Chapter 1174 A Chance

John walked off, angry and embarrassed, leaving Trevor and his other colleagues behind.

The atmosphere suddenly became so awkward. Margaret smiled apologetically to Trevor and said, "Sorry for what he did. John has always been upright. He has no bad intentions. He's just a little reckless. I hope you won't take what happened just now at heart."

Of course, Trevor was not angry at all. He waved his hand casually and said, "It's not a big deal. It's good to see everyone so energetic."

Trevor wouldn't lose his temper just for such a trifle.

His one and only goal right now was to take down Mobius.

"Tell me about the Murray family. I'm more concerned about the extent of their collusion with Mobius," Trevor said seriously.

Margaret nodded. "Let's discuss while I show you around our base."

Klein's branch in Corden was very large. It had an intelligence office, a well-equipped fitness room, a rest area, a warehouse, and a living area.

Klein was a very wealthy organization.

Corden was very well developed city. No wonder the Murray family chose to settle here. The fact that Klein was able to construct such a large base in such a top-tier city was a testament to its power.

As they walked around the base, Margaret gave Trevor some insights into the Murray family. "The inner workings of the Murray family are way more complicated than those of an ordinary family. Ever since the last family head passed away, the indirect descendants of the Murray family began to rise. There were dirty fights within the family, at the end of which, a new head was chosen. That person is Ferrell Murray. Since their rise to power, the indirect descendants began to blatantly suppress and exclude the direct descendants."

After hearing what Margaret said, Trevor raised a brow and made a guess. "Well, it's likely the rise of the indirect descendants has something to do with Mobius, right?"

Margaret sighed and said, "I have the same assumptions. Alas, we have no evidence to support this. Ever since the indirect descendants gained control over the family, the Murray family's way of doing things has greatly changed. On the surface, the Murray family is still the most mysterious and low-key family among the three super families. But in reality, the younger generation is unscrupulous and rampant. They use the power of their family to bully the weak, making the whole Corden a mess."

Trevor nodded. He thought of those skilled men in black who might have something to do with the Murray family.

Margaret continued, "Among the younger generation of the Murray family, the most notorious one is probably Aldwin Murray. It is known as one of Corden's three most dreaded men. He is lawless. Based on the clues I've found, he could be our best asset in investigating the Murray family's connection to Mobius!"

Aldwin Murray?

Hearing the name, Trevor was stunned for a second. Then, he smiled.

Wasn't he the man he beat in the motel last night?

What a coincidence!

At this moment, Trevor's phone rang.

He checked his phone and found that it was Bess calling him.

It hadn't been long since he left them. Why was Bess looking for him now? Trevor was curious.

He picked up the call. As soon as the call was connected, Bess' anxious voice rang out.

"Dragon, stay outside for a while. Don't come back now!"

Before Trevor could ask what was going on, Bess quickly hung up.

Why did she ask him not to go back now?

Trevor thought it over. Bess' tone just now was very caring and anxious. He guessed that Aldwin probably came to cause trouble again.

That was very likely.

Trevor turned to Margaret and said seriously, "I think we have a good chance to know more about the Murray family!"
