

Chapter 1082 Asho's Anger

Trevor got up from the floor, stretched out his hand, and pulled the crying Bess up.

Asho felt so sorry for Bess that he hurriedly asked if she had any injury.

"Don't worry. We are both unharmed. But it's better if you take Bess to the hospital for a checkup just in case," Trevor said.

Asho clenched his fists tightly and said angrily, "How could this accident happen? Where are the prop men? Where is the team in charge of the props? Didn't you check the steel wires before the shooting?"

Trevor explained, "The problem is not with the staff. It's Kabir and Wilbert. The father and son contacted our makeup artist, Clarinda, to tamper with the wire. They wanted an accident to happen to the actors and would spread scandals to slow down the shooting progress."

This move could be considered sinister. They did not even take other people's lives seriously at all.

"Kabir! Wilbert!" As a father, Asho cared for Bess so much. He was so angry that he called the two men's names through clenched teeth. "Bastards! I'm not done with you yet!"

Trevor decided to tell Asho the truth. "It was me who got Bess into trouble. I have some conflicts with Kabir and Wilbert."

However, Asho shook his head and said gloomily, "It's not just about the conflict between you and them now. Those two bastards put my daughter's life in danger. As a father, I can't just sit idly by and do nothing."

After saying this, Asho took Bess to the hospital. On the way, he contacted a large number of people in the industry to jointly ban Kabir and Wilbert.

Asho was an internationally renowned director, so he had a wide range of connections in the industry. His reputation alone was enough to create great fluctuation in the entertainment industry.

At this moment, Kabir and Wilbert were celebrating, not knowing that a storm was coming to them.

Kabir sat on a sofa in the living room, taking a sip of wine and smiling happily. He said to Wilbert, "Our plan is flawless. Levi will not find anything. When something happens on the set, everyone will think it's purely an accident."

Wilbert nodded joyfully. "Yes, that's right! Even if they think it's odd, they won't guess it was us. Or even if someone guesses it right, they can't prove it."

Kabir shook the glass in his hand leisurely, smiled, and said, "We only need to do it a few more times, then their small company will not hold on. And the crew will be disbanded automatically. I want to see how they make a movie."

Wilbert laughed and patted his thigh. "By that time, Levi can only come to us and beg. Dad, isn't it a great plan?"

However, when they were about to continue their celebration, there was a sudden phone call.

Kabir looked at the screen and said happily, "Ha-ha! It's from the Film and Television Association. Today is a lucky day. Good things come together. They must be calling to inform me that my work has been nominated."

He then answered the phone happily. But much to his surprise, what he heard from the other end of the line was a cold voice.

"Kabir Larson, I am calling to inform you that your work has been canceled from the selection of this award."

After saying this, the man hung up the phone quickly without even giving Kabir a chance to react.

The smile on Kabir's face froze. He was not able to react for a long time.

When he finally came back to his senses, he shouted, "What the hell!" He then stood up from the sofa, ignoring the wine that spilled on his body. "Why did they cancel my nomination?"

At this moment, Wilbert looked at the information on the Internet on his phone. And he couldn't help sweating profusely.

He walked to Kabir and showed his phone. "Dad, look at this." His voice trembled when he spoke, and his face was pale and full of horror.

Kabir grabbed the phone from Wilbert and quickly looked through the information.

And he was stunned by what he read. Just now, several significant stars declared on the Internet that they refused to cooperate with Kabir in the future.

Even all forms of media were criticizing him at the moment.

"How can this be?" Kabir was so desperate that he cried out loud.

Not long after, another short video was uploaded online.

In the video, Clarinda apologized with tears in her eyes. She confessed that Kabir asked her to damage the steel wire and delay the shooting progress.

In just a few minutes after the video was released, the comments had already reached tens of thousands, which were all cursing Kabir.

After half a day, Kabir and Wilbert's reputation was destroyed. And even Wilbert's previous scandals were dug out again.

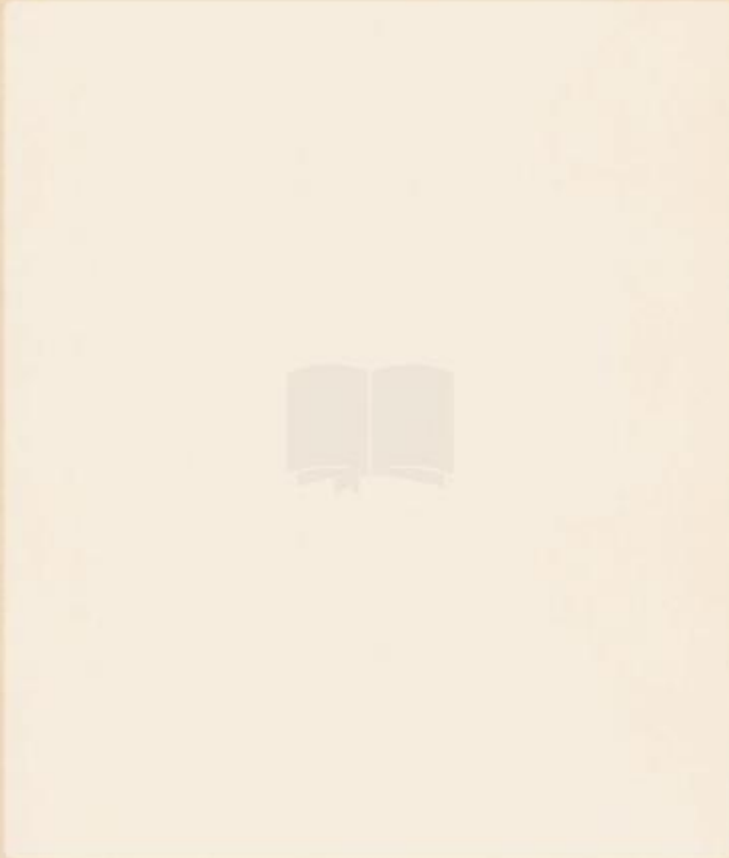

Even Caitlin from Star Film and Television Company panicked when she received the news. She shouted, "Hurry! Go and cut our connection with Kabir and Wilbert. Sever all ties between our company and them. Then issue a statement that we have terminated all our contracts with them. Announce that the new movie has nothing to do with them."

The statement issued by the Sanderson family was like the last straw.

Kabir and Wilbert both slumped to the floor with desperate looks on their faces. It was as if they were facing the end of the world.

Our ads aim to provide better support for authors.

Chapter 1083 Domineering Sanderson Family

Caitlin quickly issued a statement that she had nothing to do with Kabir and Wilbert.

Unfortunately, this resulted in a less-than-desirable outcome.

To get back at Trevor, Caitlin had spread the word about Star Film and Television Company's upcoming release. Many people had an impression of it.

Now that Asho had taken his vengeance on Kabir, Star Film and Television Company was also targeted by an onslaught of online criticism.

Even Xzavier heard it and found his daughter, Caitlin.

"Caitlin Sanderson! What are you doing? You made a terrible mistake. Now, people are attacking our company on the Internet. Even my business partners contacted me to ask about it. Do you want me to lock you up again?"

Caitlin was startled to hear her father use her full name and said with a pout, "Listen to me, Dad. This is because of Levi. He looked down upon me, a Sanderson! I was so angry that I wanted to punish him. Who knows that he is so powerful?"

Xzavier listened patiently to his daughter's story before asking with a frown, "So, this matter was done by Levi?"

Caitlin nodded and said firmly, "Yes. He must have done it."

"Well, I see," Xzavier replied.

Of course, Xzavier was well aware that his daughter was bossy and domineering. He also guessed that Caitlin probably provoked Levi, so

Levi took revenge on her.

Though he now knew the truth, Xzavier still thought Levi was too arrogant.

Since Levi dared to offend the Sanderson family, he deserved to be punished.

"To put it bluntly, I have no trouble killing someone like Levi. His company isn't that big. He is not even worth mentioning," Xzavier said coldly.

Caitlin, being the spoiled brat she was, said, "I'm preparing a new movie now. I want Nyomi, our most famous female celebrity, to play the heroine. This way, my new movie will easily beat the one produced by Levi's mediocre company."

At the mention of Nyomi's name, the most popular celebrity of Star Film and Television Company, Xzavier's face froze.

He turned away and cleared his throat.

"Well, let's talk about it later. There are other things I need to do. Nyomi has a hectic schedule. Clearly, she is a busy woman."

Although a little disappointed, Caitlin sighed in relief.

Her father didn't seem to have the plan to lock her up anymore and would help her teach Levi a lesson instead.

For sure, Levi would be doomed.

On the other hand, Trevor and Asho managed to deal with Kabir and Wilbert and get rid of any potential threats that could have been hiding within the crew. The following shooting went off without a hitch.

Some days later, an elated Asho said, "We have wrapped up this part of shooting. You have been putting in some hard work recently."

Trevor, who was also delighted, took the opportunity to say, "In that case, I'll treat you all to dinner."

All employees showed their gratitude by applauding enthusiastically.

The male lead, Lloyd, only nodded his head indifferently.

He accepted the role for Asho's sake, but he was still proud of himself.

Trevor was a producer, but Lloyd did not think he was ready for the role because of his age.

Some crew members said Trevor rescued Bess when the wire broke and she fell to the ground.

At that time, Lloyd wasn't there, so he thought the crew members were just exaggerating.

Sitting in the car, Lloyd showed his cold attitude toward Trevor.

Lloyd did not seem interested in engaging Trevor in conversation.

Some doubt remained inside him.

As far as he was concerned, Sky Film and Television Company was a newly established small company. He guessed the restaurant they were going to was a small one.

However, after getting out of the car, Lloyd saw that the restaurant where Trevor was going to keep them entertained was the finest in all of Barlowtown.

"Wellbeach Hotel!" Surprise was written all over Lloyd's face. "As far as I know, the restaurant in this hotel is expensive."

Lloyd's attention was finally drawn to Trevor. There was something odd about the young producer standing before him.