

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2878-“Felton, the Daglehs’s decisions are not up to you to meddle in!” Elder Dagleh said coldly, not showing any favor to Felton.

“In any case, if your three families intend to harm President Wolf, our Daglehs will not stand idly by!” Elder Dagleh continued, his tone firm.

“Elder Dagleh speaks well!” Caleb chimed in promptly. “If you wish to oppress President Wolf, you’ll have to get through both our Morrisons’ Mansion and the Daglehs first!” “You...” Felton exploded in anger, but there was nothing he could do.

“Elder Dagleh, Caleb, you two don’t need to be so arrogant!” Dorian sneered.

“Even if your two families protect Leon by force, so what? Our situation is two against three. Do you think your two families stand a chance?”

Though Leon had the support of the Morrisons and Daglehs, they were up against a coalition of three major powers.

That was not all!

Due to the lack of preparation from the Morrisons and Daglehs, Caleb only brought two elder members and some mid-level experts from the Morrisons’ Mansion to ensure the security and order of the Cynthion Group’s sales conference.

As for Elder Dagleh, he brought only a few Daglehs experts to attend the Cynthion Group’s sales conference!

In contrast, the Grimstons, Underwoods, and Fermers were well-prepared in advance.

The experts they mobilized were all elite members of their respective families, with strengths at least reaching the Semi Almighty state, and some even reaching the pinnacle of early or mid-stage Almighties!

Such a formidable lineup was beyond what the Morrisons and Daglehs could match.

Both in terms of numbers and strength, it was clear who was stronger and who was weaker at a glance. There was no comparison whatsoever!

“Umm...” Caleb fell silent, at a loss for words. He knew that what Dorian said was true.

The Daglehs, the Grimstons, and the Underwoods were all powerful clans of the same level. The cultivation of Elder Dagleh was more or less on par with both Dorian and Cassius!

In a direct confrontation, Elder Dagleh could at most handle one of either Dorian or Cassius. Moreover, with the few skilled individuals from the Daglehs present, they would not be of much help!

Even with the support of the Daglehs, the Morrisons' Mansion and the Daglehs together would never have the ability to rival the Grimstons, the Underwoods, and the Farmers – the three major forces! Unless a miracle occurred!

“That’s not necessarily true,” Elder Dagleh retorted. “Dorian, even though our sides are three against two, your side holds the advantage in numbers! But in terms of strength, Caleb and I might not necessarily lose to you!”

With a disdainful snort, Elder Dagleh released a surge of powerful true energy at the Intermediate Almighty State, immediately pressuring Dorian, Cassius, and Felton.

Especially Dorian and Cassius. As heads of powerful clans, their cultivation had reached the Intermediate Almighty state many years ago!

This was simply unbelievable!

If they had not seen it with their own eyes, they wouldn’t dare believe it was real!”

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2879-“Elder Dagleh, I never expected your cultivation to break through to the “Fantastic, absolutely fantastic!” replied another.

While Dorian and Cassius, the two elders, reacted with some difference, Caleb, the old master, was overjoyed beyond measure.

Intermediate Almighty State was merely a small step in the realm of martial cultivation, each level-up represented a qualitative leap in strength.

three in the Intermediate state.

profound prowess and standing out even among his peers, the combination of his and the old master's formidable abilities could bridge the gap between their families and the Grimstons, Underwoods, and Farmers.

With their strength, it became uncertain who held the upper hand.

"How is this possible..." "Elder Daglesh, how did you suddenly advance to the Once the shock subsided, Dorian and Cassius wore expressions of disbelief, as if a storm had surged within them, leaving them unable to calm their thoughts.

As far as they knew, Elder Daglesh's cultivation had remained at the Intermediate state, just like theirs. But now, with Elder Daglesh nearing the twilight of his years and his physical condition not showing any signs of State was nothing short of miraculous.

"Exactly!" "Elder Daglesh, could you please enlighten US on how you managed Meanwhile, among the onlookers comprising various ancient martial arts families and factions, there were several elder warriors at the Intermediate Almighty State. Each of them looked at Elder Daglesh with faces full of astonishment, their eyes shining with fervor!

Clearly, their thoughts were similar to those of Dorian and Cassius. They could Almighty State.

Furthermore, due to their advanced age and declining physical functions, breaking through the martial bottleneck of the Intermediate Almighty State was extremely difficult for them!

If Elder Daglesh was willing to share the method of breakthrough with them, they might be able to emulate his approach and help themselves break through This was their greatest wish and dream in martial arts for many years!

“It wouldn’t hurt to tell you!” Elder Daglesh said lightly. “A few days ago, it was State!”

As he spoke, he could not help but cast a grateful glance at Leon!

“What?” As Elder Daglesh’s words came out, the entire audience was shocked, their jaws almost dropping to the ground!

This was simply unbelievable!

For a moment, the extent of their shock was unimaginable!

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2880-“It’s no wonder Elder Daglesh was willing to risk going against the three major powers just to shelter Leon!” “Ah, I see.” “Yeah, who would’ve thought Leon, a young nobody, would have the ability to assist an Intermediate Almighty state master in breaking through the martial arts bottleneck!” “His methods are indeed remarkable!”

After the shock wore off, the crowd erupted into chatter. Previously, they were puzzled as to why the Dagleshs would stick their neck out for Leon, who had no ties to them. But now, it all made sense.

State!

Of course, that was not the main point. What astounded them was the unheard of feat of aiding a martial artist in advancing their cultivation, especially assisting a master at the Warlord level in breaking through the martial arts bottleneck.

Leon accomplishing this was nothing short of a miracle!

However, that’s not all. Among the various ancient martial families attending the Cynthion Group’s sales event, there were significant factions like the Dagleshs and Underwoods.

Take, for instance, the Rathbournes and Cades who initially rushed to collaborate with Leon at the hotel!

The heads of these major family forces and some elder figures within their clans had already reached the Intermediate Almighty State. Yet for years, they Now, opportunity knocked!

Since Leon could assist Elder Daglesh in breaking through the martial arts bottleneck, it was highly likely he could help them elevate their cultivation from With a single thought, their spirits immediately lifted, each of them looking eagerly at Leon in the center of the scene, their gazes as fervent as fire. It was as if they regarded Leon as a treasure, wishing for him to help them break through their current martial arts bottlenecks!

However, aiding martial artists in breaking through martial arts bottlenecks was too miraculous a thing!

Even if they racked their brains, they could guess that Leon must have paid a since they were not related to Leon, he could not just casually help them break through their martial arts bottlenecks!

They could not help but feel regretful about this, but they were helpless!

“Oh no!” “This is bad...”

Seeing this scene, Dorian, Cassius, and Felton’s expressions changed drastically, their moods instantly sinking! Especially Felton.

Initially, he thought that by teaming up with the Grimstons and Underwoods to deal with Leon, they could definitely resolve the Morrisons’ Mansion and then easily capture Leon alive.

However, now, reality was far from his imagination, cruel indeed!

With Caleb and Elder Daglesh both protecting Leon, it would undoubtedly become much more difficult for him and the others to deal with Leon!

Many of the seniors from these prominent families and forces held Leon in high regard, even considering him a ‘treasure’!

If he and the others continued to confront Leon, these prominent families and forces might come forward to protect Leon in order to befriend him.
