

Even After Death by Lilting Champ Chapter 1619

Even After Death by Lilting Champ Chapter 1619-Jacqueline was slightly surprised as she thought that she had hidden the truth well.

But Olivia had long known of the truth, including Jacqueline's face.

Olivia tossed a stack of documents about Jacqueline's plastic surgery records.

"You're a dedicated one, aren't you? You underwent so many plastic surgeries since you were young until your face finally looks like mine.

"But the fake can never be real. No matter how many times you fix your face, you can never be the real me. The same goes for your identity. Regardless of how hard you work for it, it's fake." "Since when did you find out?" "I don't mind telling you this. If it weren't for the chaos in the Fordham family and the revelation that Dad's not Mr. Douglas' biological son, I would never have known.

You almost deceived me.

"Jacqueline Fordham, have you never regretted the things you did to them? "

Olivia slowly marched toward Jacqueline, getting closer and closer. "You tried to kill me again and again. And you killed my closest people. I barely saved my babies when I was pregnant!"

Troy shouted, "What about my hands, Sean's legs, and Quinn! How are you going to atone for your sins?"

Sean was so upset. "Jacqueline Fordham, even though you're not our biological sister, we treated you like family since you were young. We gave you everything you wanted. We grew up together, but how could you do this? Did you kill Quinn?"

Jacqueline discarded the cigarette and let out a bitter smile. "What's the use of saying all this? The winner ascends to the throne while the loser must be ousted. I've lost."

"You have to tell US what happened to Quinn! We don't know a thing about her death. Were you involved in it?"

"I was. If you want to blame someone, blame her for being too kind. She trusted people way too easily. She was definitely the type to be blinded by love. Who else should I deceive if not her? She chose to elope with him, and I simply gave her a plan.

"I didn't expect her to be that stupid. She abandoned her family just for a man.

Someone as stupid as her had it coming.”

Sean slapped her right in the face without holding himself back. “You witch!

Looking at his healed legs, Jacqueline beamed. “Don’t think so highly of yourself. You lied to me too. Your legs recovered a long time ago. I was just one step behind-no-God chose not to be on my side! I planned this for so many years, and I was almost there!”

This time, it was David who slapped her. “You haven’t repented, hug m You’re not gne of the family, but ask.

yourself, have we ever treated you wrongly all these years?

“Our family business is massive. As long as you didn’t hurt anyone, we could’ve accepted you. But yoy ghose to hurt US and lolame others. How preposterous!” “Dad, do you think I had other options? She brainwashed me ever since I could remember. If I didn’t do as she said, I would’ve died!”

Jacqueline barked.

She stood up and pointed at Olivia’s nose. “You’re Ms. Fordham and what am I?

“ might’ve taken your place for many years, but Jeff gave you all his love.

You’re still that loved Ms. Fordham!

You’ve even met a man who loves you.

But what about me? What do I have?

I’m someone who should’ve died in the mountains for being born as a girl!

“Deborah is a psychopath. She’s obsessive. I was just a child. What choice did I have? You guys are so self-conceited! Have you ever tried to understand my pain?”

Even After Death by Lilting Champ Chapter 1620-Jacqueline thought that she had enough reasons to justify her decisions.

She was even crying! “I’m not like you. I wasn’t born to be a loved princess.

Women from rural areas like me have to work our asses off unless we want to live in hell.

“Many of them were sold off to single old men by their parents before they turned adults. They became a tool to give birth to babies. Deborah gave me a new life, and I followed her orders. That was the only way for me to survive!

“On the other hand, you guys were born to be the winners in life. You don't have to lift a finger to own everything. But me? What can I do?”

Olivia growled, “You're still making excuses to clean your name. So calculative and pretentious despite your young age. How ridiculous. The family you're born into shouldn't be the reason to justify your actions. You can't gloss over all the things you did to me in the past!”

Two years ago, Olivia found out why she was at the last stage of cancer at such a young age. Cancer cells couldn't be formed overnight.

They also needed a certain environment to be formed.

Since young, Jeff had pampered her with love and care. After their family announced bankruptcy, she worked hard.

It was a rough patch, but her condition shouldn't have deteriorated that quickly in such a short period.

That left her with one answer.

She was drugged with carcinogenic drugs a long time ago.

The change in her marriage life was merely the fuse to the turn in her life.

If she had gone for a check-up sooner, she would've been able to notice it earlier on.

However, Olivia's family happened to fall from grace at that time. Jeff's medical bills alone were enough to have her busy with work.

There was no time for her to go for a medical check-up.

Jacqueline thought that Olivia would die quietly due to cancer. That was the best way to kill someone. No one would smell the rat.

Even Olivia herself didn't think that it was a conspiracy. She simply assumed that it was her bad luck or Ethan's fault.

Yet, Jacqueline was surprised to know how lucky Olivia was. Olivia was clearly on the brink of death, but she didn't die! i That was when Jacqueline orchestrated the following events, including the assassination attempts.

However, Lady Luck smiled upon Olivia. She was able to live until today, and her condition was getting better!

Jacqueline regretted it.

She glared at Olivia. "This is so unfair. You were so close to death! Looks like I don't have the chance to be a winner in life. Just kill me."

Everything was written in the stars. If Jacqueline hadn't done so many things, Olivia might've not looked into her true identity.

"Kill you? No way."

Jacqueline's hands were stained with blood. It would be doing her a favor to exterminate her.

"I'm going to return the favor many times fold. My adoptive fathen, m Mona. Ra you know how painful it was to live with cancer?"

The thought of Jeff, Mona, and her painful past suffocated Olivia.

Noticing that Olivia was shaking in.

anger, Linus quickly stepped forward to hold her shoulders."

"Calm down, Olivia. It's in the past."

Only then did she withdraw herself from her painful memories.

"Uncle Linus," she murmured in a hoarse voice.

He hugged her. "It's alright. Everything's in the past now." i Her body was trembling uncontrollably.

She finally found the mastermind!
