

The Vampire's Omega ##2 Chapter 61 - Read The Vampire's Omega #2 Chapter 61

Chapter 61.

It was already night when Xander, Annabelle and Damien got to the Morgan's home and stood outside it just staring at the door, they had allowed him to see their mother after much persuasion and there they were.

"Okay, just stay at a corner and hide for a while, we will tell you when to come out from your hiding place okay?" Xander said to Damien.

"Okay." Damien replied without any argument and Annabelle reluctantly removed her hand from his. That will be the first time Damien took an order from someone and allows the person to go unharmed. "There is tendency that these kids are mine that is why I'm doing all these but if they are not mine, I will adopt them." He said in his mind, staying in position.

"Let's go in." Xander knocked on the door and the door was opened in a second.

"My babies." Luna jumped out of the house and pulled them both in her arms hugging them tightly. "Don't ever do that again okay?" Luna told them and began searching through their bodies.

"Were you hurt anywhere? Did anyone touched you? Did anyone...." Luna was saying in a breath but Xander cut her short.

"Mom! Calm down, we are perfectly okay!" He assured her and a tear rolled out of Luna's eyes.

"We are sorry." Annabelle said, her eyes becoming moist too.

"Katherine told me okay? She told me that you both went to the mall to give me the money I forgot at home. It was all my fault that I was careless with the money. I am so sorry babies, I'm glad you are not hurt." She pulled them into an hug again before pulling them inside the house after breaking the hug.

"Mom, there is someone here who wants to see you. We saw him at the mall." Xander said just when Luna was about to shut the door.

"Who is he? I told you to say away from strangers." Luna cautioned them.

"We are sorry mom but we only answered him because he said that it was urgent. He said his name is Damien Blackhood." Annabelle said.

“Okay.” Luna replied and opened the door wider but then, the name registered in the brain. “Did you said Damien Blackhood?” She turned back and asked them again.

“Yes.” They both replied her and Luna’s eyes never budged out of their sockets.

“Do I know you?” Damien asked her, already standing in front of her.

Luna gulped and gently raised her head up to stared at him, she staggered back when she saw him just before her.

“My alpha.” She muttered, feeling a mighty lump in her throat, her breathe seized immediately and she found it difficult to breath.

Damien scoffed as his memory clicked together and he remembered her as the woman he had a one night stand with during the heat when he was drunk and she basically took advantage of him.

“But she was drunk too.” Dam countered in his head.

“Like I care.” Damien blocked him off immediately.

“So, it’s you?” He said, inviting himself into the house and he shut the door behind him.

“M.... My alpha.” Luna shuttered, falling to the ground as her legs cannot carried her anymore more, she was in great fear. “The heartless and ruthless alpha to ever live is in my house and in front of me. He will take my children away from me.” Luna thought.

“Mom!” Katherine rushed to her with Drac in her arms, she tried to help Luna up but she can’t, she matched up to Damien, dropped Drac on the floor and punched him continuously with her little fist. “What have you done to her?”

“I didn’t nothing to her, why didn’t you ask her what she did to me instead?” Damien asked Katherine and squatted to her height. “You must be Katherine.”

“My mom have never did anything wrong to anyone and if she ever treats you wrong, that means you deserve it but I doubt that she did anything wrong to you. And now you hurt her, even if you are our father, you are not worthy to be my father!” Katherine said to his face glaring at his eyes and funny enough, they both had the same type of sun-yellow eyes color.

Strangely, her words hurt Damien but being the type of man he was, he never showed it. “Hmm, we will see to that.” He straightened himself up.

Xander and Annabelle were still frozen in their spots, now hating the idea of bringing him home.

Damien ignored the three kids and walked up to Luna who was still on the floor shivering from a sudden cold. "I'm having a few questions for you. You are to answer them in short and straightforward words, you must have known that I hate it when people talk to me with scanty words and I do punish my lawbreakers."

"Yes alpha."

"Good. Firstly, how do you have them? Because right now I know that they are mine."

"During our intercourse in the heat period." Luna said, she was trying not to shudder.

"Very good. Why did you took advantage of me? And why did you ran away before I woke up?"

"My mate rejected me and I drank. Believe me my alpha, I didn't know that that was going to happen, I just wanted to get away from the males in the street, I have no idea that you will be in the woods and that had to happen." Luna explained.

"And finally, why are you in a human world?"

"I got banished when I got pregnant and I refused to disclosed who the father was and this place is the only place I thought of coming."

"A perfect place for a weak wolf." Damien said under his breathe but loud enough for Luna to hear it.

"Why did you kept the father of my pups away from your people?" Damien asked and Luna was quiet. "Answer the damn question now!" He snapped at Luna.

"Stop snapping at her!" Katherine yelled at Damien, not caring if he was their father or not. Damien spared her a sharp glance and turned back to Luna and she quickly talked.

"I know you will take them away from me when I give birth to them and you will kill me after." Luna poured out.

"Hmm, smart. So you ran away with them not knowing that I will find you and now I do find you and I will make your fears come true. I'm taking them with me and you will die as a lonely weak wolf." Damien told Luna.

"You can take Xander and Annabelle with you because they were the ones always wishing for a dad but as for me, I will never leave mom's side, Drac and I will stay with her and just so you know, I hate you so much and I will never accept you as my father as long as you hurt my mom." Katherine said, taking her stand.

"We will see to that." Damien said then faced Luna. "I command you as the alpha to his servant to stand up from that floor and come with me to my pack with my three pups and that cat will have to stay here!"

And tears flown from their eyes immediately.

Chapter 62.

Luna Morgan busted into tears when she heard the words of Damien Blackhood. She knew that she can't go against him as she was really a servant to him like he said or else she will die and her children will grow up without a mother, just as they began their early life without their father.

"Mom." Katherine called, she hugged Luna and cried along with her. "It's okay, we have always been fine without a father then his opinion doesn't matter, at least if Xander and Annabelle are dumb enough to see that he is only here to destroy our family and to spilt us up well I'm not."

"Hey kid, now watch what you say. If you are another person's kid and you have been talking senselessly to me like you have been doing, then I won't hesitate in correcting the kid in a way he or she would understands. You have talk enough and your opinion is not needed, all you have to do is to watch what we do and do whatever you are expected to do, not the other way round. Do you understand?" Damien said getting tired of Katherine rudeness towards him.

"Why don't you make me understand Mister? Because I don't understand you." Katherine said, standing up to Damien again and he frowned.

"This little girl is belittling me and I hate it so much. I can hurt her if she don't stop." Damien thought and watched Katherine. "What's the easiest way to shut a kid up?" He asked Dam.

"Kill her! That's the easiest way ever." Dam joked.

"Are you crazy? I've always known that questioning you is a mistake." He blocked Dam immediately only to realized that Luna was in his front, she had pulled Katherine behind her, she was begging him to spare Katherine and that he should punish her instead.

"Is this woman crazy? Did she think that I will punish my daughter like I punish my offenders? She must be mistaken." He thought and just turned back and walked away from them to call Rosita, so that she will sent over more cars that will take them to the pack.

"No one should leave this place till I'm back, if you do, I will find you and I would have any reason to keep you safe anymore." He said before walking out of the house.

“Mom.” Xander and Annabelle called and went to hugged her. It was like the spell they were in got broken immediately Damien left and then, they could see the position their mother was.

“He is your father okay. I know you guys are curious to find him but you shouldn’t have brought him over, he....” Luna cut herself short as she wanted to say that ‘he won’t let me live’ but it won’t be wise to say it in front of her kids. “Come here.” She held the three of them in her arms.

“Why did you kept us away from him?” Annabelle asked her when they disengaged from the hug.

“He doesn’t seems like he can harm us.” Xander added.

“You are right, he can’t harm you three.” She said, “But he can harm me.” She completed in her mind. She sighed before continuing, “I thought it was a wise decision to run away with you and to raise you three alone but now, I realize that I have been foolish and I’m sorry.”

“Its okay mom.” They muttered, though they didn’t really understood her.

“Right now, the most important thing you three should know is that we are werewolves.” Luna said and stared at her confused kids.

“What is a werewolves?” Annabelle asked dumbly, she exchanged a stare with Xander as she remembered when Damien told them that he was an alpha.

“Is he really an alpha?” Xander asked Luna, pointing at the door indicating that he was referring to Damien.

“Yes, he is an alpha.” Luna replied.

“Do you mean that we are animals?” Katherine suddenly asked silencing all of them.

“Not the type of animal you are thinking, we were created this way by the moon goddess and we have been okay.” Luna explained.

“How did you met dad? And why did you hate talking about him?” Xander asked, it was like they were in a question and answer section, so they used the moment to ask all the questions in their minds.

“We met in the woods. I was mated with a guy....”

“Mated? I don’t understand that one.” Xander said, interrupting Luna.

“You will understand it when you grow older. So as I was saying, I was mated or let me say destined to be with a guy, he was our alpha’s son....”

“Now that’s it, who is an alpha because our father happened to be one? Are they always evil?” Annabelle asked again. They all sat down on the floor, waiting for Luna to answer all their questions and it was becoming interesting to them.

“An alpha is like a king in the human world but they are more feared and powerful than human king. Well, alphas are mostly wicked, especially to their enemies but always fair to their people.” She sighed before saying. “No more interruption from you three, allow me to finish my narration.” They all nodded their heads in agreement.

“So, my alpha’s son was in a relationship with my stepsister, I mean they are both so into each other, so it was expected of me to be rejected, well what was I expecting?” She chuckled bitterly and sniffed in her tears and continued. “I got rejected, got myself drunk and journeyed to the woods, I met your father there in the woods, he was drunk too and we had something together. That was what brought you three into existence.”

“I avoided talking about him because I feared that you will want me to take you to him and I stopped myself from going to him when I got banished because of his reputation, I don’t know how he would react and I don’t want to take a risk.”

“And you decided to leave us to grow up fatherless like we have no father, you made us seem stupid and just so you know, we always fight with Matt because he always remind us that there is a tendency that our mother was a bitch!” Xander said angrily to Luna.

“What? I’m sorry, I don’t know.” Luna apologized.

“When you were busy thinking of yourself, why didn’t you thought of us? We just made it seemed that we were okay without a father but the truth is that we were never okay and what hurts most is that you never knew of it mother!” Annabelle said angrily too.

Katherine was quiet, though she was as well angry but she kept quiet, keeping her cool. “This is our mother we are talking about, I know she has a reason for doing all these and for keeping us away from the truth.” She thought, staring at Luna and she shut her eyes tightly while sniffing hard. “I’m sure she is crying inside.”

“I’m not in any way surprise that you kept all those away from them, even their real self? If that is not wickedness, then what’s it?” Damien asked, leaning on the door frame. He had ended his call with Rosita since quite a while and he had been silently staring at them.

“She is not as wicked as you!”

Chapter 63.

Katherine Morgan was very angry like her siblings but she had a way she kept her feelings in check unlike the rest and again, she can't stand it when someone mocked her mother, not even the man who they tagged as her father.

"She is not as wicked as you!" She voiced out to Damien then continued. "At least she haven't make us cry not even for ones in our lives like you did today, you made me cry and you are forcing us to accept you!" Katherine snapped at him. She was sad that she never knew that she was an animal, like what is a werewolf if not an animal? Animal and human but she didn't care in as much as animal was included and they will have to live in the forest and will start eating grass or raw meat. "Yuck!"

"Speak for yourself little one because your siblings never complain of being forced by me." Damien said and glanced outside the house to see that the car he ordered for had already arrive.

"Come, I will take you home, to your real home." He said glaring around the sitting room which had the same size with his bathroom in his pack house.

"I will ride with you." Xander and Annabelle said at the same time, going closer to Damien.

"I will rather eat my poop than to ride with you and I'm going with Drac either you like it or not, as I have earlier said, your opinion is not relevant." Katherine said and pulled Luna up. "Let's go mom."

Damien just sighed without saying anything, somehow, he was hurt that she made it obvious that she didn't like him and that she would choose her mother over him in a million times and it hurts his ego.

They all headed for their different rides and as per Katherine's word, she took Drac with her and rode with Luna.

"Mom, I think we are having a say in this too, I think we should make him realize that he is making a great mistake by taking us with him forcefully." Katherine complained to Luna as they rode in the car to the Black Hood pack.

Three more cars had arrived at Luna's doorstep immediately Damien made a call to Rosita to send more cars over. Luna was in a different car with Katherine, who would not leave her side for anything but Xander and Annabelle were all over Damien and they were riding in the same car with him, though they cared about their mom but they also missed their father and they were angry because Luna kept things away from them.

"I have to obey him, he can be ruthless and acts like a psychopath when he is angry, though he is a good man, at least he was good to you and your siblings, so that's okay for me.” Luna said, trying to force a smile out of her lips, she was very scared and she couldn’t help but wonder what she will face in the Black Hood pack.

“It can’t be that bad right? I mean, I survived the oppression in the Crystal’s pack, so how can this get any worse?” She thought but her heart still managed to beat faster, she was not calm.

“You shouldn’t have raised your voice at him, he is your father and you must obey him. You should have left Drac at home too, he would be safer with Mark and Jose because I’m sure they will still go home to check on us.” Luna said, looking out of the window of the car as it moved on.

“I couldn’t leave him there and right now, I still want to believe that I’m a human being and not a wolf though all the evidence are pointing right at me but I still want to fight them. I will miss Mark and Jose.” Katherine said, “I dropped a letter for them, it won’t be good to just disappear without leaving any writing for them.”

“You did well love.” Luna praised her.

“Thanks mom, I tried to be like you.” She replied, hugging Drac to herself as she looked out of the window in the other side.

They soon arrived at the Black Hood pack and were met with beauty. They have expected the place to be bushy and unkempt but reverse was the case because the house there stood gallant and beautiful that they were wowed.

“This place is beautiful mom.” Katherine gushed as her eyes was glued to window of the car.

“Yes it is.” Luna replied. She was as well marveled, she never expected the pack to be so beautiful, she had always thought of Crystal pack to be beautiful but this pack beats Crystal in many ways. “No wonder it was known to be the best pack of all time.” She thought.

“I think I can get use to this mom but that doesn’t mean I will watch you getting rid of, I will be by your side and we will tour the city together!” Katherine squealed.

Luna laughed, “It’s called pack Katherine, not city.” She corrected. “Come here.” She pulled her into her embrace. “I love you so much.”

“I love you too mummy.” She said cutely.

“Meow.” Drac muttered, blinking it eyes cutely too, causing Katherine and Luna to laugh.

They were in each other embrace till they got to the pack house.

"We are here madam." A guard said, opening the car door for them.

"Thank you." Luna muttered with Katherine and both exited the car with Drac in Katherine arms.

"I can't believe you still brought Drac over Katherine, dad gave a long reason why cats are not allowed in here and you are endangering his life." Annabelle said to Katherine.

"If I were you, I won't talk to me because if you do again for the second and in the mood I am right now, I won't hesitate to smack your face, I will forget the fact that you are older and I will beat you up that even mom with be shock. I'm highly disappointed in you both and even though mom did not say it out, she is disappointed too!" Katherine said glaring at Annabelle and Xander.

"Katherine stop!" Luna shouted.

"What mom? You should remember that I love saying my mind out loud and clear when it is necessary." She replied snuggling her shoulders like she did nothing wrong before facing Damien. "Do you see this? You are succeeding right? You have finally broken our happy family apart and you also succeeded in breaking my siblings and I triplets code! Well done Mr because I hate you!" Katherine snapped at Damien and he shut his eyes tightly, taking in her words.

"I hate it when people raise their voices at me but I can't do anything to this girl because firstly, she is my daughter and secondly she is right. I'm a home wrecker." He thought with his eyes still shut.

"And what the hell is happening here? Who is this fool that is shouting at the alpha? And where did they even came from? Wait, what is that in her arms? A cat? I hate cats! Kill the damn thing!"

Chapter 64.

Katherine Morgan and the rest of the family were still outside the pack house with Damien, who slowly opened his eyes to stared at Rosita who was busy glaring at Drac.

"I said kill the damn cat!" Rosita shouted again.

"Are you talking about killing my own very cat or which one?" Katherine asked Rosita childishly.

"How does it sounds to you, you this little pup?" Rosita asked back.

"It sounds like you are just spilling spit on me for nothing because Drac here is staying and no one can stop him from staying here, not even him." Katherine pointed at Damien and Rosita widened her eyes.

“Do you have a death wish? Did you pointed at the alpha as the him you were referring to? Apologize to him now!” She said, though she knew that Damien hated apologies, she wanted Katherine to commit more crimes so that she would be greatly punished.

“I see nothing special in him but don’t worry, I might eat back my words when my heart is right with him.” Katherine declared.

“My alpha, what should we do to her?” Rosita asked Damien.

“Leave her alone, she is just a kid.” Damien said with a sigh, he had not been embarrassed that much in his life.

“But she just behave rudely to you, the least she could do is to apologize on her knees.” Rosita pointed out.

“I’ve always tell you Rosita, I always know the perfect punishment for my offenders and your opinion is not needed, all you are expected to do is to obey me, so leave the girl alone!” He snapped at her.

“Okay my alpha.” She quickly concurred.

“Invite the elders of the pack for a quick meeting, I’m having an announcement to make. Get the throne room and everything ready in five minutes.” Damien told Rosita.

“Okay my alpha.”

“And you Sam, take them all to their chambers and nothing, I repeat nothing should happen to them or you all will pay dearly for even a cut in the strand of their hair.” Damien commanded coldly before walking away, leaving them all outside.

Rosita glared at Katherine and then at Luna, who wasn’t looking at her. “I don’t know who you all are but I know that you are not welcome here.”

“I will gladly go back home if I’m chanced to do so and that will safe me from always seeing your ugly face.” Katherine said and held Luna’s arm.

“Do you just call me ugly? I will make sure I deal with you when the alpha finally marries me!” Rosita yelled and Katherine laughed.

“I won’t be surprise if he marries you, it will only confirm my suspicion that he is having a sour taste in woman!”

“What? How dare you!”

“Let’s ignore the shouting princess mom, I know you are tired and you need a long rest.” She told Luna sweetly.

“Okay.” Luna muttered.

“Please lead us to the room.” Katherine said gently to Sam.

“As you wish madam.” Sam replied her with a little bow.

“Please it’s Katherine not madam.”

“I will try to remember that madam.” He replied again before leading the way with three other guards following them behind.

Rosita had her mouth widely opened as they began to walk away, “Did this little pup just rubbish me in front of those guards?” She kept on ruminating till they were out of sight.

“And what are you all staring at?!” She yelled angrily at the other guards and they quickly walked away from her. “Rubbish wolves!” She cursed and walked away to carry out the assignment given to her by Damien.

Damien had instructed all the guards to always respect the guests he was bringing over through a mind link in the car while coming and that was what birth all the respects giving towards Luna and her children.

They got to the hallway and halted at a two doors adjacent each other. “This is your room madam.” Sam said pointing at the first door, he was referring to Luna. “And the other is the three kids room.”

They all nodded and Luna opened the kids room to see if they will be comfortable in there. She nodded her head as she entered and looked around.

The room was as wide as their house in the human world. It had everything in three. The queen-sized beds were three, the wardrobes were three, the dressing tables three, reading tables three, the water jugs and the night lamps beside each bed were three three, even the bathrooms were three in number.

“What do you think kids?” Luna asked them as she watched them looked around.

“This is simply amazing mom and now I’m sure that I can get use to this.” Katherine said and jumped on the bed in the last angle with Drac still in her grabs. “This is ours.” She muttered and fell on the bed, feeling the softness of the bed. She dropped Drac on the bed so that it can feel in too.

“Meow.” It muttered in contempt.

“There is a bed for the cat too.” Sam said and pulled over a smaller bed.

“Wow! This is amazing!” Katherine said and pushed Drac to the small bed that was already stationed beside hers.

“Meow.” Drac muttered wagging its tail and rolling itself on the bed, it was likewise happy.

“Now, I am grateful to him for giving Drac a chance to stay here.” Katherine said and tugged Drac in before falling back on her bed. “Good night mom, make sure you sleep early okay, I will check on you later.” She said sleepily like she was Luna’s mother, causing Sam and the rest of the guards a laughter.

“I like her, she is so cute.” They whispered among themselves.

Luna only smiled and walked over to Katherine’s bed, “Good night baby.” She pecked her head and covered her properly before standing up from her.

“You both should sleep too.” Luna told Xander and Annabelle, seeing that they made no intention in climbing the bed.

“Go on, you can say anything in your heart later, come on to bed now.”

“Mom, we are sorry.” They apologized.

“You did nothing wrong, you are only too young to understand that.” She pulled them to the beds, Annabelle in the middle and Xander in the first, just the way they love it. “Sleep now Annabelle, mom loves you.”

“Good night mom.” Annabelle whispered, already dozing off.

“You too sweetie.” She covered her well before moving to Xander.

“I know you hate me now because I really wronged you but I’m sorry.” He told her.

“You shouldn’t be, I am the sorry one. Sleep now and just remember that I love you.”

“Okay mom.”

Luna sighed as she watched them sleep for a while before exiting the room with the guards.

Luna walked quietly to the room next door which was hers and entered, she locked the door and flung herself on the bed tiredly.

“Who is that bitch?” She heard before she slept.

Chapter 65.

Alpha Damien Blackhood entered the throne room as soon as the five minutes he gave Rosita elapsed and as expected, the elders were already on their seats but stood up to acknowledge Damien's presence. The throne room was as silent as the graveyard as Damien took his time to walk in, walking all majestically with his face cold and void of any emotion.

"Long live my alpha." The elders chorused in greeting which Damien only nodded to.

Alpha Damien got to his seat and sat down, "Do sit down." He said to the elders and they sat with their gaze on him and Rosita was sitting just beside him at his left hand side, she was equally anticipating for Damien's words, she can't wait to know who those pups and woman are.

The elders were fourteen in number, seven by the right hand side and seven by the left hand side as they sat down opposite Damien.

Damien sat down there, just glancing at them one after the other while the elders exchanged some looks among themselves.

"My alpha, you called for an emergency meeting. Is there a problem? Are we to prepare to war?" The bravest one among the elders asked Damien while the others nodded their heads in support with him.

Normally, Damien developed a special respect for the elders though he will never show it to them no matter how hard they tried, that's why he always prevented himself from punishing them even if they annoy him and for the fact that they feared him a lot caused them to annoy him less.

"This is no case of war and all that, it is just a news, a great news to me but I don't know for you and I don't care of how you will take it either." He cleared his throat before continuing, "I don't know how to drop it, I'm just thinking of the perfect way." He said caressing his temples.

"Just say it anyhow my alpha, we won't mind." The bravest one replied him again while others nodded as usual.

"Like I care if you do." He thought but talked anyway, "I'm having an heir." He declared.

A mighty silence enveloped the throne room immediately. The elders badly wanted to ask each other if they heard wrong but the alpha was present and they didn't wanted to get him angry.

"Say whatever you want to say among yourselves, just assume that today is your free day." Alpha Damien gave them an order and the throne room became noisy at once.

"Um, I miss this." Damien thought and fed his eyes on them.

“Am I the only one that didn’t hear him correctly?” One elder asked the other and they began whispering among themselves till they concluded to ask him questions.

“My alpha, today is our free day you said, then permit us to ask you a few questions that are bothering us.” The bravest one said again.

“Go on, today is your free day, do anything you want and there will be no punishment whatsoever.” Damien declared to them and the elders smiled in relief.

“My alpha, the question in my mind is that, since you are having no woman beside you, then how then did you manage to have an heir.” One of the elders in the right hand side asked.

The question sounds like a mockery though the elder didn’t meant it that way and they were all scared for their heads.

“It’s fine, I don’t know how you will take this but you should take it anyhow. I met a woman some years ago, it was during the heat, though I have always leave the pack house to the woods alone to calm down since the day I lost my luna but that day I met her in the wood and you know as an alpha, the feeling to get laid would become unbearable, so that’s it, we got laid with each other and I only found out that she got pregnant a few days ago and now, she is here with my heirs. She actually gave birth to three pups and the pups are roughly eight years old now.” Damien explained.

“What? Do you meant to say that that weak wolf is the woman and that she had touched you before my alpha?” Rosita asked dumbly.

“No beta, she kept her hands to herself while I was fucking her.” Damien said sarcastically and the elders laughed causing Rosita to be angry and stupid but she managed to keep her feelings in check.

“My alpha, is it true that the woman is a weak wolf?” One of the elders in his left hand side asked.

“And how sure are you that the pups are yours?” Another asked.

“Yes, how sure are you my alpha? For all I know, she can be a desperate bitch, she can meet up a witch to change the face and scents of her pups to convince you that they are yours.” The wisest among the elders told Damien.

Damien chuckled, shocking all for them in the room. “I will answer all your questions, now listen. She is really an omega, she is the weakest wolf I have ever meet and it still baffles me of how someone can be that weak but she is not a bitch.”

Damien dropped his head, staring at his well manicured nails, a smile lingered on his lips as he remembered his moment with Luna in the woods, how he tried to enter her pussy the first time with his massive fleshy and veiny dick but failed and how he forced himself inside her in a doggy style. He was 100% sure that she was a virgin and she was not a bitch and the fact that he saw some lingering blood on his dick when he was washing up convince him that she was no bitch. He was also sure that she can't try to manipulate him by meeting a witch as she feared him greatly.

No one talked during the entire time Damien was thinking, they gave him his privacy to think.

"She was a virgin when I took her and she is not stupid enough to manipulate me. Don't worry, you all should be at the meeting center tomorrow as early as 8:00, make sure you come with as many people as you can for everyone to witness the presentation of my pups and then you all will be given an opportunity to check by yourself if they are mine or not." Damien said.

"That's great my alpha."

"I love that and I can't wait."

They all began to say one thing or the other.

"How is the save and the treasury?"

Chapter 66.

The Morgan triplets, now Blackhood triplets woke up the next day with a start. Katherine rolled over to check up on Drac.

"Hi there Drac, are you still sleeping?" She asked it.

"Meow." It replied back, indicating that it wasn't.

"Let's check up on mom." She picked him up and headed for the door, ignoring her siblings.

"Good morning Katherine." Xander and Annabelle greeted her simultaneously.

"Hi." She simply replied and proceeded to open the door.

"Where are you going?" Annabelle asked her and she turned back to them.

"Why did you care?" She asked and opened the door, only to behold Damien with some maids behind him.

Katherine raised her head to stare at him in the face while he stared back at her with a slight smile on his lips. "Good morning there Katherine, how are you today?" He asked her and squatted to her level. He had made up his mind that he would win her over to his side either she likes it or not.

“Hi Mr. If you will excuse me, I have an important place to be and I don’t really appreciate seeing your face as the first thing in this morning, I won’t be surprised if today is filled with bad lucks.” Katherine said, holding Drac to her chest.

The maids behind Damien gasped silently and they watched Katherine with pity on their faces. “The little girl will be greatly punished.” They thought.

Damien sighed. “Why do you hate me so much? Xander and Annabelle told me in the car that you helped them in finding me.”

“I guess I did wrong in helping them, I thought you will make mom feel so happy when you meet her but I thought wrong. The few words I heard about you since I arrived here are not some things I want to hear about my father and right now, I have to go to mom’s room to check if she is still breathing because I don’t trust you, you can hurt her and we will go back to square one, we will have no one to call our mom.” Katherine said and walked away from Damien.

Damien shut his eyes in pain. “It hurts.” The fact that one of his pups hated him hurts him so much. He had happily come to see them first in the morning only for his happiness to be washed down the drain.

“And oh Mr,” Damien heard Katherine’s voice behind him and gently turned back to stared at her, she was already in front of Luna’s door. “Thank you for making Drac to stay, that means a lot to my mom and I but that doesn’t mean that we are cool.” She gave him a small smile before entering Luna’s room.

Damien smiled, “At least, I did something she appreciated, that’s a great step Damien.” He praised himself.

He later entered the kids room fully with the confused maids behind him. “How does it happened? He let the pup go.”

“Good morning kids.” He greeted with his hands spread out, they both ran into his embrace.

“Dad, you came, good morning.” Annabelle gushed and Damien sat down on her bed with Xander and Annabelle facing him.

“Dad?” The maids thought and some of them fainted which Damien ignored.

“Good morning princess, how are you?” Damien replied Annabelle, ignoring the maids’ confused state.

“Good morning dad.” Xander greeted too.

“Good morning my prince, how are you?” Damien responded with a tight smile on his lips.

“I’m not fine. Katherine is angry at us and mom? I don’t know but I miss her, and she didn’t come to kiss us good morning. Can you allow mummy to bath and dress us up everyday?” Xander cried out with a frown.

Damien sighed, already getting frustrated. “Allow the maids to do that for you, that is why they are here, I want to watch you getting dress up.” Damien tried to persuade them, he didn’t wanted to have anything to do with Luna.

“No!” Xander disagreed and ran out of the room immediately.

“Come dad, you can you watch us in mom’s room, she won’t mind.” Annabelle said as she forced Damien to stand up from her bed and held his hand.

“Bring their dresses over while some of you should stay behind to clean and don’t forget to trash those dirt on the floor.” Damien said, the maids that fainted were the dirt he was referring to and he walked to Luna’s room with Annabelle.

“Mom.” Annabelle called and ran to Luna as soon as she entered the room with Damien.

Luna was sitting on the bed with Katherine’s head on her laps and Xander was sitting side her with his head on her shoulder.

They all raised their heads as they heard Annabelle’s voice and Luna’s eyes ran into Damien’s own, she jumped up immediately in fright. “Good morning my alpha.” She greeted with a bow.

Xander fell on the bed immediately as Luna suddenly stood up because he relaxed on Luna’s body and Katherine rolled off from the bed with Drac.

“Ah! Do you want to break my hand mom?” Katherine cried in pain.

“Baby.” Luna ran to her and helped her up, “I’m so sorry.” She apologized.

“It’s fine mom, it is not your fault.” Katherine said and stared up at Damien with her face so hard and her eyes red with unshed tears. “I hate you so much but what I hate more is the fact that my mom fears you this much!” Katherine thought glaring at him

Damien walked to the reading table and sat on the chair there silently, he read Katherine’s mind and his heart bled. “It was not my fault that she is scared of me, then why is the girl blaming me?” He wondered.

“They want you to dress them up, please do that as fast as possible because I want to declare them as mine this morning and it’s almost time.” Damien said.

“Okay my alpha.” Luna muttered.

“I want you to bath me first today mom.” Xander quickly said.

“No, that’s not happening, it has to be me!” Annabelle argued.

“Shut up Annabelle, I said it first!”

“What? That’s not happening!”

“Okay kids, you three are bathing at ones.” Luna said and headed to the bathroom with her holding Katherine and Annabelle while Xander walked in their front with his hands in his pockets.

“.... and as I have said, I welcome you all here today.” One of the elders completed his speech as they applause him. They were already at the gathering in a field just outside the pack house and thousands of wolves were present, they didn’t really cared about the elder’s speech, all they wanted was to see the pups of the alpha.

“And now, it is the time for the most expected moment as we all welcome my pups and heirs!” Damien declared and the gathering was silent.

Xander, Annabelle and Katherine walked outside with Xander in the middle, he held hands with Katherine and Annabelle. They were all beyond beautiful and looking at them together now, they looked exactly like Damien, just like him!

“These are my pups Black Hoods! They are Annabelle, Xander and Katherine Blackhood!” Damien declared.

“No way!”

Chapter 67.

Beta Rosita looked around to see that no one was staring weirdly at her, they were just jubilating, feeling happy for their alpha, then she sighed, realizing that she said the ‘No way’ within her.

“I’m glad the alpha didn’t hear that but that doesn’t mean that I will give up on him, not now not ever!”

The Blackhood triplets were just sitting down quietly on the seats giving to them beside Damien, staring at everybody strangely as they merry.

“Aren’t they supposed to be animals? Why are they shouting instead of growling?” Katherine wondered within.

“They are all beautiful and I think this is where we belong because we kind of look like them.” Xander said and a smile crept to his lips.

“Have anyone see mom?” Katherine asked trying to locate their mother. She felt that her mother was not safe here especially if she is not with them.

“She’s over there.” Annabelle pointed at a corner where Luna was sitting, she gaze was on them, not wavering for anything.

Katherine waved at her happily and Xander and Annabelle did same causing Luna to waved back.

“I love her so much.” They gushed at once and smiled at each other.

Luna had told them in the morning when they were bathing to not be angry at each other because of anything, they were born together and must tolerate each other and they have been good since the morning.

“Ask your father when we are going back in, mom is still tired and Drac will be lonely.” Katherine said to Xander who was beside her.

“He is your father too and I’m sure he loves you too.”

Katherine rolled her eyes, “Are you asking him or not?” Though Luna had told Katherine to try and accept Damien but it was so difficult for her, Damien’s first given impression taught her shits.

Xander sighed and faced Damien before saying, “Dad, when are we going back in? Mom is tired and Katherine miss Drac.”

“You are going soon when the merriment reduce, just practice soon patience and we can go out later.” Damien told them smilingly with his eyes so bright, his world won’t be so lonely anymore and he was grateful for the moon goddess for making Luna pregnant because of their one night together.

“Well, I don’t think I have more patience because you people are creepy and I badly want to get out of here.” Katherine said and stood up immediately, not giving a damn about what Damien thinks of her.

“Katherine stop! You’re going to get everything mess up.” Annabelle said already on her feet too.

“You were not like this, what changes? You were the sweetest among us, just like mom that I kept on wondering if Annabelle was adopted.” Xander said too and Annabelle frowned.

“Why must you bring me into your shit? If I don’t behaved like mom then I was definitely behaving like dad or our grandparents.” Annabelle argued.

“Who cares?” Xander asked Annabelle while rolling his eyes.

“Well I don’t care about your bickering today. I’m going in and that’s final!” Katherine said and got hold of her red ball gown and started walking away leaving Xander and Annabelle in astonishment and Damien in embarrassment. Damien was sure that all the wolves heard their words because of their hearing abilities.

“There you are.” An elderly man said stopping in front of Katherine and the remaining thirteen elders stood before her.

“You are one of the triplets right?” One asked Katherine.

“Yes but my mom said I shouldn’t talk to a stranger and she also said to respect the elderly ones, so good day.” She concluded her speech with a slight bow.

The elders smiled, “I can see that your mother taught you well.”

“You can say that again.” Katherine said with a snug.

“Who are you and why are you all looking at her like that?” Annabelle said and walked closer to where Katherine was standing with Xander beside her. They both stayed beside Katherine, putting her in their middle with their hands folded on each other.

“Oh! The triplets are complete!”

“Um, he is standing like my alpha.”

They started saying one think or another that made the triplets looked like their alpha.

“Do you think we still need any proofs my fellow elders?” One asked the rest.

“No, not at all. They are surely his.” They replied.

“What did you discovered oh elders of the Black Hood?” Damien walked closer to them and asked them in slight mockery.

"We are sorry for doubting you my alpha, we were just looking out for our alpha." The bravest one among the elders said.

"If so, then you should excuse us." Damien held Xander and Annabelle's hand and walked away with Katherine walking to another direction.

"Katherine, where are you going?" Xander asked her.

"I'm going to walk with mom, you should go ahead, I will meet you in the room with mom." She walked away immediately.

"Does your mother love her most?" Damien was forced to ask them as he couldn't help but to notice the special love between the two.

"Yes, but it isn't mom's fault, Katherine made mom to love her most. Dad, do you know that mom always collects half salary every month because of Xander and me?" Annabelle said.

"And why is that?" Damien asked.

"We will fight in school and mom will pay for damages with half of her salary but Katherine was the gentle one, she hardly cries nor show her emotions, I still don't know why she is like this." Xander replied this time.

"Maybe she just decided to change like people do." Damien said to them.

"No dad, you are wrong. Katherine doesn't change with people. I will just ask her about it and we will persuade her to tell us, she can't ignore us for long." Annabelle said and they all decided to keep shut till they get to the room.

"So, you are the bitch that came from nowhere to steal what is mine right?" Rosita said to Luna as she walked her and Katherine to the room.

"I don't know what you are talking about." Luna denied the accusations, she motioned to Katherine to keep quiet and not say a thing.

"You are just pretending, you are here to take my alpha away from me right? That is why you came with these bastards!"

"If I were you, I wouldn't refer to the alpha's children as bastards. But know this today that I have no interest in the alpha, he is yours, take him and leave me alone."

"That's good to hear but you can't tell me what to call the pups and right now, what I wish to called then is a bastard." Rosita said mischievously.

“Call the names again and meet your doom!”

Chapter 68.

Katherine Balackhood was instructed to keep quiet but she can't help it when someone speaks badly about her family nor call them names.

“Call the names again and meet your doom!” She has said to Rosita. Rosita was left in astonishment.

“Just stay away from my family and focus on your alpha, I'm having no business with him, we only share the pups, nothing more.” Luna said and walked faster away from a shock Rosita till she got to her room.

“You should meet your siblings in your room, I need a long rest.” Luna told Katherine when they got outside of her room.

“Mom, I'm sorry, I speak rudely to an elder again.”

“No, it's fine, you were trying to protect your family.” Luna assured her. “Go on now, I promise that I will be perfectly okay.” Luna persuaded her.

“Okay mom.” She finally agreed and left to their room.

Luna watched her entered her room and she entered her own room too. Strangely, her room was so dark and she marveled because she made sure she left the light on before she left and now, it was switched off.

“Is anyone there?” Luna asked fearfully and was gently looking for the switch.

“Finally, you decided to show up.” Someone said in the room and Luna found the switch that time with her fingers shivering and switched the light on. She screamed when she saw the person in the room.

“Ah!”

Katherine entered their room and saw Damien with Xander and Annabelle, she sighed and walked to her walk-in closet to change her dress, she changed to a short and T-shirt and parked her from two ponytail to single.

Katherine went out of the closet to see that Damien was already preparing to leave.

“Don't forget the afternoon outing okay? You kids can take a nap now, don't worry, I will be here when it's time.”

Katherine just headed to her bed and carried Drac who ran to her happily. "I know you miss me and I miss you too." She caressed it hair with a smile on her beautiful face. She got to her bed and sat down.

"You should get ready too Katherine. I will be taking everyone out in the afternoon." Damien told her.

"Will mom be there?" She asked him with her attention solemnly on Drac.

"No. I want to spend some time with my kids not their mother!" Damien said, already frustrated.

"Since my mom is a minion person and she won't be present in your outing, I don't think it is necessary for me to be there. Look Mr, you have done more damages than good in our lives, even Xander and Annabelle notice it, they were only trying to pretend in themselves not to know. Ask them how mom used to bath us, mom would bath us one after the other and will tell us stories in the bathroom, she will make sure that we are happy. Ask them why they love bathing right after me especially Xander and you will know what I'm talking about. Now you saw it right? You saw it by yourself, you saw how sad we were when we left the bathroom this morning right? That was because for the first time in our lives, bathing was less fun, the water was warm but yet cold mom was busy scolding me for my misbehaviors towards everybody with her eyes so cold and no real smile on her lips." Katherine voiced out then wiped the tears that fell from her eyes before she continued.

"My mom is scared, she is scared that she would not watch us grow till we become a teenager and I don't blame her, the fact that she is scared of you alone can cause an heart attack for her and it will lead to her death. I hate you so much because you destroyed our happy family!"

Damien closed his eyes in pain. "But I don't do anything to her, I don't touch her nor did I hit her." He complained.

"I am sure I will be scared of you if you are not our father dad." Xander said this time and Damien was surprised, he opened his eyes and saw that he was in tears, same as Annabelle.

"Why?"

"No one says anything good about you here since we arrived and mom said it once that we shouldn't have find you and now we know why."

"I've successfully made my children to hate me." He thought with a frown and shame. "I finally become a bad father." He silently turned back and gently walked out of their room.

"I am a bad father, I make my children cry." He kept on ruminating till he walked away.

"We have to come up with a plan, our parents cannot continue like this or else, our family will be split up and we will never enjoy that happy family we always dream of." Katherine said, already tired of the present happenings.

"I agree with you but do you have anything in mind?" Annabelle asked and Xander nodded, agreeing with them.

"No, not yet but I just know that that alpha must grown to love mummy and mummy same, so that we will be happy again." Katherine said again, she found it so hard to call Damien their father.

"We can start making a plan by tomorrow but for now, we will ignore dad so that he will know that we mean it." Xander said.

"That means we will not follow him to the outing in the afternoon." Annabelle said and sighed, "But I want to go."

"You can go with him while I make the plan alone with Katherine." Xander told her.

"I'm not going anymore, you this joy wrecker." Annabelle glared at Xander and he gladly returned the glare.

"Guys, there is something else you have to know." Katherine called their attentions back to herself.

"What is that?" They both questioned her.

"There is one woman around here and I'm sure she is closer to the alpha, she told mom to back off from the alpha because the alpha is hers." Katherine said referring to Rosita.

"What? I hate her already!" Annabelle said.

"Me too."

"She called us a bastard and said that mom is a slut. She meant everything she said guys, she really wants the alpha, so we have to act faster." Katherine concluded.

"How dare she calls us a bastard? I'm reporting her to dad right away." Annabelle said and stood up from her bed.

"Now, that's not a great decision." Katherine said as she held Annabelle's arm. "We are supposed to ignore the alpha remember?"

"Okay fine! Then what should we do?"

“That is why you should sit down and let’s plan together.” Katherine told her again and she gently sat down.

They three got in deep thought for some times, trying to come up with a plan till...

“I’m having a perfect plan!”

Chapter 69.

“Ah!” Luna spanked up from her slumber and looked around the room to see that it was not dark, she was sweating profusely and looked around in an attempt to find Carl, the man in her dream but couldn’t.

“Calm down Luna, it was all a dream.” She tried to calmed herself down. “But what was he doing in my dream? Am I safe?” She wondered and laid back on her bed in thought.

“It is just a nightmare.” She concluded and slept back this time with no dream.

“I’m having a perfect idea.” Xander had said as he stared at his siblings.

“Tell us about it.” Anna chorused with Katherine.

“First thing first, we have to know why dad is like this, then we will ask mom why she fears dad a lot and we will know what next to do after that.” Xander explained.

“That seems like a plan. If you want to know anything about mom, I’m here, I know as much information as you want.” Katherine said.

“Now I’m jealous, mom told you some important stuff and she kept it as a secret from Xander and I.” Annabelle said with a hint of jealousy.

“Mom didn’t tell me anything Annabelle, I just happened to know of it.” Katherine told them.

“I don’t believe that shit and I know you are lying because you are holding tightly to your shirt and you failed to stare at my eyes!” Annabelle pointed out and of course she was right. Katherine had a nasty behavior of clenching to her clothes anytime she lies and she would avoid eyes contact with anyone that it will be glaring that she was lying.

“Fine, you got me! Drac told me.” Katherine declared.

Annabelle exchanged a look with Xander and both busted into laughter. “What do you take us for? A fool? How can innocent Drac tell you when he cannot talk?” Annabelle said. She was staring strangely at Drac that it had to meowed out.

“You have to believe me. He can talk okay but not every time and he only talk when we are alone. He told me everything about mom, he told me that mom was maltreated in her previous pack and she escaped with us in her stomach and was banished. If you don’t believe me then it okay, you can always ask mom about it but remember that you are doing this mission without the knowledge of both of our parents.” Katherine said.

“Okay fine, I believe you, let’s leave it that way. Now, who will we ask about our father? We have to know everything.” Xander said as he closed up the rising argument between Annabelle and Katherine.

“We should question the maids, I’m sure they won’t mind telling us.” Annabelle said.

“I will invite one over right away.” Xander said, he was already leaving the room.

“Do you think they will tell us?” Annabelle couldn’t help but to wonder.

“I hope they will.” Katherine replied.

Xander walked in the hallway, looking for a maid but came across Rosita.

“Oh! It is one of my alpha’s pups.” She gushed sweetly. Her plan was to make the pups to like her, so that she would have more chances with the alpha than Luna and seeing one of the pups alone made her know that her mission began.

“What do you want pup? Are you looking for something or someone?” She further asked him.

“Yes I am. So, if you will excuse me, I have to be somewhere else right now.” Xander said and turned to leave. Xander knew that Rosita was the woman Katherine was talking about, the woman that was trying to steal their mother’s place but he decided to play it cool.

“What is your beautiful handsome?” Rosita said smiling, her smile was too wide to be true, she moved her fingers towards his cheek but his little hand stopped her by holding firmly to her hand.

“We don’t tolerate peoples’ touch in my family especially people who are two faced.” Xander said coolly and dropped her hand.

“What do you mean by two faced?” Rosita asked, still keeping her tight fake smile obvious.

“I don’t know of other word to use but I will advice you to leave my family alone. I want my mom for my dad and not you.” Xander began to walk away but halted, “And moreover, your smile is too fake, you should try to make it less ugly next time, though it suits you so much, it makes you look beautiful in an ugly way.” Xander finally walked away.

Rosita’s smile dropped and she felt like strangling Xander so much that she clenched her hands in a tight fist.

“No, I should calm down now or else I will kill him now and they will suspect me first, so I have to calm down.” She exhaled heavily after she succeeded in calming down, “Though I’m promising you little boy that I will kill you first because I think my dreams can’t be achieved without blood shed.” Rosita walked away afterwards.

“What took you so long?” Annabelle asked Xander immediately he entered in with two maids.

“I met that mad woman and she started displacing some madness but let’s leave that aside, I brought these maids because they have stayed here for long.” He actually questioned the maids before bringing them over. And the main question he asked them was how long they have been serving the master and their answer was that it was very long, so he brought them over.

“Please sit down and make yourselves comfortable. We only want a few answers to our questions and it is about our father, the alpha.” Annabelle said to the maids and the maids sat down on Katherine and Annabelle’s dressing chairs, they were beaming with smiles.

“We are glad to be of help young alphas. Ask us any question and we will gladly answer you.” The maids said with a bow.

“What happened to the alpha? Why is he so cold? Was he born this way or made this way? What do you think can change him to the sweet alpha everyone wants?” Katherine asked the questions in one breathe, she was so curious than the rest and she was willing to help for their mother’s sake.

“Well, we will tell you the few stories we know, now listen.....”

The maids told them everything about how Damien was so sweet before losing his mate and how much colder he was when he lost her. How he killed mercilessly and rule them strictly till they came to a conclusion.

“..... We know that someday, he will change back to how he was before but we don’t know how he will change or what will change him.” The concluded.

“This had to stop! No wonder the maids always pity me every time I speak rudely to him.” Katherine said.

“And to learn that he punishes the kids equally makes everything gross!” Annabelle said.

“Don’t worry, we will put a stop to it all!” Xander determined, standing to his feet

“And what is going on here?”

Chapter 70.

Carl Rogan was in his chamber, he was waiting for the messenger he sent on an important errand and he stared out of the window lost in thought.

“Where are you? Are you hiding purposively or you are just somewhere unknown?” He kept on asking himself.

“I warned you but you refuse to listen to me.” Carlton said in his head.

“I wish I listened, I wish I listened to mom too, now I’m all alone.” Carl said and sighed.

The past years have not been some great years to him. Things turned around for him when madam Sandra died and everything had not been favorable.

He had to marry Amelia when she was discovered pregnant and he had to be the pack’s alpha even as he was not ready. He was coronated as the pack’s alpha on the same day he was forced to make Amelia his luna.

Carl discovered that he didn’t love Amelia after the ceremony, he was only lusting after her and he badly wanted his mate back but he realized that Luna was banished and that he was stuck with Amelia, so he decided to accept his fate and move on with his life since his mother was still there to lend him her shoulder if he needs one and alpha Castiano, even though he retired, he still helped Carl to take care of some alpha’s works because it was an heavy weight on Carl’s shoulder.

Everything that he trying to get use to changed from bad to worse when his mom began to have some nightmares of madam Sandra warning her about Rebecca, Amelia’s mother but she didn’t take note to it neither did she tell anybody until it became unbearable and alpha Castiano decided to take his wife away from the pack house so that they will have a rest of mind because they had no evidence against Rebecca and they can’t just believe the luna’s dream.

They left the pack house but that was just it, it was too late because she was poisoned before they left and she died on their way to their safe place and Carl was not there to save her. Alpha Castiano delivered the sad news to Carl through a mind link and he too went missing.

Everything became a burden to Carl and he had to take a break from everything around to pulled himself together and to make some deep researches. He left when his son was two years old and trusted Amelia to take care of him till he was back.

Carl returned to the pack after months with enough evidence pointing at Rebecca as the culprit who killed his mother but met with a bigger shock when he arrived. He met Amelia, his dear wife and luna fucking a guard in their chamber.

Though Carl lost interest in her a long time ago, he still tired to please her for the sake of his son whom he later found out that he wasn't his.

Carl first put Rebecca into the dungeon for days without food nor water as he thought of what he would do to Amelia and the pup she birth, he commanded the child to be taken to the orphanage and Amelia was kept in a dungeon different from her mom's.

He tortured Rebecca and made sure he inflicted on her skin different forms of pains everyday till she began to beg for death but he didn't killed her and for Amelia, he noticed that Amelia was a sex addict so he granted her her wish and made sure five of his guards fuck her mercilessly everyday and he would sit down enjoying the show.

And right now, Amelia was as weak as anything that he was sure that she won't last for the week while he was sure that Rebecca won't last for the day. He was relieved, he avenged his mom but what he needed next was his mate by his side.

"My alpha!" The messenger shouted, calling Carl with a light tap on his shoulder.

Carl jerked back from reverie, "What?" He asked before looking at the messenger.

"I'm sorry my alpha, I have been calling you for quite a while now and you were not responding." The messenger said respectfully with a bow and walked a little distance away from him.

"Tell me what you know." Carl said with a sigh, not turning back to the messenger.

"She is finally found my alpha." The messenger told Carl, staring at the floor.

Carl turned abruptly to the messenger. "What do you just said?" He questioned unbelievably.

"She is found, we found out her whereabouts but it is not somewhere we can go." The messenger replied, still not raising his head.

“What do you meant by not somewhere we can go? Is there somewhere around the human world that I am restricted from entering?” Carl asked with a frown, glaring at the messenger.

“No my alpha, there is nowhere among the human world that you can’t go.” The messenger replied with one of his knees on the floor, he was scared of getting the alpha angry.

“Then prepare the car, let’s go get your future luna.” Carp said, already going towards his inner chamber for a change of clothing. He was happy, very happy, “I’m sure she will accept me and I will take care of her pups as mine.” He thought.

“That is where the problem lies my alpha, she was in the human world but not anymore. She was found by the father of her pups some days ago and he took her in with him.” The messenger declared.

Carl halted before replying the messenger, “That shouldn’t be a problem right? I’m sure he is not interested in her, he only wants his pups! That even made it easier. I will just go there and reclaim my mate, it is as simple as that.” He opened the inner chamber wanting to enter for the clothes change but the messenger stopped him again.

“My alpha, the father of her pups is an alpha like you and he is even more powerful than you. Please my alpha, we can’t go to the park, it is quite dangerous and death-wishing.” The messenger said fearfully.

“Who is the alpha and which pack made you this scared?” Carl turned back to him with his hands folded.

“The Black Hood pack my alpha and their alpha is Damien Blackhood and he is also the father of her pups.”