Chapter 2743

"Running? Not so soon!" Gaston mistakenly thought Leon was running when he overheard his conversation with Renee. His expression darkened and he ordered the two elderly men, "Uncles, get on with it before that kid runs away."

"Yes, sir!"

"Don't you try to run. Prepare to die!"

The elderly men heeded Gaston's order and each launched a powerful attack at Leon.

They both shared Gaston's thoughts. Leon was far too talented and had great potential for further growth in the future. Under normal circumstances, one should either befriend such talent or nib it in the crib without giving them a chance to rise.

Since Gaston and Bucky insisted on making Leon their enemy, the elderly men could only team up against Leon to destroy him on the spot, actively preventing him from retaliating.

"Hugh, run! You won't get away if you don't run now," Renee panicked when they launched their attacks and she shoved at Leon, hinting him to run.

However, Leon remained unmoved. "It's fine. I told you there's no need for that. Just step aside and leave these scums to me!" Leon said calmly. With his overall strength reaching the Advanced Almighty State, he had no fear for two martial artists in the Initial Almighty state.

However, he needed help to wield his full power with Renee by his side. Hence, he gently pushed her to the back to prevent her from getting caught in the crossfire.

He then turned around and fired up his spiritual energy to face the two martial artists before him. "How arrogant!" "Since you want to die, we'll grant your wish. Take this! Shadow strike!"

The two elderly men were enraged by Leon's attitude and they each launched their most powerful technique.

The true energy within them gathered in their arms until they were glowing in a green light before they charged at Leon.

Since they were attacking from different directions and completely in sync with each other, Leon should not be able to fend them off simultaneously.

"It's over!" Witnessing how powerful the elderly men's attacks were, Renee was devastated. She initially wanted Leon to escape in time and did not expect Leon to refuse and face up to the enemy instead. This was practically suicidal.

Since the two elderly men worked well together and launched attacks from different angles, they sealed all potential escape routes and it was too late for Leon to try and run.

Instantly, she was filled with concern and despair.

Chapter 2744

"You asked for this! You are dying today," Contrary to Renee's despair, Gaston, Bucky, and Aurelia all sneered and stared at Leon as though he was already dead.

They all concluded that Leon was in the Semi-Almighty State.

If he listened to Renee and ran in time, he might be able to survive.

However, he was too arrogant to take her advice and insisted on fighting.

It seemed foolish of him and the three of them did not think he could win as it would not be realistic.

If everything went as planned, Leon would surely perish and that seemed to be the only possibility. However, before they could fully indulge in their fantasies, what happened next shook them to their core. "Bring it on. Hurricane Break!" Leon scoffed.

He stepped forward and extended both his arms to launch his most powerful technique, Hurricane Break.

Countless streams of spiritual energy emerged from all directions, before combining into a powerful hurricane that charged the two elderly men.

Since Hurricane Break was a large-range attack, it had the power of a small Potential Energy source and could destroy everything in front of it.

The elderly men were not the only ones who were targeted. Even Gaston, Bucky, and Aurelia were caught in the middle of it. "What?"

"What on earth is this?"

The two elderly men were stunned.

They thought that Leon was only in the Semi-Almighty state and did not think Leon would stand a chance against them.

It was a surprise that someone like Leon could launch such a powerful attack.

The Hurricane Break surpassed the Shadow Strike by miles and the two were helpless before it.

They immediately tried to dodge and get away, but the range for Hurricane Break was too large and they simply could not escape. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

"Here goes nothing!" At the very last moment, they had no choice but to launch Shadow Strike at Leon's Hurricane Break. Following a series of noises, Leon's Hurricane Break tore through their Shadow Strike and sent them flying.

Immediately after that, the Hurricane Break charged at the three people behind the elderly men.

Gaston and the other two had no time to run and were also sent flying.

As soon as they landed, the elderly men and Gaston spat blood from the internal injuries they suffered and lay sprawled on the ground. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

The elderly men took most of the blow and suffered the worst injuries.

In comparison, Gaston, Bucky, and Aurelia were far better off. Still, they all suffered different degrees of internal injuries and struggled to get up from the ground. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Chapter 2745

"No way!" Renee rubbed her eyes in disbelief.

She thought that Leon was destined to perish for facing two martial artists in the Almighty State. To her bewilderment, she could not be more wrong.

Not only was Leon safe, he defeated the two elderly men with a single blow and his attack even managed to injure Gaston, Bucky, and Aurelia who stood at the back.

It was so surreal that she was shaken to the core. "Damn it! How can this happen?" Gaston and the others were all shaken by the power of Hurricane Break and their hearts sank.

They all assumed that Leon was only in the Semi-Almighty state. Since the two elderly men were in the Almighty State and Leon was outnumbered, they assumed that defeating him would be easy.

They even planned on destroying him to nib his talent in the crib. However, the reality delivered a resounding slap to them.

Leon defeated two martial artists with a single attack and the aftermath of the attack was powerful enough to injure everyone else.

It was unbelievable and judging from the power of the Hurricane Break, Leon could not be in the Semi-Almighty State and he was likely in the Almighty State, even reaching the Intermediate Almighty State.

Instantly, they realized that Leon was far more formidable than they imagined and they were merely too arrogant to recognize it. Leon sighed a breath after defeating the others.

The Hurricane Break was his most powerful attack and took up a big portion of his spiritual energy.

After wielding it in its full power, he used up at least half of his spiritual energy.

This added to the spiritual energy he used for fighting Gaston and Bucky.

Even for someone as strong as he was, he was starting to feel tired.

Thankfully, Hurricane Break did not disappoint and defeated all the them within an instant, so he was relieved.

"That's great! Hugh, you were great!" Renee recovered from the initial shock and was overjoyed. She hurried to Leon's side with an excited expression.

When she first got to know Hugh, she underestimated him because he was just a young vice president with no status. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

However, he first defeated Felton, who was known to be one of the most talented martial artists in the youngest generation, and then defeated Gaston and two other martial artists in the Almighty State. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

This meant that Hugh was likely in the Almighty State as well and her view on him completely changed. Shocked by the power he displayed, she was deeply impressed. Naturally, she did not know that Hugh was Leon.

She was always curious about Leon and impressed by his talent. At this moment, she came to admire Hugh as well apart from Leon. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Chapter 2746

"How did Renee find such a powerful boyfriend? | can't accept this," Aurelia covered her chest and glared resentfully at Renee and Leon.

She repeatedly undermined Hugh because she mistook Hugh for Renee's boyfriend and assumed that he was just a lowly vice president.

She thought that Hugh could not compare to her boyfriend, Bucky, and wanted to embarrass Renee by using Hugh as an excuse.

However, her plan did not work out.

Not only was Hugh extremely wealthy and embarrassed them at the jadeite shop, but he was also an extremely powerful martial artist; even Gaston and two other martial artists in the Almighty state were no match for him.

It was unheard of for someone Loen's age to reach such a high level of accomplishment and the sky was the limit for him.

It was no exaggeration that Hugh surpassed Bucky in every aspect possible and no one in the younger generation could compare with him throughout the entire Sky County.

Unfortunately, such a formidable figure turned out to be the boyfriend of her nemesis, Renee. Instantly, she was devastated. "How can this happen? Is this guy even human?" Bucky's expression darkened.

He thought that Hugh was just a lowly vice president. Since he once pursued Renee, he was jealous that Hugh managed to win Renee over and repeatedly attempted to undermine Hugh.

However, as the conflict escalated, he came to realize that Hugh was in the Almighty State and surpassed him in every aspect.

Instantly, he regretted crossing Hugh. If he knew that Hugh was this formidable, he would not have crossed him and ended up getting defeated alongside his family.

Gaston and the two elderly men were devastated as well.

The elderly men once warned Gaston to stop and not make Hugh their enemy, yet he refused to listen to reason and insisted on fighting Hugh.

In the end, Hugh proved himself to be a martial artist in the Almighty State and defeated them all with a single blow. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

The world of martial artists valued strength above all. For Leon to reach the Almighty State at his age, his talent would be unheard of.

In a few years, Hugh would likely be amongst the ranks of the Western Boss or even surpass them. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

It was extremely foolish of him and he regretted what he did. However, it was already too late.

Chapter 2747

While Gaston and the Grimstons regretted their actions, a sneer sounded."

How impressive!"

Felton strode forward with two formidable-looking elderly men, his arm wrapped in thick layers of bandage.

Though the jadeite shop was located in a rather isolated corner and there were not many people since it was still early, the fight between Leon and the Grimstons drew the attention of a lot of passersby.

Many stopped in their tracks to watch them from afar, desperately trying to find out what was going on.

Felton was amongst them as well.

He had some business to take care of and happened upon the scene.

When he saw how Leon managed to defeat two martial artists in the Almighty State, he could not help but step out of the crowd. "Felton Fermer!" Leon's expression darkened.

He was once in a conflict with Felton back at Jaxon's mansion.

Afterward, Felton and the Western Boss sent assassins to ambush him at the hotel, which deepened the grudge between them. Hence, Leon saw no reason to be polite with Felton.

"Hugh, | didn't expect to see you again so soon! Oh wait, | shouldn't call you Hugh. | should be calling you Leon instead. Isn't that right, Chairman Wolf?" Felton said mockingly.

"What?" Both Leon and Renee were taken aback, especially Renee. "Felton, what are you talking about? He's Hugh, not Leon!" she said in confusion.

"I'm not joking! Renee, don't you know this? This guy isn't the vice president of Cynthion Group, Hugh. He is the chairman, Leon Wolf!" Felton scoffed.

Though he heard from the Southern Boss that Hugh was likely Leon, the Southern Boss did not see Hugh in person and it was all just a speculation.

However, upon witnessing Hugh defeating two martial artists in the Almighty State, Felton could tell that Leon was at least in the Almighty State. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Apart from Leon, there could not be another genius in the Cynthion Group. Hence, Felton was certain that Hugh was the chairman, Leon. He exposed Leon in public on purpose to test his theory and see if he was right.

"Felton, are you saying that he is Leon? Am I hearing you right?" Renee could not believe what she heard and gaped at Leon in disbelief. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

"Felton, how did you find out about my identity?" Leon, too, was shocked.

Hugo was the only person who knew he was Leon, so he could not figure out how Felton found out about it and was caught by surprise. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Chapter 2748

"Hugh, are you Leon Wolf?" Renee was stunned.

Hugh's question indirectly confirmed that he was Leon.

Amid her shock, everything seemed to make sense now.

Hugh was the mysterious hero she had longed to meet all along.

"Well, yeah, I'm Leon," Leon said awkwardly.

Since Felton exposed his identity, he saw no point in lying and admitted it.

He used Hugh as his name in front of Renee and he dodged the subject whenever she asked him about Leon, so he was deceiving Renee all along and he felt slightly awkward about it.

"| see! It's no wonder that you're so formidable! | should've known that you're Leon!" Renee said. She was quite confused as to how a mere vice president could pull out such a large sum of cash to purchase herbs and jadeites. On top of that, his strength was unmeasured, and even Gaston and his men were no match for Leon.

Upon learning that Hugh was Leon, the chairman of Cynthion Group, realization dawned on her and she finally realized why he was so formidable.

She was quite displeased that he hid his identity. However, she was quite curious about Leon.

Harboring admiration for his talent and strength, she always wanted to meet Leon.

Instantly, she could not decide if she should be excited or angry about his deception, so she shot him a conflicted glance. "So you're Leon!" Felton sneered coldly.

"Felton, how do you know that I'm Leon? Who told you that?" Leon glared coldly at Felton.

"Well," Felton was instantly rendered speechless.

He learned about Leon's true identity from the Southern Boss. However, the Southern Boss was currently wanted by the Dragon Corps and he could not possibly mention the Southern Boss in front of Leon.

"Could it be that?" Realization dawned on Leon when he saw the hesitant look on Felton's face.

Cynthion Group just started operating in the southern region and its name was hardly heard of in the western region. Apart from Hugo, not many knew about him and the Cynthion Group.

However, there was one exception: the Southern Boss, who fled to the western region.

The Southern Boss knew quite a lot about him and Leon predicted that the Southern Boss was likely linked to the Western Boss and the Farmers.

Since Felton managed to expose his true identity, Leon immediately concluded that Felton probably learned about this from the Southern Boss. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

This seemed to be the only reasonable explanation. "Looks like I guessed right!" Leon narrowed his eyes sharply. He long suspected that the Southern Boss was linked to the Western Boss.

Now that Felton exposed his true identity out of the blue, Leon became more certain that the Western Boss and Felton knew where the Southern Boss was. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

The Southern Boss may very well be hiding with the Farmers.

This was great news for Leon as he now knew where to search for the Southern Boss.

It was right of him to get Mister Orpwood to keep an eye on the Farmers.

The only drawback was that the Southern Boss found out that Leon was in the western region.

The Southern Boss was surely alarmed and would only be more careful about hiding his track from now on. This meant that Leon would have to act more carefully as well if he wished to draw the Southern Boss out. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Chapter 2749

"Mister Grimston, why are you still standing there?" Felton was not in the mood to chat with Leon and took the opportunity of Leon's thoughtful state to wink at the Grimstons.

Though the Farmers and Grimstons were not close, an enemy of an enemy was a friend.

Felton refused to let Leon show off his strength and stood forward in time to cause trouble for Leon. Helping the Grimstons may be proven to be useful at some point.

"Oh, sure!" The Grimstons snapped out of it and after taking a moment to rest, they felt slightly better. They gritted through the pain and stumbled to get up. "Let's go!" Gaston said.

The two almighty martial artists grabbed the arms of Bucky and Aurelia, before darting away to prevent Leon from coming after them.

"Running? Not so soon!" Leon narrowed his eyes coldly.

Though he injured the Grimstons with Hurricane Break earlier, their arrogance provoked him.

He did not get the chance to settle the scores because Felton got involved, but there was no way that he would let them escape. Leon took a step forward and prepared to go after the Grimstons.

"Apostles, stop him!" Felton reacted swiftly and ordered the two older men behind him.

"Yes!" They leaped into the air and stood before Leon, each launching a powerful attack at him to stop him on his track.

"The Intermediate Almighty state!" Leon was taken aback and instantly realized that they were in the Intermediate Almighty State.

Their power was enough to break past the defense of the Mirror of Sovereign.

Not daring to take the blow head-on, he launched the Phantom Steps and swiftly dodged their attack. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

He was then forced to back away to where he was standing.

The Grimstons ran and Gaston shouted his gratitude at Felton, before disappearing. "Mister Fermer, thank you for your help! We won't forget this. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

See you around!" After stopping Leon, the Apostles did not continue to attack and returned to Felton's side.

Leon's expression darkened as he watched the retreating figures of the Grimstons. He then turned to glare sharply at Felton. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Chapter 2750

"Felton, are you that determined to make me your enemy?" Leon said coldly.

He was yet to find the time to retaliate when the Western Boss and Felton sent someone to the hotel to attack him. Now, Felton's actions escalated further and he was causing trouble for Leon in any way he could.

It was far out of line and Leon developed a hint of malicious intent toward Felton.

"So what if I am?" Felton raised an eyebrow proudly.

"Very well. You asked for this. Since you have a death wish, I'll grant you your wish. Let's settle our scores!" Leon laughed angrily, enraged by Felton's attitude.

"Like you can do anything to me. What a joke! Leon, you may be powerful and unrivaled in the younger generation, but the Apostles with me are both in the Intermediate Almighty State! I'm excited to see how you are going to fight them!'" Felton sneered.

He saw the fight between Leon and the Grimstons and knew that Leon was likely in the Almighty State, which meant that Leon was a formidable opponent.

Thankfully, the two men he brought along were two of the Five Apostles who worked for the Western Boss and they were both in the Intermediate Almighty state.

With their power, Leon would fall short unless he was already in the Advanced Almighty State.

Throughout the entire Sky County, even the most powerful martial artists like Caleb and the Western Boss were in the Advanced Almighty State at most, with people in the central region being the sole exception.

Leon was not even thirty and Felton did not think that he could reach the Advanced Almighty State. It would be unrealistic to think Leon could accomplish such a thing as he would be unrivaled if that were true.

Hence, Leon was likely just in the Initial Almighty State and could not possibly be in the Intermediate Almighty State. If that was the case, he would not even manage to defeat one of the Apostles, let alone fight both of them at once.

Felton was confident that the two Apostles were enough to defeat Leon and dared to act arrogantly.

"Sir, that may not be appropriate. Western Boss has told US that we shouldn't cause any trouble while he's training," Both the Apostles were shocked and lowered their voices to remind Felton.

The Western Boss left all family matters in Felton's hands during the time of his training. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Still, he felt uneasy and told the Five Apostles to keep Felton in check and prevent him from causing trouble, especially to prevent him from crossing Leon. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

However, that seemed to be precisely what happened. Felton happened upon Leon and the two immediately got into a conflict.

Judging from Felton's attitude, it seemed as though he completely forgot about the Western Boss's words. The content is on noveldrama.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Hence, they decided to remind Felton in the hope that he would let it go.
