

Chapter 1025 I'll Send You To Hell

Julie finally accepted the cruel reality when Liam shared the heartbreaking news about Yesenia and Carsen. Overwhelmed with grief, her eyes reddened, and she let out a scream, a clear sign of her despair.

Meanwhile, Shayla, who was just outside, was taken aback by Julie's scream. She knew that was not the sound of pleasure.

She felt puzzled. She had no clue what Liam and Julie were doing in the room.

As soon as Liam noticed Julie on the verge of losing it, he swiftly rose and embraced her. He tenderly soothed her trembling back with gentle pats, offering comfort.

"Julie, I feel your pain. Now that things have reached this point, feeling sad won't change the situation. At this moment, Asher is the only one who might still be alive. It's time to save our son now!"

Tears flowed down Julie's cheeks, yet she knew deep down that Liam was speaking the truth.

She wiped away her tears. Her eyes were red and swollen.

Nevertheless, she held onto her composure and gave

Chapter 1025 I'll Send You To Hell  +120 Points at most a silent nod.

In fact, Liam was also sad.

Noticing Julie had calmed down a little, he got in touch with his crew in Pleeeyson, directing them to arrange people at every crossroad leading into Pleeeyson.

He made sure to have people keeping an eye even at the airport.

If Townsend's people passed through those crossroads and brought Asher to Pleeeyson, Liam's people would surely catch them.

After that, Liam whispered to Julie, "I need to go to Rosefinch Tower now. Townsend's likely behind this. I'm going to make him pay for this!"

Seeing Liam's determination to go to Rosefinch Tower for revenge, Julie stood up and declared firmly, "I'm going with you!"

Glancing at Julie, her eyes filled with hatred, Liam realized she had become a Primogem Warrior, too, ready to witness something significant.

He figured she could handle more now, especially with him by her side to protect her.

Liam consented with a nod.

Julie hurriedly got ready and followed Liam out of the room.

As they stepped outside, they spotted Shayla squatting by the door, listening in on them.

Seeing Liam and Julie, Shayla blushed, feeling extremely embarrassed.

Then, something dawned on her, and she asked, "What's the matter? I heard Julie scream just now. I was terrified. I thought something bad had happened. Are you all right?"

As Shayla brought it up, Liam's expression turned icy once more.

In a low voice, Liam revealed, "Something terrible went down at the Sky Orchid Garden. My people there were massacred. Everyone in the Salem Sky Orchid Garden is dead! The attackers even took away my child with Julie! I have strong suspicions Townsend's behind it. After all, nobody else has a reason to hurt my family except him! Julie and I are determined to take revenge on Townsend at the Rosefinch Tower!"

Upon hearing the bad news, Shayla, who had initially planned to mock Liam and Julie, was instantly taken aback.

Her expression turned serious all of a sudden. After pausing for a moment, Shayla spoke up. "It indeed looks like Townsend's the one behind this! I'll go to Rosefinch Tower with you!"

Liam looked at Shayla. He had full confidence in her strength. After all, despite Townsend being a sixth-level Primogem Warrior, he would be the one

Chapter 1025 I'll Send You To Hell  +120 Points at most confronting Townsend. So Liam didn't decline
Shayla's offer; he nodded.

Then, Liam, Shayla, and Julie headed towards the Rosefinch Tower.

However, upon their arrival, the three discovered that the Rosefinch Tower was empty!

Townsend was nowhere to be found.

Liam's expression quickly turned grim.

Scanning the area, Liam said, "There must be some clues around here!"

After saying that, Liam started searching the Rosefinch Tower. Shayla and Julie did the same.

The three of them searched thoroughly, checking every corner and even browsing through the computer files. After rummaging around for a while,
Liam stumbled upon the sole video in the folder on Townsend's desktop computer.

Liam had no idea what the video contained, but seeing the file made his heart race!

Feeling a bit uneasy, Liam played the video.

The camera was shaky in the video, and there, on the screen, was none other than his child, Asher!

In the video, Asher was huddled in a corner, tears streaming down his little face, consumed by fear.

Chapter 1025 I'll Send You To Hell 🎁 +120 Points at most

Witnessing this, Liam clenched his jaw in frustration. His eyes became red with anger.

Furious, Liam clenched his fists, his knuckles audibly cracking. With a swift motion, he slammed his hand down on the desk, letting out a roar.

"Townsend, I'll send you to hell!"