?"

Elora raised her head. She was not in her right mind. She was regretting rejecting Ethan. She was caught off guard by the unexpected nature of her feelings. Her wolf was wallowing in regret inside of her like a bereaved widow.

"I-I am-"

"She is not obligated in any way to explain anything to anyone. How can you expect her to accept your son when she is engaged to be married to someone else? Or perhaps it has become your habit to snatch others' partners and give it to your son as he wishes."

The taunt that Ryan made was clearly understandable to Neil, Allison's parents, and even Allison herself.

Glen got to his feet and started walking over to Neil. "Alpha, this is not the time to argue with your family. It is time for everyone to get together and pray for Ethan."

"See? Learn something from him. Ethan's future father-in-law is really worried for him. He can feel the pain because who knows when people get in danger like this." Ryan said while looking at Glen.

Glen could feel that Ryan's words were intended for him. He ignored his remarks.

"But he doesn't behave like family, Glen." After declaring his defeat to his closest companion, Neil turned around.

"Can you all just stop it?" Ella said and stood up.

She wiped her eyes and turned to look at her husband and son.

"If the two of you can not stand to be in the same room together without arguing, then you should leave the room. Can't you see Ethan's situation? Is it a joke to you both?"

Ryan could see how broken his mother looked. He did not say anything. On the other hand, Neil was glaring at Elora. He could not just think of letting go of the culprit because of whom his son was dying.

Elora lowered her head and said,

"Please forgive me. I should not have done that. I should have waited for my wedding and let Ryan mark me so Ethan did not have to feel the rejection like this. By that, the mate bond would break easily with less pain."

Alpha Neil was about to reprimand her, but before that, Wade spoke out as if someone had informed him of something in mind link.

"Georgiana is here."
