

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3295-Camryn stopped and looked around to make sure there was no one around, then put her arms around Callum's neck and kissed him on the lips.

As soon as she came back, she wanted to give Callum a deep kiss. But not long after entering the house, Trenton followed her in, so she couldn't do that.

Callum thought more about it than she did, so she immediately hugged her back and deepened the kiss.

After the deep kiss, Callum whispered in her ear, "Honey, what I'm not satisfied with is that I just asked for some dessert before the meal."

"Trenton is at home. Let's talk in the evening." Camryn said softly.

"He is at home, and he will not break into our room. When we return to the house later, if he is on the first floor, we will go upstairs. When he goes upstairs, we will lock the door. He is very sensible and will not follow suit. Just come and knock on the door. I can't wait until night; I'm starving to death."

Camryn: "..."

She pushed him away with a blushing face and walked forward. The cold wind blew away some of the heat on her face.

Callum knew that she was shy, so he laughed softly twice, raised his feet, and followed her. As he walked, he said, "Is there no news about your sister yet?"

Camryn said, "No, I don't know where she went. I searched many places but couldn't find her. The phone can get through, but it doesn't answer. She turned off the location of her phone, and her whereabouts cannot be determined through the location of her phone."

Callum asked, "Do you need my help to look for it?"

"No, nothing will happen to her. Trenton is back. Let Trenton contact her." Camryn was not worried about Carrie; she just wanted to find evidence to prove that Carrie and Mrs. Labbe were the same person. "When I call her, she won't answer the phone. Unless she wants to quarrel with me and Trenton contacts her, she will answer the phone."

Carrie hated her. If she didn't want to quarrel, she wouldn't answer her call.

“Well, don’t worry about her.” Callum hated Carrie very much, especially when he found out that Mrs. Newman had even thought of bringing him and Carrie together. He felt disgusted.

He didn’t even want to look at a girl like Carrie. He also couldn’t look into the eyes of his family’s elders.

The elders were very open-minded and didn’t care much about their personal affairs. The real reason was that since grandma helped them choose a wife, his parents didn’t have to worry about it. They all believed in grandma’s vision.

Perhaps only Evan was unable to follow Grandma May’s route.

After all, Evan was Callum’s biological brother. Callum was always paying attention to Evan’s affairs. He knew that Evan had gone back to the villa to find his grandma and have a showdown with her. He tried hard for several months but still couldn’t fall in love with Abby.

Grandma May didn’t want to care about him anymore.

She hoped, Evan would not regret it in the future.

They all complied with Grandma May’s wishes in order to get closer to the girl she liked. Now, they are all very happy.

Callum felt that Evan would regret it in the future.

Camryn said, “Trenton is probably going to visit the prison tomorrow. Callum, do you think I should accompany him?”

Callum said, “If you want to go, go and see. If you don’t want to go, don’t go. Although they are your relatives, what they do to you is not close to your relatives at all. They are more cruel than enemies. But if you go to see them, it will probably put them in a bad mood.”

Mr. Newman and his wife had already received the punishment they deserved. They were all sentenced severely. Even if their sentences can be reduced through reform, they will be in their 70s or 80s when they come out. Moreover, by that time, Camryn’s wings had already hardened, and it was not their fault.

Camryn saw the light again. After marrying a good husband like him, life would only get better and better. Mr. Newman and his wife would only be half angry to death when they knew about Camryn’s current situation.

The better Camryn’s life is, the more miserable it is for their daughter.
