

Chapter 1073 Into The Secret Realm

Liam chuckled to himself, knowing Briggs had fallen for his trick.

He put on a worried face and said, "Briggs, Townsend's a high-ranking Primogem Warrior, and his uncle's the big-shot Adamson of the Star Erosion! We can't compete with them at all! Maybe... We should just drop this."

Briggs took the bait immediately.

Liam's reverse psychology lit a fire within Briggs. His face turned red with anger as he shouted, "I don't care who Townsend is! Even if he's the head of the Saint Society, I'll crush him!"

After that, Briggs softened his expression and glanced at Zoya with affection. He then turned to Liam and said, "Kolton, look after your sister. I'll come back for her once I've avenged her."

With that, Briggs didn't waste another second and stormed out.

Laura was stunned to see Briggs leave on his own. She quickly went over to Liam, curious about his smooth manipulation.

"Wow! How did you do that? What did you tell Briggs

"Wow! How did you do that? What did you tell Briggs to get him to leave just like that?" she asked.

Liam just smiled at her questions.

As Laura kept asking, Liam smirked and said, "Relax. He won't be bothering us for a while."

Liam's grin grew wider as he pictured the moment when Briggs and Townsend would have a fight.

The following day, Leif gathered everyone and led the team to dive into the sea.

Being Primogem Warriors, they could stay underwater without a problem for a short while.

Their underwater journey was uneventful.

They swam all the way down to the bottom of the ocean, where they came across a gate that looked like something out of a dream.

This was the gateway to the maritime secret realm!

Despite the name, the maritime secret realm wasn't an underwater world.

Liam had learned from Carden Jenkins that the realm was crafted from bits of tiny asteroids, creating a carefully controlled, closed-off world.

When Liam arrived at the realm's entrance, he saw everyone else was already there.

This mystical journey was organized by the Saint Society, with five guardians each picking twenty members for their squads.

This setup was because the realm could only handle up to one hundred people at a time.

They had deliberately split into teams of ten to avoid getting scattered inside.

And to make things even more interesting, their starting spots inside the realm would be completely random, so nobody knew what to expect.

Leif and another team leader stepped up to get the keys that would unlock their journey into the mystic realm.

Liam glanced at Laura and signaled her to stick close to him when they entered.

Laura's face became serious. She knew this adventure was no joke. A single slip-up could be deadly!

With the key in hand, Leif led everyone as he used the key to open the doors to the mystic realm.

Leif waved for his team to go in, one by one, holding hands.

Once everyone was inside, the huge doors slowly shut behind them, programmed to reopen only after seven days.
