

Married At First Sight Chapter 3370

Married At First Sight Chapter 3370-Marco said, “Yes, this is a big deal. We need mom’s consent. You are mom’s biological daughter, and now you can be independent. When mom retires, you will definitely be the head of the family. As for Liberty, who came from Wiltspoon, even if she has the support of several big families behind her, so what? Those big families are all in Wiltspoon. They just have some business in Jensburg. Can they influence the affairs of the Farrell family?”

So what if she is the descendant of our aunt? My aunt has been dead for decades, and now it is our biological mom who sits in the position of head of the family. If you don’t have the ability, it’s reasonable to return the position of head of the family to our aunt’s descendants. Now that you have the ability, how can you return to the position of head of the family?”

Does Liberty have that ability? So what if she opened a company in Jensburg? No one in our Farrell family is familiar with her. Even when you first came back, no one in the family took you seriously, let alone Liberty. There are many people in the family who are dissatisfied with mom. Can they turn the tables?”

After saying that, Marco muttered again: “Maybe Liberty is also a short-lived ghost; just like my aunt, she died in middle age.”

He sent people to attack Liberty, but unfortunately, they failed. He was afraid of failure, so he arranged for two cars to go, but he still failed.

Kathryn asked coldly, “What did Big Brother say? You said Liberty was a short-lived ghost? Can you read faces? Or did you do something behind our backs?”

Marco immediately said, “No, who told you that I did something to Liberty? She always has a group of bodyguards with her when she goes in and out. It’s hard for me to even get close to her; how could I do anything to her?”

He still felt a little guilty. He was worried that Kathryn would find out.

If Kathryn became suspicious, she would ask Pedro to check on him, and it would be easy to find out.

His connections and influence were not as good as Kathryn’s now.

It was mainly because Pedro came to Kathryn.

Kathryn looked at Marco steadily.

Marco felt a little guilty when she looked at him. He didn't want to stay any longer, but he had to pretend that nothing had happened. He took the folder signed and stamped by Kathryn, closed it, and said to Kathryn, "Kathryn, I'll go back to work."

Kathryn said, "What are you going to do? Go and do it quickly. I won't take up your time."

"Are you feeling guilty, brother? Why do I feel that you are feeling guilty, and you look like you are running away?" Kathryn mocked Marco. She said, "If you did something behind my back, you'd better tell the truth. Otherwise, you will get into big trouble, or someone will find evidence and come to settle the score. I can't help you. If you didn't do it, you should remember my words. You'd better not provoke Liberty. She is not someone you can afford to provoke."

After Kathryn reminded and warned Marco, she took back her mobile phone from him and said to him, "Go back to work."

Marco cursed Kathryn thousands of times in his heart. But he put on a smile and said, "What can I do behind your back? I'm in my thirties or forties, not a young boy. What trouble can I get into? I have never provoked that bitch, Liberty. Knowing that she has the support of the three major families behind her, why should I provoke her?"

To be selfish, you should regard Liberty as an opponent and a mortal enemy, not us. After all, Liberty is aiming for the position of head of the family, and you are the young lady of the Farrell family. If nothing unexpected happens, you will be the next head of the family.

You two are in a competitive relationship. What does it have to do with me? Even if I want to help you, I'm afraid I can't. Now, in terms of means, connections, and power, I'm not as good as you."
