

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2856-“Yeah, I know! Leon is a rather creepy kid! still, as tricky as this may be, he is just a brat. Considering our influence, we can easily destroy him!” The Western Boss sneered and narrowed his eyes sharply.

Leon was too young and had no connections in the western region. Hence, he underestimated Leon and did not see him as a threat.

However, Leon displayed unexpected skills and the Western Boss was too busy with training to deal with him. Therefore, he decided to go easy on Leon for the time being.

Now that he completed his training, it was time for him to deal with Leon.

“Yeah, that’s right. Leon is in the Initial Almighty State at most, so he can’t do much to us! Dad, how about this? Since the sales drive hasn’t occurred, we can send a few skilled martial artists to ambush and capture him today to obtain Cynthion Group! That will ensure we succeed!” Felton said.

Outside the jadeite shop, Leon once got into a conflict with Bucky and the Grimston and injured two martial artists in the Initial Almighty State by himself.

According to Leon’s speed and explosive power, he and the Apostles could tell that Leon was likely in the Initial Almighty State.

Given his age, it was a wonder that he managed to reach the Almighty State and Felton had to admit that Leon was truly talented.

Still, the Fermers were one of the most powerful families in the western region.

Countless formidable martial artists under them were in the Initial and Intermediate Almighty States.

Hence, Loen could not possibly rival them.

So long as the Western Boss sent two to three martial artists in the Intermediate Almighty State to ambush Leon, they could surely capture Leon and take Cynthion Group from him.

That way, all issues would be resolved.

Once the Dragon Guards got involved, they may not cause any severe damage to the Farmers but would surely cause considerable trouble.

This was hardly what the Western Boss wanted.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2857-“What should we do then?” Felton said with displeasure.

“Since we can’t do this in secret, let’s face it head-on! I’ve already reached the Peak Almighty State and Elder Morrison is no match for me now. Even if Leon partners with the Morrisons, we have nothing to fear from him. During tomorrow’s sales drive, I’ll face Leon myself and show him the consequences of crossing the Farmers,” the Western Boss said maliciously.

The world of martial artists was unique and personal duels were often tolerated by the Dragon Corps.

Since Leon once injured Felton, the Western Boss could use this as an excuse to retaliate.

So long as they had a legitimate reason, the Dragon Corps would not interfere.

Hence, this was a better option than assassinating Leon.

Apart from that, the Morrisons were always in the Formers’ way of ruling over the western region.

However, the Morrisons were more powerful than the Formers and the Western Boss could only refrain from declaring war against the Morrisons in the past years.

At that moment, the circumstances changed.

He surpassed Caleb and reached the Peak Almighty State.

Western Boss.

If Caleb and the Morrisons tried to aid Leon, the Western Boss could take that opportunity to injure or disable Caleb.

Caleb was the leader of the Morrisons both physically and spiritually. Once he was injured or disabled, the Morrisons would decline.

That way, the Western Boss could take them down and his dream of ruling over the western region would come true soon.

This was a plan that could eliminate Leon, rob him of the Cynthion Group, and also destroy the Morrisons.

“Wonderful! That’s a wonderful plan!” Felton was overjoyed and instantly realized that the Western boss’s plan was far wiser than his.

However, the Southern BOSS chimed in the next instant, “No! Western Boss, you can’t execute that plan!” “No? Why not?” The Western Boss turned to the Southern Boss in confusion.

“Western Boss, forgive me for being blunt. Leon is cunning and more formidable than you imagine. It would be challenging to take on both him and the Morrisons at the same time,” the Southern BOSS reminded.

Unlike the Western Boss who did not know much about Leon and looked down on Leon, the Southern Boss dared not to underestimate Leon.

He did not forget about that yet.

Even now, he still felt a chill down his spine when he recalled the almighty Potential Energy Force.

The Morrisons were the head of all-powerful families, so they had great influence and power.

Apart from Caleb, there were plenty of martial artists in the Initial and Intermediate Almighty States amongst the Morrisons.

If the Western Boss tried to defeat Leon and the Morrisons, he would be digging his own grave and the Southern Boss could not stand idly by.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2858-“How powerful can a brat be? Southern Boss, are you scared of Leon?” The Western Boss smirked mockingly.

When he sent his men to target Leon, the Southern Boss insisted that Leon was formidable and stopped him repeatedly.

Even now, the Southern Boss still insisted that Leon was more powerful than they were.

The Western Boss simply could not understand why someone as formidable as the Southern Boss would fear Leon.

“I-” The Southern Boss’s face flushed and he was instantly rendered speechless.

When he fought Leon, he could tell that the Potential Energy Force Leon wielded reached the level of the Semi-Saint State or above.

Even if he and the Western Boss reached the Peak Almighty state, they may not be able to fend off the Potential Energy Force.

Out of consideration for the bigger picture, he could not inform the Western Boss about the Potential Energy Force.

He sacrificed half the Rainbow Flower and half a Sunlit Herb to get the Western Boss to the Peak Almighty State because he needed the Western Boss’s help to get rid of Leon and rescue Rodney.

If he informs the Western Boss about the Potential Energy Forces, the Western Boss may choose to give up on eliminating Leon out of selfpreservation.

That would leave the Southern Boss with himself to rely on and retaliating against Leon would only be more challenging.

There was no way he would do something so foolish.

“Western Boss, you promised me that you will come to the southern region to rescue Rodney from the Thompsons once you get to the Peak Almighty State!

You haven’t forgotten about it, have you?” The Southern Boss changed the subject.

Though he resented Leon and desperately wanted to get rid of Leon, Leon was formidable and he needed to plan his moves carefully.

At the moment, his priority was rescuing his son, Rodney, from the Thompsons.

Once Rodney was saved, he could work with the Western Boss to eliminate Leon.

“I haven’t forgotten about it. Don’t worry. I won’t break my promise. Once I get rid of Leon tomorrow, I’ll go to the southern region with you!” the Western Boss said.

“No! Tomorrow is the annual meeting hosted by the Dragon Corps! Apart from the central region, all persons in charge of branches from the other four regions will all head toward the central region for the meeting. This is the best opportunity to rescue Rodney and I can’t miss it!” The Southern Boss shook his head.

Since he worked with the Demon Lord, the Southern Boss was currently wanted by the Dragon Corps.

The person in charge of the Dragon Corps in the southern region, Alfred, was already in the Peak Almighty State.

Apart from that, the Thompsons were also the most powerful family in the southern region.

Even with the Western Boss's help, he may not be able to rescue Rodney and retreat safely from the Thompsons and the Dragon Corps.

However, he now had a chance.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2859-“Well,” The Western Boss fell into silence.

Like the Southern Boss, he knew the Dragon Corps quite well.

Upon being reminded by the Southern Boss, he recalled that the Dragon Corps in the central region would be hosting a meeting. Mister Orpwood, Alfred, and the others would all rush to the central region.

Without Alfred there to stop them, it would be much easier to rescue Rodney and this was indeed the best time for him to help the Southern Boss with the rescue.

Therefore, he could not quite argue with his logic.

“Damn it! Leon just happened to choose tomorrow to host his sales drive.

He's one lucky brat!” The Western Boss's expression darkened.

Since the Southern Boss helped him get to the Peak Almighty State, he had to fulfill his promise and rescue Rodney.

Coincidentally, tomorrow was the day when Cynthion Group's sales drive would be hosted. He initially thought of the perfect excuse and intended to eliminate Leon and the Morrisons during the sales drive, before taking Cynthion Group away.

This was the perfect chance for him to take Leon and the Morrisons down.

If he went to the southern region with the Southern Boss tomorrow to rescue Rodney, he would have to give up on his plan and he was reluctant to do so.

“Western Boss, no one’s perfect. As powerful as Leon may be, he has weaknesses and there are plenty of ways we can deal with him. There’s no point in facing him head-on!” the Southern Boss said.

“What do you mean?” the Western Boss asked in confusion.

“It’s simple! Cynthion Group’s base is located in the southern region. Leon’s girlfriend, Iris, and a few of his confidantes all live in the southern region. So long as you come with me to the southern region, we can capture these women after we rescue Rodney and blackmail Leon with them. Not only will we obtain Cynthion Group with ease, but we will also be able to eliminate him once and for all,” the Southern Boss explained.

He did not know if Leon had more Potential Energy Forces, so he dared not to face Leon directly without assurance.

Hence, he objected to the Western Boss’s idea of facing Leon as it was too risky.

He knew how close Leon was with his confidantes and that they were his biggest weaknesses.

This was a more secure plan compared to the Western Boss’s.

Hence, his plan would never work out.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2860-“That’s a great plan as well! Let’s do that, then!” The Western Boss’s eyes lit up and he was convinced by the Southern BOSS.

Though he wanted to take Leon and the Morrisons down to rob them of Cynthion Group during the sales drive tomorrow, the Morrisons were the head of the all-powerful families in the western region. They had great influence and power that rivaled that of the Formers’.

Since he already reached the Peak Almighty State, Caleb would not be a threat to him. However, there were plenty more formidable martial artists amongst the Morrisons.

Leon was cunning and with the protection of the Morrisons, the Western Boss may not be able to capture him alive.

If anything went wrong or Leon escaped, it would only be more challenging to take Cynthion Group away from Leon.

On the contrary, if he followed the Southern Boss's plan and captured Leon's confidantes to blackmail him, it would be easier to eliminate Leon and take Cynthion Group away.

The Westner Boss could immediately tell which plan was better.

"What? No way!" Felton was taken aback.

He was pleased that his father wanted to face and eliminate Leon directly, as this meant he could retaliate against Leon for injuring him.

To his bewilderment, the Southern Boss convinced the Western Boss to change his mind.

This completely caught him off guard.

"Why not?" the Western Boss asked in confusion.

"Well," Felton was rendered speechless.

He knew that the Southern boss's plan was far safer than their plan of facing Leon and the Morrisons directly.

However, this was just what the Southern Boss anticipated.

Leon was no fool and could not possibly be unaware of his weaknesses. Even if they followed the Southern Boss's plan, they may not succeed in capturing Leon's confidantes.

On top of that, even if they managed to capture the women, Leon may not give up on Cynthion Group for the sake of a few women.

At the very least, Felton did not think that would be possible.

If the Southern Boss's plan failed and alerted Leon, it would only be more challenging for the Farmers to eliminate Leon in the future.

They might as well take advantage of the sales drive and face Leon directly instead of working around to eliminate Leon.

After all, this seemed excessive.
