

Chapter 845

845 A WICKED ALPHA

This was the second time Eron found Zale had been following them when he supposed to stay behind. This young boy was a nightmare!

But now, Eron wondered how could Zale follow them for days without them noticing it. Before also like this, they didn't knot that he came along until days later, when it was already too late to send him back.

"Let me go!" Zale growled at Eron, as he had an ironclad grip on his collar.

~~However, from a far they could hear another warrior informed them that they found another one that followed them too.~~

"Lil Thing is here!"

All the warriors were already familiar with this fluffy white bear and actually they liked this lazy bear, they simply couldn't understand how it could turn very ferocious in the battle, but barely move most of the day.

Lil Thing wriggled its butt when it walked leisurely among the warriors and nudged Zale.

"Not only you come here, but you also bring Lil Thing with you!" Eron was really upset.

Yet, Zale retorted. "I didn't bring Lil Thing with me, this bear is the one that followed me, because of it you found me!" Zale threw a dagger look at Lil Thing. His hiding place was discovered because he had to take care of this white furball along the journey, since Lil Thing refused to go back.

"Both of you have the same personality!" ~~W.W.N. (v) LwóR @.Com~~

Eron growled.

But, before Zale could talk back to Eron, Iris came over because she heard the commotion and the first thing she saw was Lil Thing, since this creature's size really stood out among the warriors and knights. "What happened here? Lil Thing?"

"Not only Lil Thing, luna." Eron pushed Zale forward so Iris could see him. "He is also here."

"Zale?" Iris was speechless. The thing that surprised her was because she didn't even surprise to see Zale was here. This was not the first time he had been following her, but obviously, this wouldn't be the last time.

Zale lowered his head. He knew that he couldn't come because they were going to battle prince Kellan, who behind there were the remaining four packs, including Celestial moon pack.

To put it simple, this was not the place for him, yet he still wanted to come, so he could be close to his luna.

"What should we do, luna? Should we send them back? They must be able to find their way back," Eron suggested.

Right now, they were taking a break and the alpha was with the Elders along with the merchant, the beta and the gamma, thus leaving only Iris to decide what they needed to do with these two creatures.

As if sensing the situation, Lil Thing moved closer toward Iris and acted spoiled, as it rubbed its head against her shoulder, asking to be scratched behind its right ear.

However, Iris's heart ached to see how Lil Thing lost its left ear. How she had the heart to send these two back?

"Have you eaten?" Iris asked Zale, as she scratched Lil Thing's ear. Zale shook his head. "When the last time you ate?"

"The last time I ate was yesterday morning. Lil Thing ate all of my games!" Zale growled at Lil Thing, but the bear ignored him.

Iris sighed, in the end, she ordered Eron to prepare food for the two of them and let them come, since there was no point to send them back.

"Luna, you are too kind," Eron groaned.

"Be nice, Eron, He is only a child."

Eron didn't agree with her, but he couldn't deny the order.

Later on, Iris told Cane when he returned to their carriage and the alpha didn't seem to mind it. ~~www.no@eLW@r.m.com~~

Having Lil Thing and Zale would add more protection to his mate, so why would he mind it? In turn, Cane told Iris about the brief meeting he had with the elders.

"Cane, don't you think that's too dangerous?" The thought of Cane entered Diandem pack with Elder Xarex and Abby only made Iris restless. She didn't want Cane to be in the enemy's nest, but even more for him to be near Kellan.

Iris knew Kellan was not even a match for Cane. Her mate could end his life right there and then in one on one fight, but she still felt very restless to think that man was so close to her mate.

Kellan was like a plague and Iris didn't wish for Cane to be anything as dirty and nasty as him, it felt like he could contaminate him with something so bad.

"You don't need to worry," Cane reassured her, he kissed the tip of her nose and cupped her face, staring at her blue eyes closely. "If anything, I am looking forward to meet with him."

Cane was not the only one, somehow, Lou showed a great interest to this mission, the merchant didn't even come late in every meeting about their upcoming attack. He was very eager to reach Diandem pack, in which left Ethan frowned with his enthusiasm.

"Stop knitting your brows..." Cane kissed both of her eyes.

Still, Iris was not happy with the result of the meeting, though in Cane's opinion it was perfect. She still felt uneasy for Cane to be near Kellan.

Iris clutched the front of Cane's clothes and kissed him. She wanted to feel him, so her heart could calm down a little bit.

"They agreed to meet me and discuss about the situation," prince Kellan told alpha Derick and Cezi after he received the latest report. "They will be here by tomorrow."

"I am glad to hear that. Cane has made a great decision." Alpha Derick sighed in relief when he heard the news. If Cane and the Elders agreed, it meant, there would be no battle at all.

Alpha Derick didn't want to fight Cane, not only because he was his best friend's son, but also because he had saved Cezi's life.

It was actually Iris, who had done it, while Cane only made a good use of the situation from alpha Derick's predicament.

Cezi only nodded, indicating he agreed and was happy with the report, but his eyes fell on his little sister. He had a lot of things to think about and it was actually great that Cane would come here. He only needed to find a way to have a conversation with him. There were a lot of things he wanted to ask.

"Cezi!" Alpha Derick raised his vice and patted his shoulder. "I am talking with you."

Cezi lifted his head and saw prince Kellan was staring at him. He gathered his composure and answered their question briefly. "Even if there is a hidden plan, what can alpha Cane and four elders do against our forces?"

Prince Kellan looked satisfied, he then continued his discussion with alpha Derick, while Cezi went back to his deep thought, only half following the conversation between the two of them.

Finally, the day of their meeting came and they would meet in Diandem pack's border, from afar, you could see how massive the warriors and knights that Cane brought with him. Their number increased significantly after the reinforcement from the Holy Kingdom came.

"I only wanted to tell you good news, maybe you can be rest in peace after this," Kellan said. He crouched down in front of alpha Colter, but he knitted his brows when he saw the alpha was actually unconscious. After a good beating, he was unable to stay awake. "Pour water on him."

A warrior came and poured a basket of cold water over alpha Colter's head, which made the poor old man screamed. He knew this would be another torture, but then he saw prince Kellan and started cursing him out.

"Can you stop yelling at me?" Kellan tilted his head, he gave this nonchalant smile. "I graced you with my presence because there is good news for you. You must be happy." ~~www.no@eLW@r.m.com~~

Alpha Colter spat on his face, which was something that Kellan didn't expect at all.

"What?! The only thing that could make me happy right now is to see you being torn into pieces!"

Alpha Colter roared, he spat at Kellan again, but this time he could dodge it and immediately stand up.

A harsh kick then landed on alpha Colter's face, until it broke three of his teeth.

"Fucking idiot!" Kellan growled viciously. "You know that Cane and the four elders will enter my territory within an hour from now? You know what's that mean?"

Alpha Colter was coughing blood, but he was listening attentively. What Cane planned to enter Kellan's territory with only four elders?

"He ate my bait and now I am going to bury you alongside with him. You just wait, I will cut your body little by little!" Kellan said like a maniac. He was in a good mood, or else, he wouldn't have stopped kicking alpha Colter after he spat on him twice! ~~www.No@eLW@r.m.com~~

However, to his surprise, alpha Colter was laughing out loud. "You must be the one, who is idiot if you thought Cane took your bait!" alpha Colter continued laughing, even though his inside was almost killing him. "You are not as clever as him, there is no way you will be able to outsmart him!"

Right at that time, a warrior came to inform Kellan that the alpha and his forces had reached the territory.

"You can wait," Kellan scoffed disdainfully. "I will bring his head to you so you can see that he is nothing."
