

Married At First Sight Chapter 3413

Married At First Sight Chapter 3413-Mr. Labbe was silent for a moment, then said, “Your suggestion is good. I will have someone look for someone with a similar body shape and voice to you and make a few human skin masks that look exactly like you, and have them impersonate you and appear with you.”

Carrie said, “As long as we dispel their suspicions, that will be enough.”

She didn’t want the fake Carrie to appear in front of her often. It felt like she was taking advantage of her.

Mr. Labbe: “Don’t worry, I will arrange everything properly.”

How could Mr. Labbe not know what Carrie was thinking?

Mr. Labbe said, “It’s okay. Go back and have a good rest. Your body is your own. It’s up to you whether you take good care of it or not.”

This chess piece, Carrie, would be used for a long time. Mr. Labbe didn’t want Carrie to be too weak to help him because of a miscarriage.

“If a chess piece is no longer useful, it may be a dead end.” Mr. Labbe added gently.

His voice seemed gentle, but when Carrie heard it, it made her feel cold all over.

In her heart, she hated Mr. Labbe to the core, but she didn’t dare to show it at all. She had a miscarriage. Who caused it?

It’s all Mr. Labbe’s fault! From then on, he couldn’t touch her without taking proper contraceptive measures.

Carrie secretly made up her mind not to give in easily. But she forgot that no matter how she struggled and resisted, she was still defiled by Mr. Labbe.

In front of Mr. Labbe, she couldn’t resist at all.

If she does not do what Mr. Labbe wants, she will be threatened and intimidated by him, and her body will be abused by him.

“Mr. Labbe, don’t worry; I will take good care of my body and have a good rest when I get back.” Carrie felt that she had recovered well, but she still felt dizzy occasionally.

The confinement nanny who took care of her said that her body had not recovered yet, and she had to stay in bed for at least half a month and make sure to eat the nutritious meals prepared for her.

She didn't listen.

It was so cold; everyone was running outside.

The confinement nanny said that if she suffered from postpartum illness, she would be the one to bear the consequences.

Who made her run outside in such cold weather?

It was Camryn and Serenity's fault! They were alive and well now.

Carrie had to find trouble with Camryn. Even if it's just a bit of trouble, it will make her feel better.

"I want to go to the Newman family mansion and return as Miss Newman." Carrie said to the two bodyguards.

The bodyguard turned his head and looked at her twice without saying anything.

Carrie took a few deep breaths and said again, "I'm going to the Newman family mansion."

The bodyguard said, "Madam, if you want to go to the Newman family mansion, you have to go back and change your clothes and remove your makeup before you can go."

Carrie stopped talking.

The bodyguard sent her back to the Labbe family villa, and she hurried upstairs to change her clothes, remove her makeup, and restore her appearance to the original. Then she hurried out.

The bodyguard didn't send her off.

She appeared as Carrie, just a poor, rich girl. Why would she have bodyguards to protect her?
