

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2966-“Oh, no!” The Southern Boss paled.

He knew that Leon was formidable and had a defensive tool in the Peak Almighty State, meaning he was no match for Leon.

Not daring to take the blow, he backed away swiftly in an attempt to dodge Leon’s attack.

However, Leon’s Phantom Steps was far too swift, and no matter how hard he tried, he simply could not get away and could only watch as Leon got closer.

“Master, where are you? Come help me!” At the last moment, the southern Boss shouted while dodging Leon’s attack.

“Master?” Leon was slightly confused by this when he heard a roar from afar.

Suddenly, a figure leaped into the air and landed in the center of the field.

It was an old man dressed in black and wore a vicious-looking demon mask.

His presence was overbearing to the extent that one could instantly sense danger from his aura alone. Anyone could tell that he was no ordinary person.

The old man in black swung his hand and something the size of a football flew toward Leon.

This was an attempt to save the Southern Boss and force Leon to give up on attacking.

“He threw something!” Taken aback, Leon swung his arm instinctively to strike whatever coming his way down.

However, before he could do so, he sensed something amiss and he reached to grab it instead.

Focusing on it, he paled when he realized that it was a human head.

What shocked him most was that he knew this face. It was Scott, one of the Dragon Guards who accompanied him to the western region to capture the Poisonwielder.

“Brahma? It’s him! Why is he here in the southern region?”

In the meantime, the Thompsons and the Dragon Guards had a clearer look at the intruder.

As an experienced Dragon Guard, Levi recognized Brahma almost immediately from the way he dressed and looked.

“What?”

Everyone was taken aback.

Though none of them had seen Brahma in person before, they had all heard of the criminal list.

Ranking top of the list, Brahma was infamous and they all heard that he was in the Semf-Saint State.

Naturally, the Dragon Guards from the central region were formidable as well.

Being wanted by the Dragon Corps, Brahma went into hiding and never appeared in the other regions to survive.

None of them expected Brahma to suddenly appear in the southern region and this completely caught them by surprise.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2967-While Brahma showed himself, the Southern Boss quickly dodged Leon's attack and arrived by Brahma's side.

“Master Brahma, you're finally here. Thank the gods for that!” the Southern Boss said excitedly and sighed an inward breath of relief.

Ever since he was rescued by Hades, he reached an agreement with Hades to seek Brahma's help because of how powerful the Potential Energy Forces were.

After trying for some days, Hades finally managed to reach Brahma and connected him with the Southern Boss.

When the Southern Boss plotted to rescue Rodney with the Western Boss's help, he aimed to destroy the Thompsons and capture Leon's confidantes as well.

However, Leon was resourceful and cunning. To avoid any trouble and to find a scapegoat to shoulder all the blame for the destruction of the Thompsons, the Southern Boss asked Brahma to come to the southern region to take Leon down.

This was the safest plan and reality proved that he was right in doing so.

Leon's level reached the Peak Almighty State and he possessed a powerful defensive tool, so neither he nor the Western Boss could beat him.

If Brahma did not arrive in time to save him, he would have perished at the hands of Leon.

"Southern Boss, you called me here to deal with a kid called Leon, right?"

"Where's he now?" Brahma asked coldly.

Though he had nothing against Leon, he learned from Hades that Leon eliminated the Demon Lord and the Scarlet Thief.

The eight criminals on the list were always allies as they all faced trouble from the Dragon Corps.

A few of them even helped Brahma with some of his businesses and he could easily refer to them as his subordinates. Therefore, it enraged him that Leon took the Demon Lord and Scarlet Thief down.

Hence, he agreed to the Southern Boss's request and came to the Southern region to help defeat Leon, regardless of the risk of being hunted down by the Dragon Guards from the central region.

Apart from that, he heard that Asmodeus and the Poisonwielder were both eliminated by the Dragon Guards in the southern region as well.

On top of that, Alfred was currently away to attend the meeting in the central region, and the branch was left unmanaged. This seemed like the perfect time for him to deal with the Dragon Guards in the southern region and he was not about to miss it.

Once he arrived at the southern region, he first went to the Dragon!

Corps branch and murdered a few Drágon Guards for his pleasure.

This was to avenge Asmodeus and the Poisonwielder, but also to warn the Dragon Corps about crossing him.

Afterward, he came to the Thompsons' mansion to meet with the Southern Boss.

Because of that, he was slightly late.

"Master Brahma, that's Leon!" The Southern Boss pointed at Leon resentfully.

"Kid, so you're Leon? How convenient!" Brahma laughed and glared at Leon maliciously.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2968-"Brahma, how dare you take the life of a Platinum Dragon Guard? You're to pay for this!" Leon stared at Scott's head, itching to charge up Brahma to make him pay.

However, he recalled seeking the Dragon Corps in the southern region for help, yet the Dragon Guards were nowhere to be found.

On top of that, Scott was somehow killed by Brahma and this baffled him.

Therefore, he suppressed his rage and did not attack immediately.

"Platinum Dragon Guards, my ass! They're just hounds working for the Dragon Corps. I didn't just kill one on my visit to the Dragon Corps just now, " Brahma sneered.

According to what he was told, Asmodeus and the Poisonwielder were both eliminated by the Dragon Corps in the southern region.

However, the Southern Boss and Hades both guessed that Leon perhaps had something to do with their deaths and that Leon aided the Dragon Guards' mission of eliminating Asmodeus and the Poisonwielder.

This meant that Leon worked with the Dragon Guards to eliminate Asmodeus, the Poisonwielder, the Scarlet Thief, and the Demon Lord.

To seek revenge on Leon and the Dragon Corps, he attacked the Dragon Corps' branch in the southern region. He killed a few Dragon Guards and even chopped off one of their heads.

He wanted to present it to Leon to show him the consequences of working with the Dragon Corps to harm the criminals.

He simply did not know if Leon was satisfied with this present.

"Why you!" Leon was furious. Realization dawned on him as to why the Dragon Guards from the southern region did not come to the Thompsons' aid.

It appeared that they were under attack.

"Brahma, you scum! I'm going to cut you up into pieces to avenge Scott and the others!" Leon glared at Brahma fiercely.

"Like a brat, your age can do anything at all. What a joke!" Brahma scoffed in contempt.

"You'll find out about that soon enough!" Leon said coldly.

Suppressing his sorrow and rage, he held Scott's head and walked over to Levi, before handing it over to him.

Once everything was over, he could have Scott's head delivered-back to the southern branch to be buried alongside his body.

After accepting Scott's head, Levi and the other Dragon Corps fell into deep sorrow with tears in their eyes.

Scott was their colleague and comrade.

Upon learning that he was killed brutally by Brahma, they were all furious and heartbroken, desperate to eliminate Brahma to avenge Scott.

However, Brahma was ranked at the top of the criminal list and long m reached the Semi-Saint state, so he had dose to no rival in all of Sky County.

Even if all the Dragon Guards present worked together, they were no match for him.

It seemed impossible for them to avenge Scott

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2969-Mister Wolf, Brahma is powerful and vicious. You won't stand a chance against him. I think you need to get out of here," Levi suppressed his sorrow and tried to talk Leon out of fighting Brahma.

Though Leon managed to defeat both the Southern Boss and the Western Boss on his own, putting the Thompsons at an advantage, Brahma was in the Semi Saint State.

This meant that he was a few times stronger than the Southern Boss and the Western Boss.

Although Leon had a defensive tool in the Peak Almighty State, he could not possibly defeat Brahma.

Besides, Brahma would be aided by the Southern Boss and the Western Boss as well.

Given their combined strength, even a martial artist in the Semi-Saint state would struggle to win, not to mention Leon.

Levi did not think that Leon could defeat all three of them on his own unless there was a miracle.

At the moment, running seemed to be the only option.

"Yeah!"

“Mister Wolf, it’s time to give up.”

“Run now and leave US behind~”

Angus and the Thompsons agreed along as they also felt that Leon could not defeat Brahma, the Southern Boss, and the Western Boss.

This would not be realistic.

If they were not mistaken, they would all perish here today, but Leon was different.

Given his abilities and tricks, he should be able to get away.

On top of that, Leon was young and already reached the Peak Almighty State, which meant his potential was beyond measure.

So long as he escaped and got to the Semi-Saint or even the Saint State, he should be able to avenge them by eliminating Brahma, the Southern Boss, and the Western Boss.

It was still a better option than having everyone die today.

“Run? Not happening. Don’t worry. Brahma can’t hurt me. You can relax!” Leon said.

Despite his casual tone, he dared not to let his guard down.

Though his overall strength reached the Semi-Saint State and Brahma alone would not pose much of a threat, he still had to deal with the Southern Boss and the Western Boss as well.

The Western Boss had his left shoulder shattered after taking all blow earlier so his strength was reduced considerably.

However, the Southern Boss did not suffer any severe injury.

If Brahma, the Southern Boss, and the Western Boss all attacked him at once, he may not be able to win.

He did not know that both the Southern Boss and the Western Boss reached the Peak Almighty state, nor had he anticipated the involvement of Brahma.

Iris was his weakness and the Southern Boss was known to be cunning.

Since he underestimated his opponent, he ended up bringing Iris and Roarine with him. Even Renee came along.

If he was caught up fighting Brahma, the Southern Boss may take the opportunity to harm Iris.

This would leave Leon in a vulnerable state and this was his major concern.

Instantly, he regretted bringing Iris over, but it was already too late.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2970-“Mister Wolf, the enemy is too strong. Now is not the time for you to be stubborn! If you don’t leave now, there won’t be enough time.”

Seeing as Leon refused to leave, Angus and the others attempted to talk some sense into him but were soon interrupted by Leon.

“Uncle Angus, Levi, I’ve made up my mind. Don’t bother trying to convince me. I know what I’m doing!” Leon said with determination.

“Well,” Their hearts sank with helplessness.

“Leon, the Thompsons dragged you into this mess. You must be careful!”

Roanne sighed worriedly.

She was an innocent woman and could not tell how dire the situation was for Leon and the Thompsons.

However, based on the others’ reaction, she could tell that Leon had merely a slim chance of winning against Brahma, the Western Boss, and the Southern Boss.

Since Leon refused to leave them behind and run, she could only pray that Leon could create a miracle and defeat the three of them again.

Otherwise, they were all doomed.

“Yeah!”

“Leon, be careful. If the situation escalates, run!”

Renee and Iris both spoke up at the same time in concern.

Iris was Leon’s girlfriend and it was normal for her to worry about Leon.

Renee, on the other hand, insisted on coming to the southern region with Leon precisely because she was in love with him.

At that moment, the situation surpassed her anticipation.

She never expected the Southern Boss and the Western Boss to reach the Peak Almighty State, not to mention the appearance of Brahma.

The trio was powerful beyond comparison in both the southern and western regions.

She did not think that Leon could fight the three of them.

If he failed, she would likely be dragged into the mess as well, but she did not regret coming for the man she loved.

All she could hope for was that Leon could find a chance to run if he was starting to lose.

So long as he could stay alive, anything else would not matter.

“Iris, don’t worry. I’ll be fine,” Leon said.

The situation was dire and he strode toward Brahma without further delay.

Meanwhile, the Western Boss managed to walk over to the Southern Boss and Brahma despite the injury on his shoulder.

“Southern Boss, I didn’t expect you to get Master Brahma here! I’m impressed the Western Boss said and sighed an inward breath of relief.

He thought that he and the Southern Boss were going to lose only to be surprised when he found out that the Southern Boss asked Brahma here.

He felt relieved, and so did Felton, Rodney, and the others.

They all thought that their defeat was certain and fell into despair.

However, Brahma’s appearance gave them hope.
