

Married At First Sight Chapter 3372

Married At First Sight Chapter 3372-If Liberty hadn't intervened, Shiloh wouldn't have died.

Even though Shiloh's death was caused by many factors, Marco could not touch his mom and dared not touch Kathryn, so he could only take it out on Liberty.

Liberty had Yorks, Lewiss, and Stones as her backers, but they were all in Wiltspoon. This was Jensburg, so as long as he didn't do anything blatant, he'd be fine.

Kathryn didn't know what Marco was thinking. She walked out of the office building and just got into the car when she received the investigation results sent by Pedro.

After reading the investigation results, she had no reaction, drove calmly, and left the company.

A few minutes later, Pedro called.

Kathryn pulled over before answering Pedro's call.

"Miss, Miss Hunt was hit by two cars. It was the eldest young master's doing."

The investigation results that Pedro handed over to Kathryn were naturally sufficient evidence to prove that it was Marco who arranged it.

"I looked at the results of the investigation, and I guessed it was him." Kathryn said, "He is simply out of his mind. Who would arrange it like that? He wanted to create an accident, and one car would be enough. But he was afraid of making a mistake, so he used two cars, one in front and one behind. Does he really think Liberty is a fool?"

She was speechless about Marco.

With Marco's skills and intelligence, how could he dare to harbor such ambitions and secretly covet the position of head of the family?

"I'm going to see Liberty now. Liberty is also suspicious of him. I think Liberty has also asked someone to investigate. Mr. Kevin and Miss Hayden will be back from vacation soon."

Kevin took Hayden out on vacation, and the Queen Enterprise was temporarily handed over to Hugh.

Pedro thought that Kathryn was worried that Kevin would come back and settle accounts with her, so he consoled her by saying, "Even if Mr. York and Ms. Queen come back, they can't ask you to do anything. It's not you who did it."

Kathryn said, "I'm not worried. It's just that my cooperation with Queen Enterprise has not been finalized yet. Hugh is very busy, and I haven't reached an agreement with him yet."

Pedro smiled and said, "It will definitely work; don't worry, Miss. They should be back in the next two days."

"Go and help me check on Noel and Sage to see if they are doing anything behind my back. Also, there are a few aunts in the clan. They often pass on information to Liberty in private. Keep an eye on them."

Pedro responded respectfully: "Sure."

After a pause, he couldn't help but ask, "Miss, what do you think of Miss Hunt?"

Kathryn: "What can I think? I like men, not women."

Pedro: "Miss, that's not what I meant."

He didn't want Kathryn to like women either.

He also wanted to be a loving couple with Kathryn.

Kathryn smiled and said, "Liberty and I are competitors. We can be said to be mortal enemies, but we also respect each other. Those aunts have already joined Liberty. I know this, but I didn't let my mother know."

She was afraid that if Clarissa knew about it, those aunts would lose their lives. Not only them, but also their families, would pass away due to various accidents.

Clarissa would not tolerate betrayal. Many people in the clan were dissatisfied with her, but they were afraid of her methods, so no matter how dissatisfied they were, they dared not do anything.

The main reason was that they couldn't find new people to join them.

Only after Liberty came over did they feel like they had someone they could turn to.

After all, Liberty was the descendant of the previous head of the family and had the help of several wealthy families behind her.

Even the Queen family in Jensburg stood by Liberty and supported her.

“If I wasn’t my mom’s only daughter, I would really want to be good friends with Liberty. I get along really well with her.”

There was a hint of regret in Kathryn’s words.

If she had one more sister, she wouldn’t want to be the successor. She could do what she wanted and make the friends she wanted.
